Steigman, 2005-09-25 A cross disciplinary view of an important De Soto chronicle Among the early Spanish chroniclers who contributed to popular images of the New World was the Amerindian Spanish mestizo historian and literary writer El Inca Garcilaso de la Vega 1539 1616 He authored several works of which La Florida del Inca 1605 stands out as the best because of its unique Amerindian and European perspectives on the De Soto expedition 1539 1543 As the child of an Indian mother and a Spanish father Garcilaso lived in both worlds and saw value in each Hailed throughout Europe for his excellent contemporary Renaissance writing style his work was characterized as literary art Garcilaso revealed the emotions struggles and conflicts experienced by those who participated in the historic and grandiose adventure in La Florida Although criticized for some lapses in accuracy in his attempts to paint both the Spaniards and the Amerindians as noble participants in a world changing event his work remains the most accessible of all the chronicles In this volume Jonathan Steigman explores El Inca s rationale and motivations in writing his chronicle He suggests that El Inca was trying to influence events by influencing discourse that he sought to create a discourse of tolerance and agrarianism rather than the dominant European discourse of intolerance persecution and lust for wealth Although El Inca s purposes went well beyond detailing the facts of De Soto s entrada his skill as a writer and his dual understanding of the backgrounds of the participants enabled him to paint a more complete picture than most putting a sympathetic human face on explorers and natives alike Condensed Reports of Cases in the Supreme Court of the United States Richard Peters, 1845 The

Aliens Like Us? Anthony Aveni, 2025-03-18 In this authoritative accessible and at times funny and irreverent work distinguished anthropologist Anthony Aveni speaks to the trained astrophysicist and the curious layperson alike about a simple but previously unexplored question Why do we assume aliens if they are really out there behave just like us Aveni s newest work departs from the usual scientific treatment of extraterrestrial intelligence by probing the historical and widely neglected anthropological record which offers relevant analogous incidents of contact among terrestrial cultures Beginning with theories of the evolution of life and culture advocated by astrobiologists Aliens Like Us explores how the Western cultural imagination is influenced by ways of knowing that are deeply embedded in the minds of the questioners for example how we consider the ownership of property the idea of progress and even the way we classify things The lessons of anthropology offer not only value structures from other cultures that differ profoundly from our own but also testify to the diverse ways in which alien cultures interact Finally on the question of potential first contact Aveni closes with a fascinating exploration of the image of extraterrestrials in popular culture that is derived in part from the hugely influential realm of science fiction

Trilogy of Terror Alfonso Moret, 2013-02 Roman and Elsbone were veteran animal trappers and hunters They were warned by the Chalukyas tribesmen that the Devil Dogs were ferocious and did not fear man or any other animal The hunters were experienced predators and huntsmen and knew that the wild beast that the tribesmen were leery of were just Himalayan tempestuous wolves The Chalukyas tribesmen disclosed to the hunters that they had seen two Devil Dogs bring down a huge wild boar and tear it apart one evening at the base of the Mahila Mountains It is known amongst hunters and wildlife individuals that no wild animal beasts or man want any part of the violent desolate fierce boars these Devil Dogs were fearsome and vicious The major deciding factors that finally made the huntsmen want to seek and capture the wolves were these main issues One the Los Angeles zoo was offering a large amount of money for two legendary Devil Dogs from India The second aspect was they heard that a single Devil Dog had fought and killed a Siberian Tiger this factor increased their inquisitiveness and curiosity of this sensational beast and its folklore Their egos also played a part in their judgment to capture the animals An element they had to contemplate and had caused them concern was that they were told that the beast only come out after the sun has set Nightfall this is an advantageous factor for the nighttime predator So these beasts were nocturnal hunters this was not an odd characteristic for any wolf but still it was a concern for the hunters All these tidbits of information just enticed Roman and Elsbone even more and it heightened their hunting and ego desires The two English veteran hunters were now traveling toward their prey and compensations as they were now heading toward the foothills of the snowcapped Himalayas the hunting grounds of the Devil Dogs The huntsmen eventually had left their regular and familiar stomping grounds of South Africa years earlier because of the civil turmoil that continues to cause chaos and havoc with many of the unsettled tribes and conformed city dwellers The other object and issue was now there are all the new restrictions and hunting laws causing hardship on hunters and trappers also there were the conservation laws protecting the wild beast limiting them even more Elsbone and Roman left Africa and went and took their trade to South America But after some time they grew tired of the humid atmosphere the different language and customs along with the constant damp eerie rain forest So now they were here in India following the harsh rumors of the ferocious wild Devil Dogs that killed cattle pigs and villagers and now they also heard even killed mountain lions The hunters journey did have some hardships They needed to travel far through hot rough desolate deserts with very cold nights
