Manuel Indlekofer, 2013-08-01 The modern tendency to restrict international arbitration to matters of commerce and investment is succumbing to a renewed recognition of the original impetus for dispute resolution by arbitration i e matters of public international law most importantly the settlement of disputes that pose a threat of international conflict Recent developments suggest a renaissance of public international arbitration most clearly manifested in the present flourishing of the Permanent Court of Arbitration PCA the oldest existing dispute settlement institution in international law As the calls for the development of new and more appropriate methods for dispute settlement in international law increased during the 1990s the PCA undertook a structural reform and is today a vital forum for dispute settlement with scores of arbitrations currently pending under its auspices This book the most comprehensive study of the institution to date covering its history its present status and its future prospects proves the PCA s contemporary relevance within the international dispute settlement framework Among aspects of the PCA s work covered are the following how public international arbitration functions in comparison to other means available for dispute settlement in international law the PCA s historical contributions to the current dispute settlement framework arbitrations between a state and a non state actor that are in whole or in part governed by public international law the fields in which public international arbitration plays a revived role the PCA s present day institutional framework and its current activities the prospects for public international arbitration and the PCA in the dispute settlement framework of the twenty first century and proposals to increase the PCA s activities in future and to sustain and enhance the institution s ongoing revitalization A very useful Practitioner s Guide provides an overview of the PCA s various services and the best means of accessing them along with a summary of the key provisions of the new PCA Arbitration Rules 2012 For lawyers who are involved in dispute resolution proceedings there can be little doubt about the PCA s relevance This book is at once an academic work indispensable for scholars of the institution and a practical guide that will be a required addition to the libraries of counsel arbitrators and others involved in dispute resolution proceedings conducted at the PCA

Professional Ethics at the International Bar Arman Sarvarian, 2013-09-26 Over the past twenty years the volume of international litigation and arbitration has increased exponentially As the number of new international courts and tribunals has proliferated the diversity and volume of advocates appearing before the international courts has also increased With this increase the ethical standards that apply to counsel have become a growing field of interest to practitioners of public international law Problems threatening the integrity of the international judicial process and concerns about divergent ethical standards amongst counsel have multiplied in the international judicial system prompting early attempts by senior members of the international bar to articulate common ethical standards Professional Ethics at the International Bar examines the question of how to articulate common ethical standards for counsel appearing before international courts and tribunals and the legal powers and practical ability of international courts to prescribe and enforce such standards It conducts original research into both the theory and practice of the issues arising from this nascent process of professionalization Using various sources including interviews with judges registrars and senior practitioners it argues that the professionalization of advocacy through the articulation of common ethical standards is both desirable and feasible in order to protect the integrity and fairness of the international judicial process

Book jacket The Flame Rekindled A. Sam Muller, Wim Mijs, 1994-01-27 Among the aims of the United Nations Decade of International Law is the promotion of the means and methods for the peaceful settlement of disputes between states In the previous volume The United Nations Decade of International Law Reflections on International Dispute Settlement the editors contributed to this aim by bringing together a variety of opinions by international legal experts on the topic with an emphasis on the role of the International Court of Justice This time the editors turn their attention to international arbitration and the role of the Permanent Court of Arbitration It also explores the prospects for pre constituted non ad hoc arbitral institutions which may be considered in the general framework of peaceful settlement of disputes between states as well as between states and other actors commercial arbitration in the present day international system through the process of international adjudication Like the previous volume this book is a valuable contribution towards the promotion of the United Nations Decade of International Law International Arbitration Alfred H.A. Soons, 2024-03-11 The Nova et Vetera Iuris Gentium series is edited by the Institute of Public International Law at Utrecht University under the direction of Professor Cedric Ryngaert The series publishes monographs and edited volumes authored by Utrecht University scholars or scholars associated with Utrecht University in the field of general international law The thematic emphasis of the series is on legal issues pertaining to the law of the sea jurisdiction international responsibility and history and theory of international law All works are subject to peer review prior to publication The series published three volumes over the last 5 years

International Arbitration Form Athens to Locarno, 1972 Journal of the Royal Institute of International Affairs, 1929 International Arbitration, 1896 The Constitution of Arbitration Victor Ferreres Comella, 2021-03-11 The first systematic study of the most important types of arbitration and their limits from a constitutional perspective

Britain and International Law in West Africa Inge Van Hulle, 2020 In the past few decades the understanding of the relationship between nations has undergone a radical transformation The role of the traditional nation state is diminishing along with many of the traditional vocabularies which were once used to describe what has been called ever since Jeremy Bentham coined the phrase in 1780 international law The older boundaries between states are growing evermore fluid new conceptions and new languages have emerged which are slowly coming to replace the image of a world of sovereign independent nation states which has dominated the study of international relations since the early nineteenth century This redefinition of the international arena demands a new understanding of classical and contemporary questions in international and legal theory It is the editors conviction that the best way to achieve this is by bridging the traditional divide between international legal theory intellectual history and legal and political history The aim of the series therefore is to provide a forum for historical studies from classical antiquity to the twenty first century that are theoretically informed and for philosophical work that is historically conscious in the hope that a new vision of the rapidly evolving international world its past and its possible future may emerge Book jacket International Arbitration Amongst the Greeks Marcus Niebuhr Tod, 1913 The Political Economy of Grand Strategy Kevin Narizny, 2007 A nation s grand strategy rarely serves the best interests of all its citizens Instead every strategic choice benefits some domestic groups at the expense of others When groups with different interests separate into opposing coalitions societal debates over foreign policy become polarized along party lines Parties then select leaders who share the priorities of their principal electoral and financial backers As a result the overarching goals and guiding principles of grand strategy as formulated at the highest levels of government derive from domestic coalitional interests In The Political Economy of Grand Strategy Kevin Narizny develops these insights into a comprehensive theoretical framework for understanding the dynamics of security policy The focus of this analysis is the puzzle of partisanship The conventional view of grand strategy in which state leaders act as neutral arbiters of the national interest cannot explain why political turnover in the executive office often leads to dramatic shifts in state behavior Narizny in contrast shows how domestic politics structured foreign policymaking in the United States and Great Britain from 1865 to 1941 In so doing he sheds light on long standing debates over the revival of British imperialism the rise of American expansionism the creation of the League of Nations American isolationism in the interwar period British appeasement in the 1930s and both countries decisions to enter World War I and World War II The World Court Shabtai Rosenne,1989-10-26

International Law in the 21st Century Christopher C. Joyner,2005 In the freshest new international law text in 20 years Christopher C Joyner offers a critical assessment of international legal rules in the early 21st century as they are applied by governments to the real world Looking at concepts and principles processes and critical problems Joyner steers clear of an old time case method approach preferring to treat issues thematically He shows the challenges of international law in terms of peace security human rights the environment and economic justice Particular features of the book include engaging vignettes clearly defined key terms and special coverage of emerging topics including common spaces international criminal law rules norms and regimes and trade relations and commercial exchange Through it all Joyner maintains an intent focus on the role of the individual in the evolving international legal order “The” American Conference on International Arbitration ,1897 History and Digest of the International Arbitrations to which the ...
