Limits Of Thought And Power In Medieval Europe:

Limits of Thought and Power in Medieval Europe Edward Peters, 2001 The essays in this volume constitute a series of investigations into the limitations on thought and power as conceived by thinkers in the medieval West and they draw on material ranging from law to literature The author deals with limits on the human desire for knowledge the passion with which knowledge could legitimately be pursued and the propriety of the knowledge sought as well as the limits that might be tolerable and tolerated in the case of royal incapacity or misbehaviour One particular focus is the work of Dante Alighieri and these ideas are traced across a wide range of his thought Chronologically the essays run from Augustine and the Gnostics through to Shakespeare

Guns and Men in Medieval Europe, 1200-1500 Kelly DeVries, 2024-10-28 These articles are devoted to the two main aspects of medieval warfare men and technology Men fought led and ultimately killed in war while the technology that they used facilitated these tasks The first group of essays highlights human strengths in the fighting of medieval wars with a focus on events of the 14th and 15th centuries specifically the Anglo French wars and wars against the Turks A second group addresses the technological side of warfare in particular the advent and proliferation of early gunpowder weapons which evolved rapidly during the late Middle Ages although never replacing the role of men The articles study various facets of this evolution from the increased use and effectiveness of guns in battles sieges and naval warfare to changes in their science and metallurgy surgical treatment of wounds caused by them and governmental centralization of the technology

The Development of Mathematics in Medieval Europe Menso Folkerts, 2024-10-28 The Development of Mathematics in Medieval Europe complements the previous collection of articles by Menso Folkerts Essays on Early Medieval Mathematics and deals with the development of mathematics in Europe from the 12th century to about 1500 In the 12th century European learning was greatly transformed by translations from Arabic into Latin Such translations in the field of mathematics and their influence are here described and analysed notably al Khwarizmi s Arithmetic through which Europe became acquainted with the Hindu Arabic numerals and Euclid s Elements Five articles are dedicated to Johannes Regiomontanus perhaps the most original mathematician of the 15th century and to his discoveries in trigonometry algebra and other fields The knowledge and application of Euclid s Elements in 13th and 15th century Italy are discussed in three studies while the last article treats the development of algebra in South Germany around 1500 where much of the modern symbolism used in algebra was developed

Sin: Essays on the Moral Tradition in the Western Middle Ages Richard Newhauser, 2023-07-28 Richard Newhauser examines here aspects of the moral tradition of medieval thought specifically the construction of the seven deadly sins their offspring and related schematizations of immorality in the Latin West The emphasis in these studies is on the malleability of moral categories their relationship to changes in medieval culture and the creativity and sensitivity of the thinkers who made use of the concepts of sinfulness in the Middle Ages The first section examines the contexts in which the seven deadly sins or nine accessory sins are found in medieval Latin English and German texts and in particular the genre of the treatise on vices and virtues as the major vehicle in which concepts of immorality were examined and presented to a variety of audiences for meditative or pastoral purposes The second section deals with one of the more interesting of the seven deadly sins avarice in its penitential literary apocalyptic and institutional contexts as its definition changed slowly with developing commercial experiences in medieval Europe In the last section the breadth of the concept of a sinful curiosity is examined and its historical development is delineated in the thought of Augustine of Hippo and the early Cistercians

Heresy and the Persecuting Society in the Middle Ages Michael Frassetto,2006-04-01 This volume examines the influence of R I Moore and the nature of heresy and its repression in the Middle Ages The volume considers the vexing question of the origins of medieval heresy and the possible influence of Bogomil missionaries Geographic areas not usually examined for the growth of heresy are examined and a new understanding of the violence of the Albigensian Crusade is offered The blurred boundary between heresy and orthodoxy and the nature of heresy and popular religion are also discussed The final chapters consider the formation of the persecuting society and Moore s reflection on scholarship of the late 20th century The volume offers new insights into the nature of heresy and society in the Middle Ages Contributors include Malcolm Barber Daniel F Callahan Michael Frassetto James Given Bernard Hamilton Carol Lansing Laurence W Marvin R I Moore Mark Pegg Edward Peters Arthur Siegel Susan Taylor Snyder and Claire Taylor

