Enron, a paper on the company's fraud scheme

In the following lines, I will discuss the Enron scandal. I will start by an introduction on "cooking the books" in order to give us an idea of why drove Enron and many other companies into fraudulent activities. I will then talk about Enron. I will start with an introduction of the company. I will then follow with a discussion of the fraudulent activities the company where involved in and I will finally present how the company got caught.

To begin with, what does "cooking the books" mean? Well, companies cook the books when they do not tell us their real earnings. Managers cook the books and present us fake earnings to improve their earnings per share (EPS) of stocks. But why do companies cook the books? Companies cook the books because they have the pressure to deliver good earnings in order to attract investors to invest in them
