In Time Like Glass Reflections On:

The Horrid Looking Glass: Reflections on Monstrosity ,2020-09-25 From the fictional world of vampires zombies and invaders from other worlds to the very real world of revolutionary France and in between the nature of the monster encompasses the very quality that makes them so believable that which we perceive as other While there is a commonality in this otherness the monster lurking in the shadows concealed in darkness or conjured with a few lines from a horror novel suggests the monster as one onto which we are free to project the most distorted and un human features In each chapter of this volume you will discover that the way in which we project what is monstrous is not a singular other but is in fact a part of our own self identity The greatest horror of the monster is not that it stands apart but that once we pull it from the shadow of our own projected imagination we discover that that the monster we fear is also bound to our own mirror image To look at the monster to name that which must never be named is to look upon a reflection and embrace a part of our nature we do not wish to see Journal of the American Medical Association American Medical Association,1921 Hutchings' Illustrated California Magazine ,1858 The Encyclopaedia Britannica Hugh Chrisholm,1911 The Encyclopædia Britannica Hugh Chisholm,James Louis Garvin,1926 The Limbo Lounge Saul Ashes,2024-09-23 In The Limbo Lounge things don't always add up and that's exactly how it likes it The atmosphere is thick with unsaid truths and the drinks They're strong enough to wash down memories you weren't planning on revisiting Here the quiet moments stretch on just a bit too long and the conversations take you places you weren't prepared to go It's a space suspended in time where nothing needs to make sense yet everything does in its own way This isn't your typical supernatural thriller there's no mad dash to uncover a dark secret or a sudden heart stopping revelation Instead it's a slow burn the kind that makes you question what's real and what's been lurking under the surface all along The mood leans more into the world of dark fantasy mystery pulling you in with every quiet exchange every lingering glance There's a story behind every face but don't expect to get the full picture right away If at all The tension here is built from paranormal suspense the kind that doesn't need loud noises or sudden shocks to unsettle you It's there in the details the flicker of a light the way the air shifts when someone enters the room This is a place where you feel like you've been here before even if you know you haven't And it's that creeping familiarity that keeps you on edge For those who appreciate their mystery novels with a sharp edge and a touch of irony The Limbo Lounge delivers The real mystery isn't in the place itself but in the people you meet there and the parts of yourself that you might be avoiding So take a seat order a drink and see how long you can hold onto the comfortable lies you've been telling yourself A Companion to Modernist Literature and Culture David Bradshaw,Kevin J. H. Dettmar,2008-10-20 The Companion combines a broad grounding in the essential texts and contexts of the modernist movement with the unique insights of scholars whose careers have been devoted to the study of modernism An essential resource for students and teachers of modernist literature and culture Broad in scope and comprehensive in coverage Includes more than 60 contributions from
