Lili Kraus:

Lili Kraus Steven Henry Roberson, 2000 Her long and distinguished performing career included appearances with the world's major orchestras and over a hundred recordings Simply by Sailing in a New Direction Terry Sturm, 2017-09-29 Allen Curnow 1911-2001 was at the time of his death regarded as one of the greatest of all poets writing in English For seventy years from Valley of Decision 1933 to The Bells of Saint Babel's 2001 Curnow's poetry was always on the move from his early approaches to New Zealand identity and myth to later work concerned with the philosophical encounter between word and world Curnow also played a major role in New Zealand life as editor, critic, commentator and anthologist as well as a much loved writer of light verse under the penname of Whim Wham In his later years he acquired an impressive international reputation winning the Commonwealth Prize for Poetry and the Queen's Gold Medal for Poetry Throughout his lifetime Allen Curnow revised, selected and collected his poetry in various ways For the first time this collection brings together all of the poems that Curnow collected in his lifetime grouped in their original volumes The notes reproduce Curnow's comments on individual poems and include relevant editorial guidance This is the definitive collection of work by New Zealand's most distinguished poet Notable Americans of Czechoslovak Ancestry in Arts and Letters and in Education Miloslav Rechcigl Jr., 2021-11-02 As pointed out in my last two publications no comprehensive study has been undertaken about the American Learned Men and Women with Czechoslovak roots The aim of this work is to correct this glaring deficiency with the focus on immigration from the period of mass migration and beyond irrespective whether they were born in their European ancestral homes or whether they have descended from them Whereas in the two mentioned monographs the emphasis has been on scholars and social and natural scientists and men and women in medicine, applied sciences and engineering respectively the present compendium deals with notable Americans of Czechoslovak ancestry in arts and letters and in education With respect to women although most professional fields were closed to them through much of the nineteenth century the area of arts and letters was opened to them as noted earlier and as this compendium authenticates Lili Kraus (Pianist), Far From the Tree Andrew Solomon, 2012-11-13 From the National Book Award winning author of the brave, deeply humane, open-minded, critically informed and poetic The New York Times The No. 1 Bestseller The No. 1 Demon comes a book about the consequences of extreme personal and cultural differences between parents and children From the National Book Award winning author of The No. 1 Bestseller The No. 1 Demon An Atlas of Depression comes a monumental new work a decade in the writing about family In Far from the Tree Andrew Solomon tells the stories of parents who not only learn to deal with their exceptional children but also find profound meaning in doing so Solomon's startling proposition is that diversity is what unites us all He writes about families coping with deafness, dwarfism, Down syndrome, autism, schizophrenia, multiple severe disabilities with children who are prodigies, who are conceived in rape, who become criminals, who are transgender While each of these characteristics is potentially isolating the experience of difference within families is universal as are the triumphs of love Solomon documents in every chapter All parenting turns on a crucial question to what extent parents should accept their children for who they are and to what extent they should help them become their best selves Drawing on forty thousand pages of interview transcripts with more than three hundred families Solomon mines the eloquence of ordinary people facing extreme challenges Whether considering prenatal screening for genetic disorders cochlear implants for the deaf or gender reassignment surgery for transgender people Solomon narrates a universal struggle toward compassion Many families grow closer through caring for a challenging child most discover supportive communities of others similarly affected some are inspired to become advocates and activists celebrating the very conditions they once feared Woven into their courageous and affirming stories is Solomon s journey to accepting his own identity which culminated in his midlife decision influenced by this research to become a parent Elegantly reported by a spectacularly original thinker Far from the Tree explores themes of generosity acceptance and tolerance all rooted in the insight that love can transcend every prejudice This crucial and revelatory book expands our definition of what it is to be human New York Magazine ,1974-07-01 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea The Wisdom of Tolerance Daisaku Ikeda,Abdurrahman Wahid,2015-04-15 What do Buddhism and Islam have in common And what positive characteristics might Buddhist Japan and Muslim Indonesia be able to offer one another In this thoughtful and wide ranging discussion which draws on creative artists and thinkers as diverse as Beethoven Goethe Tolstoy Thomas Jefferson and Akira Kurosawa distinguished representatives from each country demonstrate that meaningful dialogue between religions and cultures begins with a one to one conversation between individuals Addressing the similarities of their nations as island peoples with a shared history of trade and cultural exchange Abdurrahman Wahid and Daisaku Ikeda agree that the aim of dialogue like that of Buddhism and Islam alike is fundamentally the goal of peace A pivotal moment in the conversation comes when reference is made to the Indonesian story of the Bamboo Princess from the Chronicle of the Kings of Pasai this is seen to bear close resemblance to the Japanese Taketori Monogatari or Tale of the Bamboo Cutter Such narrative interrelationship which can be discerned even in the midst of religious and cultural distinctiveness emerges as a powerful symbol of the common humanity not just of Indonesia and Japan but of all cultures Both thinkers continue to draw on their respective traditions on their personal experiences of war and adversity and especially on the lives of the Buddha and the Prophet Mohammed to show that harmony springs from an attitude of tolerance and nonviolence which is where true courage resides Whether masterfully expounding the teachings of Nichiren or indicating that a proper understanding of jihad is not about religious conflict but about communicating the truth of Allah the
