The Sacred Text Ronald F. Satta, 2007-07-15 The advances of geologic science Darwinism theological liberalism and higher textual criticism converged in the nineteenth century to present an imposing challenge to biblical authority The meteoric rise in secular knowledge exerted tremendous pressure on the Protestant theological elite of the time Their ruminations conversations quarrels and convictions offer penetrating insight into their world into their perspective on Scripture and authority and how their outlook was challenged defended and sometimes changed across time Moreover the nineteenth century imbrolios greatly illuminate a recent controversy over biblical authority Some influential modern scholars of American religion contend that the doctrine of the inerrancy of the original autographs is a recently contrived theory a theological aberration decidedly out of concert with mainline orthodoxy since the Reformation They argue that pressure from biblical critics incited late nineteenth century Princeton theologians to fabricate the notion as a way to quell criticism against Scripture American fundamentalists they insist unwittingly adopted inerrancy as orthodoxy being deceived by this innovation This story has become standard scholarly currency in many quarters However The Sacred Text indicates that fundamentalists and conservative Protestants more generally are the standard bearers of the ascendant theory of biblical authority commonly endorsed among many of the leading Protestant elite in nineteenth century America
