John Lagerwey

In Search Of Personal Welfare:

In Search of Personal Welfare Mu-chou Poo, Poo Mu-Chou, Muzhou Pu, 1998-01-01 The first major reassessment of ancient Chinese religion to appear in recent years this book presents the religious mentality of the period through personal and daily experiences

Religion and Chinese Society Vol. 1 John Lagerwey, 2021-09-24 Thirty years ago Hu Shih's views of Chinese society and history were representative of Sinology in general China itself had no native religion just local customs its only real religion was an import Buddhism These views have now been completely overturned with massive implications for our understanding not only of China but also of humanity as a whole it is no longer possible to imagine that at least one major traditional society constructed and construed itself without reference to a non mundane world that permeated every facet of society and it therefore becomes indispensable for students of China to take the history of Chinese religion into account and for students of religion to take into account the Chinese experience of and Chinese categories for dealing with religious phenomena The present volumes contain a selection of twenty one essays presented in a conference convened jointly by the Ecole française d'Extrême Orient and the Centre for the Study of Religion and Chinese Society of the Chinese University of Hong Kong on Religion and Chinese Society The Transformation of a Field and Its Implications for the Study of Chinese Culture held on May 29 June 2 2000 The collection aims at providing as wide a coverage as possible of recent research in the history of Chinese religion and seeks to draw some tentative conclusions about the implications for the study of Chinese religion and society in general

Religion and Chinese Society: Ancient and medieval China John Lagerwey, 2004 These volumes contain a selection of twenty one essays presented in a conference convened jointly by the Ecole française d'Extrême Orient and the Centre for the Study of Religion and Chinese Society of the Chinese University of Hong Kong on Religion and Chinese Society The Transformation of a Field and Its Implications for the Study of Chinese Culture The collection provides as wide a coverage as possible of recent research in the history of Chinese religion and seeks to draw some tentative conclusions about the implications for the study of Chinese religion and society in general

Religion, Secularism, and Political Belonging Leerom Medovoi, Elizabeth Bentley, 2021-03-08 Working in four scholarly teams focused on different global regions North America the European Union the Middle East and China the contributors to Religion Secularism and Political Belonging examine how new political worlds intersect with locally specific articulations of religion and secularism The chapters address many topics including the changing relationship between Islam and politics in Tunisia after the 2010 revolution the influence of religion on the sharp turn to the political right in Western Europe understandings of Confucianism as a form of secularism and the alliance between evangelical Christians and neoliberal business elites in the United States since the 1970s This volume also provides a methodological template for how humanities scholars around the world can collaboratively engage with sweeping issues of global significance Contributors Markus Balkenhol Elizabeth Bentley Kambiz GhaneaBassiri David N Gibbs Ori Goldberg Marcia Klotz Zeynep Kurtulus Korkman

Leerom Medovoi Eva Midden Mohanad Mustafa Mu chou Poo Shaul Setter John Vignaux Smith Pooyan Tamimi Arab Ernst van den Hemel Albert Welter Francis Ching Wah Yip Raef Zreik Discourses of Purity in Transcultural Perspective (300-1600) ,2015-04-21

While comparative studies on purity and impurity presented in the last decades have mostly concentrated on the ancient world or on modern developments this volume focusses the hitherto comparatively neglected period between ca 300 and 1600 c E The collection is innovative because it not only combines papers on both European and Asian cultures but also considers a wide variety of religions and confessions The articles are written by leading experts in the field and are presented in six systematic sections This analytical categorization facilitates understanding the functional spectrum that the binomial purity and impurity could cover in past societies The volume thus presents an in depth comparative analysis of a category of paramount importance for interfaith relations and processes of transfer Contributors are Aziz al Azmeh Matthias Bley Sven Bretfeld Miriam Czock Licia Di Giacinto Hans Werner Goetz Elisabeth Hollender

