Lightships Of Cape Cod:

The Lightships of Cape Cod Frederic L. Thompson, 1983 Cape Cod Lighthouses and Lightships Arthur P. Richmond, 2010 This is an indispensable reference for the lighthouse enthusiast required reading for those interested in maritime history and a necessity for anyone who loves Cape Cod Step back in time and observe the lighthouses and lightships that marked the shores and guided mariners through dangerous waters surrounding Cape Cod Experience these maritime marvels and trace through the history of these lighthouses and lightships Archived plans describe the details of these aids to navigation with more than 500 images including some that have never before been published Complete your journey with a visit to these historic spots using the books comprehensive visitors guide Lighthouses and Life Saving Along Cape Cod James W. Claflin, 2014-07-21 For centuries heroic men and women have guarded the treacherous yet beloved Cape Cod coastlines From Provincetown to Chatham Sandwich to Cuttyhunk and many towns in between residents have relied on the Atlantic for employment and nourishment But Cape Cod has always been plagued with a shifting coastline that consistently defies mariners efforts to pass through Massachusetts waters In 1792 as shipping increased mariners petitioned for a sorely needed lighthouse It was not until 1797 that the first lighthouse on Cape Cod was built at the Highlands in North Truro More lights and rescue stations would follow as the seas claimed their toll Many lightship stations were also established from Chatham through Nantucket Sound to mark the constantly changing sandbars submerged offshore more than in any other spot along the US coastline Today as sea levels change and sands continue to shift some of these historic stations have been lost or moved while still others are preserved only in such photographs as these Lightships of the United States of America, Volume I - Northeast , Lighthouses and Lightships of the United States George Rockwell Putnam, 1917 Lightships, Lighthouses, and Lifeboat Stations Bernie Webber, 2015-12-07 Lightships Lighthouses and Lifeboat Stations is part history book part memoir written by Bernie Webber recipient of the Coast Guard s highest award the Gold Life saving Medal and hero of the Disney movie The Finest Hours While the public will recognize Webber s name from the movie and the bestselling book by the same name few people know that during his lengthy Coast Guard career he served on lightships ships anchored in dangerous areas to warn other vessels of hazards in addition to lifeboat stations small boat rescue stations and lighthouses Webber poses the following question How did the lightship men cope with the isolation constant loneliness boredom fear or just sheer terror All were part of life on board a lightship Rough seas tossed the ship about rearing up and down the anchor chain This was a world of isolation noise from operating machinery and blasts from the powerful foghorn that went on for hours sometimes days at a time Webber answers that question in this book drawing on a combination of personal experience and meticulous historical research Discussions of men going mad lightships being run down by larger ships anchor chains breaking and lightships cast upon shoals are offset with humorous stories and the author s reflections on his best days at sea Webber also explains some of the heroic actions of a few lightship men over the years and points out that they received no recognition at the time The isolation these men faced was intense but they learned to make do with what they had Fourteen historic photos are included as well as a Foreword by Michael Tougias By Monomoy Light North T. Cairn,2000 In this beautifully written book North T Cairn reflects on her three extended summer stays on Monomoy an island wildlife sanctuary Residing alone in an abandoned lighthouse keeper s cottage she lived simply in the wilderness studying the diverse habitats of the refuge and its creatures Cairn recalls her sojourns on Monomoy seamlessly blending memoir with natural and social history to trace the transformations that come from encounters with nature and its inhabitants Her evocative observations of the barrier island paradise sea and sand light flora migrating birds white tailed deer gray and harbor seals echo larger transcendent issues of life in a changing world For Cairn the outer world of nature also becomes a metaphor for the inner world of reflection new discoveries and healing particularly of her own childhood trauma and long estrangement from family By Monomoy Light will reawaken the reader to the necessities of rest and peace of space apart for meditative listening and quiet of the imperative to preserve the character of the wilderness wherever it may be found Annual Report of the Light-House Board of the United States to the Secretary of the Treasury for the Fiscal Year Ended ... United States.
