Conversations with Linda McCartney Sussan Evermore,Ronald Ritter,2017-01-11 We began Conversations with Linda McCartney on a quiet Sunday morning in Bath in the United Kingdom That morning I had the strong emotion to contact her through Sussan my partner I said to Sussan it might be possible that she wants to be in contact with us would she attempt to contact her and open a channel What I discovered about Linda through our forty minute channelling sessions was a very real loving person in the true sense who spoke candidly about her life with Paul and her children her death from cancer and answers to my question of how this could have happened to someone so health conscious I asked about her feelings towards Heather Mills and Paul's current wife Nancy Shevell their children and life in general The answers revealed a remarkable woman compassionate intelligent and very giving of herself towards her husband and children However what shone in all our conversations was her deep love for Paul and her enduring love for her children and their well being now and into the future Questions and answers revealed her feelings towards her life as the wife of Paul McCartney the famous celebrity and mother of her children The reasons she saw for her passing and advice to other woman regarding breast cancer Her answers are remarkable to say the least One of the questions I asked her was how would Paul react to news that we have had spiritual contact with her she shrugged her shoulders and said he would probably dismiss it The other question was how would the children react to any news of the sessions with her and the answer was they were used to media interest in them and as a close family they would also be inclined to ignore it Linda said they were all spiritual people in their own right able and capable of making their own decisions on this matter Please enjoy with an open mind the conversation with Linda and the responses to her life Bon Voyage into a world that exists beyond our known reality