Nikolas Jaspert Stefan K ck Stefan Leder Hanna Liss Christopher MacEvitt Hermann Josef R llicke Paolo Santangelo and Ephraim Shoham Steiner Mortality in Traditional Chinese Thought Amy Olberding, Philip J. Ivanhoe, 2012-01-02 Mortality in Traditional China is the definitive exploration of a complex and fascinating but little understood subject Arguably death as a concept has not been nearly as central a preoccupation in Chinese culture as it has been in the West However even in a society that seems to understand death as a part of life responses to mortality are revealing and indicate much about what is valued and what is feared This edited volume fills the lacuna on this subject presenting an array of philosophical artistic historical and religious perspectives on death during a variety of historical periods Contributors look at material culture including findings now available from the Mawangdui tomb excavations consider death in Confucian Daoist and Buddhist traditions and discuss death and the history and philosophy of war The Cult of the Fox Xiaofei Kang, 2006 For more than five centuries the shamanistic fox cult has attracted large portions of the Chinese population and appealed to a wide range of social classes Deemed illicit by imperial rulers and clerics and officially banned by republican and communist leaders the fox cult has managed to survive and flourish in individual homes and community shrines throughout northern China In this new work the first to examine the fox cult as a vibrant popular religion Xiaofei Kang explores the manifold meanings of the fox spirit in Chinese society Kang describes various cult practices activities of worship and the exorcising of fox spirits to reveal how the Chinese people constructed their cultural and social values outside the gaze of official power and morality The Early Chinese Empires Mark Edward Lewis, 2010-10-30 In 221 BC the First Emperor of Qin unified what would become the heart of a Chinese empire whose major features would endure for two millennia In the first of a six volume series on the history of imperial China Lewis highlights the key challenges facing court officials and scholars who set about governing an empire of such scale and diversity Entangled Hagiographies of the Religious Other Alexandra Cuffel, Nikolas

Jaspert, 2019-04-23 Tales of saints whether told by their adherents or detractors frequently featured the holy person s

dealings with members of other religions or cultures or the stories themselves were appropriated by different religious or cultural groups As such narratives moved from one social cultural religious or chronological milieu to another the representation and meaning of the given holy person and the manner of his her dealing with the religious other also often changed As basic storylines remained recognizable the transformations of specific details often provide important clues about shifts in attitudes over time and between communities This volume provides a varied array of case studies of this process ranging from early China to various Christian Muslim and Jewish cultural contexts in the late antique medieval and early modern periods

State and Secularism Michael S. H. Heng, Ten Chin Liew, 2010 The concept of a secular state is important in many parts of Asia and how this is resolved has important implications for The social economic and political development of various Asian countries Unfortunately problems of the secular state have all along been studied based on the historical experience of state formation in Europe with little or no input from the Asian perspective This book will for The very first time present mainly Asian perspectives while drawing on Western experience as well Conceptual issues are discussed together with detailed accounts on how different countries and traditions understand and seek to implement the ideas of a secular state

Dying to Eat Candi K. Cann, 2018-01-05 Food has played a major role in funerary and memorial practices since the dawn of the human race In the ancient Roman world for example it was common practice to build channels from the tops of graves into the crypts themselves and mourners would regularly pour offerings of food and drink into these conduits to nourish the dead while they waited for the afterlife Funeral cookies wrapped with printed prayers and poems meant to comfort mourners became popular in Victorian England while in China Japan and Korea it is customary to offer food not only to the bereaved but to the deceased with ritual dishes prepared and served to the dead Dying to Eat is the first interdisciplinary book to examine the role of food in death bereavement and the afterlife The contributors explore the phenomenon across cultures and religions investigating topics including tombstone rituals in Buddhism Catholicism and Shamanism the role of death in the Moroccan approach to food and the role of funeral casseroles and church cookbooks in the Southern United States This innovative collection not only offers food for thought regarding the theories and methods behind these practices but also provides recipes that allow the reader to connect to the argument through material experience Illuminating how cooking and corpses both transform and construct social rituals Dying to Eat serves as a fascinating exploration of the foodways of death and bereavement

