Fall Of Freedom:

The Rise and Fall of Freedom of Contract P. S. Atiyah, 2018 The impact of freedom of contract in the 19th century extended far beyond the legal arena as an economic slogan and an ethical attitude Atiyah traces the development and subsequent decline of the freedom of contract depicting its effects on the law's development and the foundation of contractual obligations as well as its broader implications for 19th century English life The State and Freedom of Contract Harry N. Scheiber, 1998-09-01 The relationship of law to economic freedom has been a vital element in the history of all modern democratic societies Freedom of contract is both a technical term in law referring to private agreements and promises and a metaphor often deployed to describe economic liberty This volume of new essays by eminent legal historians offers fresh perspectives on freedom of contract in both senses of the term and considers how economic freedom relates to such classic political freedoms as free speech and other Anglo American constitutional norms The principal focus of the essays is on broad issues of policy and law rather than on narrow considerations of legal doctrine All the contributors reject stereotypes that pervade the existing literature about the allegedly unalloyed individualism of the common law and show how active state interventions of various kinds have shaped contract law in relation to social change throughout our legal history Equally however they reject shibboleths regarding bringing the state back in and take a hard look at the claims of statist ideology regarding the norms and rules that have established the legal boundaries of liberty in the modern industrial and post industrial eras The topics covered are Blackstone's claim that property was the despotic dominion of the private owner A W B Simpson labor and contract John V Orth the influence of philosophical trends on legal innovations James Gordley contract and individualism David Lieberman the tradition of public rights Harry N Scheiber the formal concept of liberty of contract in American law Charles McCurdy the interwoven history of labor law and contract law Arthur McEvoy public policy in relation to natural resources Donald Pisani and globalization of freedom of contract Martin Shapiro The Progressive Speaker, 1897 Our Country Benson John Lossing, 1875 Various Sermons Bernard of Clairvaux, 2020-04-15 This last small group of Bernard's sermons to be published in translation by Cistercian Publications rightly goes by the title De variis in the critical edition While most of them treat feasts on the church calendar they do so in a somewhat hit or miss fashion Three sermons also deal with God's will God's mercies and the gifts of the Holy Spirit Two sermons for the feast of Saint Victor are a response to a request to Bernard from the monks of Montiramey the Bollandist Life of Saint Victor appears here as a complement to those sermons Besides the nine sermons normally assigned to the De variis this volume also includes a sermon on the feast of Saint Benedict that was recently added to the collection in Sources Chrétiennes The survival of this loose assemblage of sermons outside of the organized collections of Bernard's sermons provides a reminder of Bernard as preacher and writer able despite all his other activities to turn his hand to preaching when called upon While they treat of disparate themes they allow us to encounter the quintessential Bernard speaking of the life of desire the true meaning of holiness and
