Like A Burning Fire:

The Covenant Riaan Engelbrecht, 2024-04-10 As the children of God we have a covenant in place with God A covenant is similar to an agreement or a binding contract By the Covenant of Grace we are redeemed and liberated from our sins and former life of carnality Yet we also have a part to play even though we may not always think so Our part is to love God to obey Him to follow His Word to have no other gods to lead holy and pure lives and to fulfil the Great Commission It is in simplicity also to uphold the Ten Commandments Jesus gave all His Blood for the Covenant which ensures our eternal life provision and protection How often do we truly stand still and contemplate the Covenant We often think of Jesus death and ascension solely in light of redeeming us from sin yet His Blood was shed to ratify sign or give formal consent to a treaty contract or agreement therefore making it officially valid the Covenant By our spiritual covenant we are betrothed unto God and we will one day celebrate the marriage with the feast in heaven In this series of works we look at the importance of the Covenant and the absolute necessity to honour and uphold it God is not one to be mocked and trifled with He is holy mighty and glorious As His creation we need to pay attention to Him to His order and to truth May we worship Him and may we walk in His holiness as Covenant keeping servants of the Most High

Like Fire Theodore Schwartz, Michael French Smith, 2021-07-01 Like Fire chronicles an indigenous movement for radical change in Papua New Guinea from 1946 to the present The movement's founder Paliau Maloat promoted a program for step by step social change in which many of his followers also found hope for a miraculous millenarian transformation Drawing on data collected over several decades Theodore Schwartz and Michael French Smith describe the movement's history Paliau's transformation from secular reformer and politician to Melanesian Jesus and the development of the current incarnation of the movement as Wind Nation a fully millenarian endeavour Their analysis casts doubt on common ways of understanding a characteristically Melanesian form of millenarianism the cargo cult and questions widely accepted ways of interpreting millenarianism in general They show that to understand the human proclivity for millenarianism we must scrutinise more closely two near universal human tendencies difficulty accepting the role of chance or impersonal forces in shaping events that is the tendency to personify causation and a tendency to imagine that one or one's group is the focus of the malign or benign attention of purposeful entities from the local to the cosmic Schwartz and Smith discuss the prevalence of millenarianism and warn against romanticising it because the millenarian mind can subvert rationality and nourish rage and fear even as it seeks transcendence Like Fire consummates remarkable longitudinal ethnographic research on the Paliau Movement in Papua New Guinea pursued from the 1950s into the 1990s by Theodore Schwartz with Michael French Smith as his sometime assistant and updated by Smith in 2015 The theoretical arguments are highly provocative and the book is well written and fascinating throughout Like Fire poses important questions about the driving forces and contours of Pacific Island history and the place in it of cargo cults and other millenarian movements Aletta Biersack Professor Emerita University of Oregon Like Fire synthesises old but inaccessible and new material on an important and long lasting indigenous Melanesian movement while making extensive use of the wider literature on cargo cults and millenarianism I find the theorising in this book both very original and an important contribution to the debates on Melanesian religion cargo cults and millenarianism more generally As the authors state the topic of millenarianism has great relevance because of its ubiquity in the contemporary world Ton Otto Professor of Anthropology Aarhus University Denmark and James Cook University Australia

Prevailing Over the Bulls of Bashan Part Two Riaan Engelbrecht,2024-07-10 Several years ago the Lord spoke clearly in my spirit about the intense season the Church is about to face At the time I understood this will not be a short season but might very well run until He comes In this time we are trusting in the Lord for the end time revival but make no mistake times are going to be brutal for those who follow God As a confirmation of this reality God in 2024 spoke of the bulls of Bashan As I sought the Lord on this truth I became acutely aware of the incredible dangers that await those who wish to stand with God In Psalm 22 12 David in his distress laments Many bulls surround me strong bulls of Bashan encircle me The picture of being surrounded by angry bulls intent on goring and trampling their victim is fearful indeed Trouble was near and there was no one to help him Psalm 22 11 Despite these fearsome circumstances David knew that God was not far off God could deliver David's soul from these threats God is raising an end time remnant for a time such as this They obey God and not man They fear not the devil They listen to God follow His truth and seek His will They dismiss the devil's lies and choose to stand with the Light as darkness continues to intensify upon the earth Yes they shall overcome the bulls of Bashan demonic and worldly threats and dangers This end time remnant is facing extreme attack and I believe more than ever since the resurrection of Jesus Ultimately if we as children of God want to survive the bulls of Bashan the spiritual and the physical giants we need to abide in the Lord We need to remain connected to the Vine John 15 We need to become true disciples grow up in the Spirit and grow in God's wisdom truth and knowledge If we are not grounded in the Lord we will be swept away by the storms and be gorged by the bulls After all these bulls are waiting for an opportunity to strike It is critical to remain connected to God for then we are connected to life hope vision joy and life
