In Search Of The San:

In Search of the San, 1997 African Americans of San Francisco Jan Batiste Adkins, 2012 Beginning in the 1840s black men and women heard the call to go west migrating to California in search of gold independence freedom and land to call their own By the mid 1850s a lively African American community had taken root in San Francisco Churches and businesses were established schools were built newspapers were published and aid societies were formed For the next century the history of San Francisco s African American community mirrored the nation s slow progress toward integration with triumphs and setbacks depicted in images of schools churches protest movements business successes and political struggles Ishi's Brain: In Search of Americas Last "Wild" Indian Orin Starn, 2005-06-17 From the mountains of California to a forgotten steel vat at the Smithsonian this eloquent and soul searching book Lit is a compelling account of one of American anthropology s strangest saddest chapters Archaeology After the Yahi were massacred in the mid nineteenth century Ishi survived alone for decades in the mountains of northern California wearing skins and hunting with bow and arrow His capture in 1911 made him a national sensation anthropologist Alfred Kroeber declared him the world s most uncivilized man and made Ishi a living exhibit in his museum Thousands came to see the displaced Indian before his death of tuberculosis Ishi s Brain follows Orin Starn s gripping quest for the remains of the last of the Yahi The Year's Work in the Punk Bookshelf, Or, Lusty Scripts Brian James Schill, 2017-09-25 This is the story of the books punks read and why they read them The Year s Work in the Punk Bookshelf challenges the stereotype that punk rock is a bastion of violent drug addicted uneducated drop outs Brian James Schill explores how for decades punk and postpunk subculture has absorbed debated and reintroduced into popular culture philosophy classic literature poetry and avant garde theatre Connecting punk to not only Hegel Nietzsche and Freud but Dostoevsky Rimbaud Henry Miller Kafka and Philip K Dick this work documents and interprets the subculture s literary history In detailing the punk bookshelf Schill contends that punk s literary and intellectual interests can be traced to the sense of shame whether physical socioeconomic cultural or sexual its advocates feel in the face of a shameless market economy that not only preoccupied many of punks favorite writers but generated the entire punk polemic The Diplomacy of Nationalism Yucheng Qin, 2009-07-22 This is a striking original portrait of the Chinese Six Companies Zhonghua huiguan or Chinese Consolidated Benevolent Association the most prominent support organization for Chinese immigrants in the U S in the late nineteenth century As a federation of native place associations huiguan in California the Six Companies responded to racist acts and legislation by organizing immigrant communities and employing effective diplomatic strategies against exclusion Yucheng Qin substantiates recent arguments that Chinese immigrants were resourceful in fighting for their rights and more importantly he argues that through the Six Companies they created a political rhetoric and civic agenda that were then officially adopted by Qing court officials who at first were unprepared for modern diplomacy Out of necessity these officials turned to the Six Companies for assistance and would in time adopt the tone and format of its programs during China's turbulent transition from a tributary system to that of a modern nation state. Eventually the Six Companies and Qing diplomats were defeated by a coalition of anti-Chinese interest groups but their struggle produced a template for modern Chinese nationalism, a political identity that transcends native place in nineteenth-century America. By redirecting our gaze beyond China to the Six Companies in California and back again, Yucheng Qin redefines the historical significance of the huiguan. The ingenuity of his approach lies in his close attention to the transnational experience of the Six Companies, which provides a feasible framework for linking its diplomatic activism with Chinese history as well as the history of Chinese Americans and Sino-American relations. The Diplomacy of Nationalism enlarges our view of the immigrant experience of Chinese in the U.S. by examining early Sino-American relations through the structure of Six Companies diplomacy as well as providing a better understanding of modern Chinese nationalism.

Backcountry Adventures Southern California Peter G. Massey, Jeanne Wilson, 2006-05 Beautifully crafted high quality sewn 4 color guidebook. Part of a multiple book series of books on travel through America's beautiful and historic backcountry. Directions and maps to 2,970 miles of routes that travel through the beautiful mountain regions of Big Sur across the arid Mojave Desert and straight into the heart of the aptly named Death Valley. Trail history comes alive through the accounts of Spanish Missionaries, eager prospectors looking to cash in during California's gold rush, and legends of lost mines. Includes wildlife information and photographs to help readers identify the great variety of native birds, plants, and animals they are likely to see. Contains 153 trails, 640 pages, and 645 photos. Indigenous Peoples' Rights in Southern Africa Robert K. Hitchcock, Diana Vinding, 2004 This book is concerned with the first peoples, those people who are considered indigenous by themselves and others of southern Africa such as the San, the Nama, and the Khoi, and their rights. Although living in democratic countries like Namibia, South Africa, Zimbabwe, and Botswana, and in principle sharing the same rights and responsibilities as the rest of the population, practice shows that these peoples more often than not are at the margins of the societies in which they live. They often face extreme poverty and they frequently are subjected to discriminatory treatment and exposed to all kinds of human rights abuses. Robert K. Hitchcock is professor of anthropology and geography at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln, USA. He has done extensive research and development work in southern Africa in general and among San peoples in particular. Diana Vinding is an anthropologist working with the International Work Group for Indigenous Affairs (IWGIA) in Copenhagen. Annals of Saint Joseph, 1902 Fiction in the State Library Having a California Coloring California State Library.