Rethinking Ghosts in World Religions Mu-chou Poo, 2009-06-24 The central theme of this volume is to re examine the received concepts and images of ghosts in various religious cultures ranging from the Ancient Near East and Egypt to the Old Testament the Classical Era Early Medieval and Early Modern Europe Early India and Medieval China As a religious phenomenon the realm of ghosts has been less studied than the realm of the divine Through a collaborative effort by scholars from different disciplines this volume proposes a multi cultural approach to construct a wider and complicated picture of the phenomenon of ghosts and spirits in human societies and to have a grasp of the various problems involved in understanding the phenomenon of ghost The Allure of the Mirror Yanlong Guo, 2025-09-23 In Han China 202 BCE 220 CE few luxury objects were as widely coveted as bronze mirrors Typically circular and ranging from seven to thirty centimeters in diameter these mirrors were crafted from high tin bronze with highly reflective surfaces on the front and intricate designs and auspicious inscriptions on the reverse The Allure of the Mirror explores how and why these objects historically known as haowu fine things became so beloved throughout early imperial China Tracing their production and consumption from manufacture in imperial princely and private workshops to their roles in life and death Yanlong Guo uncovers the varied ways these seemingly trivial objects took on social and cultural significance Across social classes mirrors had a wide range of uses as status symbols personal tools romantic tokens family heirlooms auspicious amulets treasured gifts and funeral offerings Guo demonstrates how these fine things once exclusive to elites gradually became accessible to a wider segment of society Mirrors he argues connected people across the empire fostering a shared cultural community of aesthetic tastes and social values from royal courts to rural households Interdisciplinary and comprehensive The Allure of the Mirror offers fresh insights into the relationship among art society and ideology in the Han Empire revealing how decorative objects could bridge social divides and shape cultural identity From Mulberry Leaves to Silk Scrolls Justin McDaniel, Lynn Ransom, 2015-11-03 From Mulberry Leaves to Silk Scrolls looks closely at a wide variety of Asian manuscript traditions with a special focus on both their history and the ways in which scholars have employed digital technology to make their cataloguing comparative study and aesthetic appreciation more accessible to scholars and students China's Saints Anthony E. Clark, 2011-04-07 While previous works on the history of Christianity in China have largely centered on the scientific and philosophical areas of Catholic missions in the Middle Kingdom China's Saints recounts the history of Christian martyrdom precipitated as it was by cultural antagonisms and misunderstanding Anthony Clark shows that Christianity in China began and grew under similar circumstances to those during the Roman Empire with the notable exception that Catholic missionaries were not successful at producing a Chinese Constantine One of the principal results of Catholic martyrdom in China was the increased indigenization of Christianity During the reconstruction of mission churches hospitals and orphanages after the hostilities of the Boxer Uprising 1898 1900 the Roman Catholic tradition of venerating martyrs was attached to the reinvigoration of Christian communities Not only did Catholic architecture accommodate to Chinese sensibilities but causes for sainthood were also begun at the Vatican to add Chinese names to the Church's list of saints The implications of Clark's work extend beyond the subject of Christianity in China to the broader fields of cultural social economic political and religious history This pioneering study follows the trails of Western missionaries and Chinese converts as they negotiate the religious and cultural chasms that existed between the West and China and it demonstrates that these differences resulted in two very different outcomes Whereas converts appear to have bridged the cultural divide often to the point of self sacrifice political and cultural tensions on the macro level sometimes ended with forceful conflicts This book contributes to a deeper understanding of cultural and religious interaction and provides an account of an heretofore unstudied chapter in the history of Christianity on the global landscape

Death and Philosophy J.E Malpas,Robert C. Solomon,2002-06-01 Death and Philosophy considers these questions with different perspectives varying from the existentialist deriving from Camus Heidegger or Sartre to the English speaking analytic tradition of Bernard Williams or Thomas Nagel to non wester approaches such as are exemplified in the Tibetan Book of the Dead and in Daoist thought to perspectives influenced by Lucretious Epicurus and Nietzsche Death and Philosophy will be of great interest to philosopers or those studying religion and theology but its clarity and scope ensures it will be accessible to anyone who has considered what it means to be mortal

The U. S. Grinnell Expedition in Search of Sir J. Franklin: a Personal Narrative by E. K. K. [With an Appendix.] Elisha Kent KANE (Arctic Explorer.),1854 Implementation and Reauthorization of the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996 United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Indian Affairs (1993-),2002 Chinese Concepts of Privacy Bonnie S. McDougall,Anders Hansson,2002-09-01 Privacy is a basic concept in discussions on the concept of human rights This first book on the traditional Chinese approach to the subject shows that concepts of privacy have been part of discourse in China from the earliest recorded times to the present with varying contents mechanisms functions and values at different times and among different groups of people Individual chapters examine inscriptions on early bronzes medical case histories in the Ming and Qing dynasties fictional representations of privacy experiences discussions on public and private virtue by Liang Qichao the role or absence of privacy issues in letters in early imperial China and the function and values of privacy secrecy and seclusion in the correspondence between Lu Xun and Xu Guangping As the first treatment of Chinese concepts of privacy in any language the book is interdisciplinary by nature and pays particular attention to the terminology and methodology of privacy studies
