The Battle of Lincoln Park Daniel Kay Hertz,2018-10-16 A brief cogent analysis of gentrification in Chicago An incisive and useful narrative on the puzzle of urban development Kirkus In the years after World War II a movement began to bring the middle class back to the Lincoln Park neighborhood on Chicago s North Side In place of the old poorly maintained apartments and dense streetscapes rehabbers imagined a new kind of neighborhood a modern community that combined the convenience diversity and character of a historic urban quarter with the prosperity and privileges of a new subdivision But as property values rose longtime residents found themselves being evicted to make room for progress and they began to assert their own ideas about the future of Lincoln Park As divisions deepened over the course of the 1960s debate gave way to increasingly violent demonstrations Each camp became further entrenched as they tried to settle the eternal questions of city planning Who is a neighborhood for And who gets to decide Chicago Dennis H. Cremin,2006 With the help of Elan Penn s glorious images university professor and public historian Dennis Cremin leads us on a spectacular tour of the windy city Visit beloved landmarks and great institutions such as the Water Tower Hull House and Navy Pier and learn about Chicago s history from the settlement days to the grand metropolis we know today Celebrate world renowned cultural sites such as the Art Institute Field Museum Shedd Aquarium as well as brilliant newcomers including the Mexican Fine Arts Museum Walk through the beautiful city created Millennium Park a spectacular result of the partnership between public and private sectors Gaze at the economic political and artistic structures that marked Chicago s budding cityscape in the past and still remain today the Stock Yards Entrance Pilgrim Baptist Church and Lincoln Park s Bates Fountain This collection truly captures the essence of a great city [Report of the Commissioners \[April 1, 1898-March 31, 1899\]](#) and a History of Lincoln Park Chicago (Ill.).
