Empty Diaries:

Empty Diaries Robert Sheppard, 1998 Poetry a glorious and energetic flow of cut up shifting perspectives Thoroughly different thoroughly enjoyable Bypass EMPTY DIARIES is an important part of Sheppard's long project TWENTIETH CENTURY BLUES It provides an alternative history of the century largely through the device of a succession of female narrators each of whom knows she is narrated by a man Robert Sheppard's essays and articles have appeared in the TLS New Statesman and other journals He is currently Senior Lecturer in English and Writing Studies at Edge Hill University College in Lancashire England Other Richard Caddel, Peter Quartermain, 1999 The most significant US anthology of innovative poetries from the UK and Ireland in over 25 years When most Americans think of contemporary British poetry they think of such mainstream poets as Ted Hughes Philip Larkin and Geoffrey Hill Yet there is a vibrant diverse alternative poetry movement in the UK inspired in large measure by the work of such significant mentors as Basil Bunting and J H Prynne There is growing interest in this work in the United States as alternative American poetries express increasingly transnational concerns and yet almost none of it is available here OTHER is a highly focused anthology bringing together several important strands of English language poetry that are not otherwise so readily accessible It includes work by 55 poets among them Cris Cheek Brian Coffey Fred d Aguiar Allen Fisher Ulli Freer Randolph Healy Linton Kwesi Johnson Wendy Mulford Tom Raworth Denise Riley Catherine Walsh a critical introduction addressing such topics as the interaction of British and American poetic traditions and brief biographical and bibliographical notes on each poet The Deshima Diaries , 2023-08-07 English translation of the marginalia or marginal notes that were added to the text of the Deshima Diaries from the 1670's onwards in order to provide the Dutch chief of Deshima with a quick reference to the notes of his predecessors This volume covers the marginalia from the 1700-1740 diaries Providing the general public and especially those who have neither a command of Dutch nor of Japanese access to a fascinating period of Japanese history in which the Dutch played such a singular role At the same time the serious scholar will obtain an easy key to the extremely rich holdings of the archive of the Deshima trading factory which covers a shelf length of more than forty meters in the National Archives in the Netherlands but which has been only rarely utilized by historians Japanologists or other scholars The Deshima archives of the Dutch East India Company VOC were used originally as a corpus of knowledge and experience amassed over the years by generations of Company personnel It was a source which was consulted by opperhoofden whenever they were in doubt about the right answer to exasperating questions or challenges posed by Japanese society in the form of shogunal decrees orders by the governors of Nagasaki and the stubborn demeanor by blackmailing and manipulative officials Life at Deshima was so regulated and controlled both by workings of the Japanese bureaucracy and by the rhythms of the East India Company's seasonal trade with Japan that keeping a dagregister or diary in which all the remarkable occurrences were noted assumed crucial importance This in contrast to other VOC factories where the keeping of a diary though obligatory was often neglected In the isolation of Deshima almost everything seen or heard was notable Skipping through the text one is also inevitably touched by the suffering inflicted on Japanese society by perennial scourges such as earthquakes epidemics that one general disease called poverty and the fires which periodically destroyed large portions of the great cities The present volume is a thoroughly revised edition especially with regard to the Japanese personal and topographical names occurring in the text of volumes III IV of the Leiden edition Scientific Publications of the Japan Netherlands Institute No 12 Published by the Japan Netherlands Institute Tokyo 1992 original ISBN 4930921015