Studies in Scholasticism Marcia L. Colish,2024-10-28 Spanning thirty years the papers brought together in this volume reflect three of Professor Colish s interests as a historian of medieval scholastic thought The first group of studies represent investigations that flowed into and out of the research on Peter Lombard d 1161 and his contemporaries that culminated in her book Peter Lombard 1994 Following the publication of that work she next sought to discover how Peter s theology became mainstream Paris theology in the period between Lombard s death and the early 13th century resulting in the second group of papers in this collection Finally the last two papers offer reflections on broader interpretive issues considering ways in which medievalists ought to reconsider their general understanding of the story lines of high medieval intellectual history

Feuding and Peace-Making in Eleventh-Century France Stephen D. White,2024-10-28 The essays in this volume discuss feuding and peacemaking in France during a period extending from the mid 10th to the early 12th century They treat various aspects of so called dispute processing a term coined by legal anthropologists to refer to the political processes and discursive practices through which conflict is mediated politically socially legally and culturally Each of the essays can be read both as one element in a larger critique of the theory that a feudal revolution in c 1000 initiated a century long era of feudal anarchy in France and as a study on a particular topic in medieval European legal and political history These include feuding violence the emotional dimensions of conflicts among elites the role of norms and normative argument in disputes the uses of unilateral ordeals and judicial duels in litigation and alternative strategies for terminating disputes

The Revival of Planetary Astronomy in Carolingian and Post-Carolingian Europe Bruce S. Eastwood,2017-11-01 This title was first published in 2002 Before the introduction of Greco Arabic mathematical astronomy in the 12th century what astronomy was there in the medieval West While we know of developments in computus which calculated with solar and lunar cycles to create Christian calendars and in monastic time telling by the stars was anything known of the five planets Using glosses commentaries and diagrams to the early manuscripts of four classical Latin authors Pliny Macrobius Martianus Capella and Calcidius Bruce Eastwood provides evidence for the extensive development of the sixth liberal art astronomy from the time of Charlemagne forward with a particular focus on the diagrams used and invented by Carolingian and later scholars Learning to understand the motions of planets in terms of spatial or geometrical arrangement they mined these Roman writings for astronomical and cosmological doctrines in the process not only absorbing but also creating models of planetary motions What they accomplished over three centuries was to establish a basic set of models that showed the reasoned order of the planets in the heavens

Literary Appropriations Paul Maurice Clogon,2011 Since its founding in 1943 Medievalia et Humanistica has won worldwide recognition as the first scholarly publication in America to devote itself entirely to medieval and Renaissance studies Since 1970 a new series sponsored by the Modern Language Association of America and edited by an international board of distinguished scholars and critics has published interdisciplinary articles In yearly hardcover volumes the new series publishes significant scholarship criticism and reviews treating all facets of medieval and Renaissance culture history art literature music science law economics and philosophy

Considering Medieval Women and Gender Susan Mosher Stuard,2024-10-28 Professor Stuard collects here a set of her articles on women and gender in the Middle Ages beginning with her first published in 1975 The first section on marriage opens with an exploration of the Ragusa Dubrovnik archives reaches out to consider patterns of gift giving at marriage and of consumption The second section focuses on slavery specifically women destined for domestic service The final parts contain historiographical surveys of the field of women and gender studies and three biographical studies

