SOUCEK KING,1993 The Architecture of Bart Prince Christopher Curtis Mead,1999 The only book on the exuberant work of a uniquely original American architect Bart Prince whose breathtaking buildings stand from Ohio to Hawaii is recognized internationally for embodying the American tradition of individualism personified by Louis Sullivan Frank Lloyd Wright and Bruce Goff Interior Design and Decoration ,1996-09 A Century of Interior Design 1900-2000 Stanley Abercrombie,2003 Interior design has undergone a number of revolutions in the past 100 years and through it all the concept of design seeped into the general cultural consciousness touching every aspect of our day to day lives from the bedroom to the office A Century of Interior Design tells the story of this field s most eventful century in a completely accessible yet comprehensive way by detailing all the most important milestones in a visual timeline format Every two to four pages represent a different year and for each year fascinating developments are summed up under different categories No other design retrospective book has produced such a nuanced and well rounded picture of the field Culled from a multitude of archives and researched over several years the stunning images show key interior views furniture and fabrics Whether you re a designer looking for period inspiration or a student seeking a specific fact it s easy to thumb immediately to the year desired in this essential reference Interior Design ,1993 Contemporary Authors New Revision Series Pamela Dear,2001-06 In response to the escalating need for up to date information on writers Contemporary Authors New Revision Series brings researchers the most recent data on the world s most popular authors These exciting and unique author profiles are essential to your holdings because sketches are entirely revised and up to date and completely replace the original Contemporary Authors entries For your convenience a soft cover cumulative index is sent biannually While Gale strives to replicate print content some content may not be available due to rights restrictions Call your Sales Rep for details Designing with Wood Micro Data Base Systems, Incorporated (m d b s),1997-09 Contract Design ,1993 The Publishers Weekly ,2001 Designing with Fabric Carol Soucek King,1996 1996 How interior designers and architects use fabric to enliven every setting throughout the home Floor Covering Weekly ,1994 Making Home Work Jane E. Simonsen,2006-12-08 During the westward expansion of America white middle class ideals of home and domestic work were used to measure differences between white and Native American women Yet the vision of America as home was more than a metaphor for women s stake in the process of conquest it took deliberate work to create and uphold Treating white and indigenous women s struggles as part of the same history Jane E Simonsen argues that as both cultural workers and domestic laborers insisted upon the value of their work to civilization they exposed the inequalities integral to both the nation and the household Simonsen illuminates discussions about the value of women s work through analysis of texts and images created by writers women s rights activists reformers anthropologists photographers field matrons and Native American women She argues that women such as Caroline Soule Alice Fletcher E Jane Gay Anna Dawson Wilde and Angel DeCora called upon the rhetoric of sentimental domesticity ethnographic science public display and indigenous knowledge as they sought to make the gendered and racial order of the nation visible through homes and the work performed in them Focusing on the range of materials through which domesticity was produced in the West Simonsen integrates new voices into the study of domesticity s imperial manifestations Books in Print Supplement ,2002 Books in Print ,1994

HEADZ-zINe: Vol. 1, 'REGIONS-UK', Issue 2 Dr Adam de Paor-Evans,2021-01-07 HEADZ zINe is a periodical output of the HEADZ Project Taking the approach of a fanzine with a critical edge it challenges the convention of academic knowledge production and dissemination HEADZ zINe seeks to capture the personal local and communal histories of hip hop HEADZ zINe is foremost interested in the stories of its co authors and through a series of in depth discussions and complimentary analysis of the artefacts and archives of hip hop HEADZ zINe reveals a set of previously untold stories When we talk about hip hop culture and hip hop history we rarely talk about 50 year olds from the far flung corners of the UK predominantly corners constructed of white majority space where hip hop culture would never have been thought to have existed in the 1980s However as hip hop culture exploded across the globe it infiltrated the remotest inhabited parts of the world This second issue in Volume 1 of HEADz zINe focuses on pioneering hip hop practitioners and adopters from Devon and Cornwall Much like the personal histories shared in issue 1 by those that grew up in the North West of England there are stories here of limited access to hip hop and a shared sense of desire for fully absorbing the culture or as much as could be absorbed considering communication and societal practices of the era and the region s cultural context The hunger for knowing about hip hop and knowing hip hop became paramount in the lives of some young Westcountry people and in this issue the personal histories of twelve hip hop practitioners and adopters growing up in the provincial cities of Exeter and Plymouth the local towns of Bradninch Camborne and Sidmouth and the villages of Newton Poppleford and Buckland Monachorum are presented This issue focuses on the formative and arguably most important decade for the evolution of provincial hip hop in Devon and Cornwall 1983 1992 However not all co authors discuss this period but rather have focused on specific periods of time within this developmental decade Almost 40 years on from its arrival in Britain this issue presents twelve conversations with its co authors to demonstrate hip hop s girth reach and power Furthermore the narratives here also attest to hip hop's influence on how it has shaped the lives of this issue's co-authors by equipping them with a creative and technological skillset how to approach everyday life or understanding their own personal histories and cultural identities from The Westcountry to London to Tanzania to India to Pakistan questioning forms of Englishness and Britishness

Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1996 The WISE Journal Klaudio Muca, Carsten Primdahl, 2022-03-09 The WISE Journal investigates the dynamic relationship between architecture humans and human activities in learning and work environments The publication brings into conversation different scientific disciplines and some of the world's foremost thinkers This extensive mixed media journal offers its readers food for thought on how to translate this cross disciplinary exploration into fulfilling long lasting architecture intentionally stimulating spaces that support productivity learning and well being The e book contains a series of interviews in video and podcast format alongside numerous illustrations that support articles case studies and essays For in depth readers the publication provides hundreds of pages of text with thorough references to peer reviewed articles Education institutions should remember that their ultimate customer is not the students nor their parents but society at large The WISE Journal beautifully demonstrates the intricate impact that education has on space skills and society Ben Nelson Founder Minerva University The WISE Journal has identified a set of important topics whose relationship to one another can benefit from appropriate examples and thoughtful reflections Howard Gardner Harvard Graduate School of Education The WISE Journal brings into conversation the many diverse disciplines involved in the design of intentional spaces This cross pollination of research theory insights and practice is essential to advancing architecture for wellbeing and lifelong learning Susan Magsamen Executive Director International Arts Mind Lab
