Creation and Chaos JoAnn Scurlock, Richard H. Beal, 2013-10-21 Hermann Gunkel was a scholar in the generation of the origins of Assyriology the spectacular discovery by George Smith of fragments of the Chaldean Genesis and the Babel Bibel debate Gunkel s thesis inspired by materials supplied to him by the Assyriologist Heinrich Zimmern was to take the Chaokampf motif of Revelation as an event that would not only occur at the end of the world but had already happened at the beginning before Creation In other words in this theory one imagines God in Genesis 1 as first having battled Rahab Leviathan and Yam the forces of Chaos in a grand battle and only then beginning to create The problem with Gunkel s theory is that it did not simply identify common elements in the mythologies of the ancient Near East but imposed upon them a structure dictating the relationships between the elements a structure that was based on inadequate knowledge and a forced interpretation of his sources On the other hand one is not entitled to insist that there was no cultural conversation among peoples who spent the better part of several millennia trading with fighting and conquering one another Creation and Chaos attempts to address some of these issues The contributions are organized into five sections that address various aspects of the issues raised by Gunkel s theories