Law and Religion in Chaucer's England Henry Ansgar Kelly,2023-05-31 These essays in a second collection by Professor Kelly investigate legal and religious subjects touching on the age and places in which Geoffrey Chaucer lived and wrote especially as reflected in the more contemporary sections of the Canterbury Tales Topics include the canon law of incest consanguinity affinity spiritual kinship the prosecution of sexual offences and regulation of prostitution especially in the Stews of Southwark legal opinions about wife beating and the laws of nature concerning gender distinction focusing on Chaucer's Pardoner and the technicalities of castration Sacramental and devotional practices are discussed especially dealing with confession and penitence and the Mass Chaucer's Prioress serves as the starting point for a treatment of regulations of nuns in medieval England and also for the presence real and virtual of Jews and Saracens Muslims and pagans in England and conversion efforts of the time as well as sympathetic or antipathetic attitudes towards non Christians Included is a case study on the legend of St Cecilia in Chaucer and elsewhere and as patron of music and a discussion of canonistic opinion on the licit limits of medicinal magic in connection with the ministrations of John the Carpenter in the Miller's Tale

Medieval Aristotelianism and its Limits Cary J. Nederman, 2024-10-28 This volume deals with the development of moral and political philosophy in the medieval West Professor Nederman is concerned to trace the continuing influence of classical ideas but emphasises that the very diversity and diffuseness of medieval thought shows that there is no single scheme that can account for the way these ideas were received disseminated and reformulated by medieval ethical and political theorists Introduction to Medieval History

Paolo Delogu, 2002-09-26 An introduction to the sources methods and theories most used by historians this book explores the origins of the idea of the middle ages and its development in Renaissance and modern European historical discourse the problem of periodisation and the principal themes of modern historiography

Michel Foucault David Owen, 2017-05-15 Michel Foucault was one of the twentieth century's most influential thinkers whose work has unsettled and transformed the field of social philosophy and the social sciences The essays and articles selected for this volume are written by many of the most important of Foucault's interpreters and interlocutors and show the range of Foucault's influence and the debates it has provoked about Foucault's own approaches and in relation to substantive areas of social philosophy and social science such as power critique enlightenment law governance ethics and truthfulness This volume provides a comprehensive introduction to and overview of the development of Foucault's thought and demonstrates its enduring significance on our understanding of how we have become what we are

Consent, Coercion and Limit Arthur P. Monahan, 2023-08-21 The concepts of popular consent and limit as applied to the exercise of political authority are fundamental features of parliamentary democracy Both these concepts played a role in medieval political theorizing although the meaning and significance of political consent in this thought has not been well understood In a careful scholarly and readable survey of the major political texts from Augustine to Ockham Arthur Monahan analyses the contribution of medieval thought to the development of these two concepts and to the correlative concept of coercion In addition he deals with the development of these concepts in Roman and canon law and in the practices of the emerging states of France and England and the Italian city states as well as considering works in legal and administrative theory and constitutional documents In each case his interpretations are placed in the wider context of developments in law church and administrative reforms The result is the first complete study of these three crucial terms as used in the Middle Ages as well as an excellent summary of work done in a number of specialized fields over the last twenty five years

John Gower and the Limits of the Law Conrad van Dijk, 2013 An examination of the ways in which Gower's poetry engages with contemporary law and legal questions It has long been thought that John Gower was probably a lawyer before turning to poetry and this study reveals his active engagement with contemporary legal debates they include constitutional questions jurisdictional issues private vengeance jurisprudential concepts such as equity and the rigor iuris and aspects of criminal law The author argues that the Confessio Amantis in particular demonstrates Gower's uncertainty about how to reconcile the ideal of a just law with alternative modes of justice such as self help royal discretion and divine will The book also examines the parallel development of the exemplum and casus in medieval literature Exempla frequently create a sense of narrative closure by means of some form of punishment or as Gower would put it vengeance How then do we set Gower s reputation as a sympathetic writer alongside his frequent desire for closure and punishment What are the limits of exemplarity and law These questions are answered by reading Gower in relation to the volatile politics of the Ricardian period and in comparison with the poetic concerns of contemporary writers such as Chaucer and Langland In so doing the book provides a searching introduction to the intersection between literature and law in the late fourteenth century Dr Conrad van Dijk is Assistant Professor of English at Concordia University College of Alberta Edmonton Canada

The Routledge Companion to Medieval Philosophy Richard Cross,JT Paasch,2021-01-12

