Lieberman, M. Fullan, D.W. Hopkins, 2014-11-14 The International Handbook of Educational Change is a state of the art collection of the most important ideas and evidence of educational change The book brings together some of the most influential thinkers and writers on educational change It deals with issues like educational innovation reform restructuring culture building inspection school review and change management It asks why some people resist change and what their resistance means It looks at how men and women older teachers and younger teachers experience change differently It looks at the positive aspects of change but does not hesitate to raise uncomfortable questions about many aspects of educational change either. It looks critically and controversially at the social, economic, cultural and political forces that are driving educational change. School leaders, system administrators, teacher leaders, consultants, facilitators, educational researchers, staff developers and change agents of all kinds will find this book an indispensable resource for guiding them to both classic and cutting edge understandings of educational change. No other work provides as comprehensive coverage of the field of educational change.

Leaders and Leadership in Education Helen Gunter, 2001. Leadership within educational settings is widely regarded as essential for organizational effectiveness and the improvement of learning outcomes. Through an extensive review of theory and practice, Helen Gunter explores the contested field of leadership studies. She describes and critiques the different contributions made by education management, school effectiveness, school improvement, critical studies. Leadership is examined as function, as behaviour and as leadership relationship from students as leaders through to headteachers. The author provides an up to date review of current thinking about leadership which challenges the reader to engage with it.

Contemporary Challenges in Education Vana Chiou, Lotte Geunis, Oliver Holz, Nesrin Oruç Ertürk, Justyna Ratkowska-Pasikowska, Fiona Shelton, 2023. Every day educators are presented with enlightening insights, questions and encounters which reveal how students engage in learning, how new ideas can impact positively on student outcomes and how, when challenges are uncovered, there can be a sense of puzzlement where rethinking of pedagogical approaches is critical for student success. In this volume of Voices from the Classroom: Contemporary Challenges in Education, Paradoxes and Illuminations, an international team of authors explores paradoxes, shares illuminations and invites you to reflect on educational practices to enhance pedagogy, scaffold learning and keep pace with educational advancements. This collection, written by students, teachers, researchers and higher education instructors, discusses education across all phases of learning. It explores issues such as instructional scaffolding in kindergarten, understanding transition through children's voices, youth participation in curriculum development, of sex education, delivering crisis assistance to university students and staff in times of conflict in Ukraine, using augmented reality for transformative learning, co-creating university practices with staff and students and how inclusive practices can help meet the needs of international postgraduate students. This comprehensive and diverse collection will have wide appeal for teachers, headmasters, stakeholders in the area of education and all those working in different educational contexts.

Teachers and Schooling Making A Difference Pam Christie, Bob Lingard, 2020-08-04. Teachers Schooling Making a Difference takes seriously the question that teachers ask: What do I do on Monday and does it provide answers. From the foreword by Professor Michael Apple, University of Wisconsin. Education debates are currently dominated by free market ideologists who push privatisation and competition as the answer to every problem, regardless of damage to schools and pupils. Teachers Schooling Making a Difference shows that we can think about education in a far more productive way. Professor R W Connell, University of Sydney. This book is a lesson in making hope practical. It makes a compelling argument.

for recognising supporting and enabling teachers as central to progressive school reform Professor Jenny Ozga University of Edinburgh What teachers do in the classroom really matters even though schools cannot compensate fully for difficulties children may face at home and in society Good teachers and good schools have been making a difference in children s lives for generations but what exactly is it that works Based on extensive research in 1000 primary and secondary classrooms this book examines the tough questions about teaching methods curriculum assessment and teachers professionalism The authors isolate the key elements that make the difference in the classroom and offer teachers practical approaches to working with all their students Teachers and Schools Making a Difference is essential reading for teachers and school administrators who want to improve their professional skills and offer a genuinely democratic education
