En direct d'Imaginaire T2 Yves PORET, Design's Delight Jan van Toorn, 2006 This book presents a number of experimental projects in communication design as a symbolic and public practice It proceeds from a critical position vis vis the customary mediation of information a position more necessary than ever now that design operates so prominently in the entertaining and marketing spectacle organized by the neo liberal world order as an instrument for the colonization of human existence Unlike the classic form of visual communication the dialogic approach is a connective model of visual rhetoric with a polemic nature and polyphonic visual form a storytelling structure that seeks to reveal the opposing elements of the message and opts for active interpretation by the spectator Kwantitatief bekeken ,2004 Urban Livelihoods, Institutions and Inclusive Governance in Nairobi Bob Hendriks, 2010 This study formulates conditions for sustainable impacts of inclusive and responsive governance through invited spaces offered by the government and claimed spaces created by the poor The study questions how increased contributions to poverty reduction and improvement of quality of life for Nairobi citizens can be realised in an equitable and responsible way while contributing to development of the city and country To adequately address this two sided objective of economic growth and poverty reduction in the contemporary context the study analyses both processes and impacts moreover it examines impacts in terms of quality of life as well as influence and political rights The study explores the individually claimed spaces of households in Nairobi s slums the collectively claimed spaces of hybrid mechanisms for access to peri urban land and tenure and the invited spaces of city wide governance networks The Montreal Law Reports Québec (Province).