Like any other group of philosophers scholastic thinkers from the Middle Ages disagreed about even the most fundamental of concepts With their characteristic style of rigorous semantic and logical analysis they produced a wide variety of diverse theories about a huge number of topics The Routledge Companion to Medieval Philosophy offers readers an outstanding survey of many of these diverse theories on a wide array of subjects Its 35 chapters all written exclusively for this Companion by leading international scholars are organized into seven parts I Language and Logic II Metaphysics III Cosmology and Physics IV Psychology V Cognition VI Ethics and Moral Philosophy VII Political Philosophy In addition to shedding new light on the most well known philosophical debates and problems of the medieval era the Companion brings to the fore topics that may not traditionally be associated with scholastic philosophy but were in fact a veritable part of the tradition These include chapters covering scholastic theories about propositions atomism consciousness and democracy and representation The Routledge Companion to Medieval Philosophy is a helpful comprehensive introduction to the field for undergraduate students and other newcomers as well as a unique and valuable resource for researchers in all areas of philosophy

Political Representation in the Later Middle Ages Hwa-Yong Lee,2008 This book explores the theory of political representation as articulated by the fourteenth century Italian thinker Marsilius It combines historical research on Marsilius with an analysis of the contemporary theory of representative democracy Modern theorization of political representation identifies the relation between the represented and the representative as a central theme In order to assess how a representative system can reasonably be expected to operate for the benefit of the whole people political representation must be understood through a comprehensive conception of the political process as a whole To this end Marsilius provides us with a perspective from which to examine the philosophical foundations of political representation and to reconsider the nature and significance of political representation that is an understanding of political representation in terms of the transfer of power This book suggests that in modern democratic societies where the people effectively cease to be a political agent and their formal authority becomes increasingly notional Marsilius conception of political representation which rejects the depoliticisation and deauthorisation of ordinary citizens has much to offer It can in principle offer a coherent alternative approach to building political representation as an effective scheme of public action for all Defining Nature's Limits Neil Tarrant, 2022-11-18 A look at the history of censorship science and magic from the Middle Ages to the post Reformation era Neil Tarrant challenges conventional thinking by looking at the longer history of censorship considering a five hundred year continuity of goals and methods stretching from the late eleventh century to well into the sixteenth Unlike earlier studies Defining Nature's Limits engages the history of both learned and popular magic Tarrant explains how the church developed a program that sought to codify what was proper belief through confession inquisition and punishment and prosecuted what they considered superstition or heresy that stretched beyond the boundaries of religion These efforts were continued by the Roman Inquisition established in 1542 Although it was designed primarily to combat Protestantism from the outset the new institution investigated both practitioners of illicit magic and inquiries into natural philosophy delegitimizing certain practices and thus shaping the development of early modern science Describing the dynamics of censorship that continued well into the post Reformation era Defining Nature's Limits is revisionist history that will interest scholars of the history science the history of magic and the history of the church alike The Work of Jacques Le Goff and the Challenges of Medieval History Miri Rubin, 1997 Essays on medieval history inspired by and engaging with the work of Jacques Le Goff The essays in this volume arise from the proceedings of a conference held in 1994 to celebrate the life and work of the eminent French medievalist Jacques Le Goff Set within thematic sections popular religion and heresy the body royalty and its mystique intellectuals in medieval society and others many of the challenges raised by Le Goff are reassessed and reappraised There is an explicit historiographical focus in a section on the reception and influence of Le Goff with particular reference to the Annales school of history with which he is strongly identified the volume also indicates the problems which animate current research in medieval studies especially in certain areas of social and cultural history MIRI RUBIN is Professor of History Queen Mary University of London Contributors ALEXANDER MURRAY PETER BILLER ANDR VAUCHEZ R I MOORE OTTO GERHARD OEXLE LESTER K LITTLE WALTER SIMONS ADELINE RUCQUOI ALAIN BOUREAU JEAN DUBABIN WILLIAM CHESTER JORDAN PETER LINEHAN MIRI RUBIN GABOR KLANICZAY AARON GUREVICH ROBIN BRIGGS STUART CLARK
