Light In The Dark The Life Of Samuel Gridley Howe:

A Light in the Dark Milton Meltzer, 1991 Children with Disabilities in America Philip L. Safford, Elizabeth J. Safford, 2005-12-30 Images of disabled children are found throughout well known works of literature film and even opera Their characters range from sweet to brave to tragic Disabled children are also a part of the reality of life either in personal ways or as poster girls and boys for drives and causes Behind these images is a historical presence that has been created by the societies in which these children live and have lived This work examines current knowledge about children s experience of physical cognitive and emotional behavioral impairments from the Colonial period to the present while revealing the social constructions of both disability and childhood throughout American history Just as disability has been advanced as an essential consideration in other historical inquiries such as that of gender this is a work intended to demonstrate the critical role of disability with respect to the history of childhood Perkins School for the Blind Kimberly French, 2004 Founded in Boston in 1829 Perkins School for the Blind was the first school of its kind in the United States Perkins pioneered education for people who are deafblind when seven year old Laura Bridgman became the first deafblind person to learn language in 1837 Fifty years later alumna Annie Sullivan used the same methods to teach Helen Keller the deafblind Perkins student who became one of the foremost humanitarians of the twentieth century The school also pioneered the first kindergarten for the blind and the first training programs for teachers of the blind and deafblind Perkins School for the Blind pays tribute to this groundbreaking institution and its legacy of establishing education programs that bring hope and dignity to more than forty thousand people with blindness and deafblindness worldwide Social Welfare Pioneers Herbert Stroup, 1986 To find more information about Rowman and Littlefield titles please visit www.rowmanlittlefield.com A History of Childhood and Disability Philip L. Safford, Elizabeth J. Safford, 1996 In their chronological portrait the authors synthesize the many voices of exceptional children providing a historical picture that includes not only the perspective of the professional but also to the extent possible that of the client The book begins by placing the origins of special education in historical context from Aristotle through the Enlightenment and beyond Subsequent chapters consider individual conditions traditionally associated with specialized approaches e g blindness deafness and retardation discuss conditions that have given rise to further differentiation of childhood exceptionality and offer a synthesis of themes and a prospective for a new history now emerging of children considered exceptional For the Benefit of Those Who See Rosemary Mahoney, 2025-05-01 In the tradition of Oliver Sacks s The Island of the Colorblind Rosemary Mahoney tells the story of Braille Without Borders the first school for the blind in Tibet and of Sabriye Tenberken the remarkable blind woman who founded the school Fascinated and impressed by what she learned from the blind children of Tibet Mahoney was moved to investigate further the cultural history of blindness As part of her research she spent three months teaching at Tenberken s international training center for blind adults in Kerala India an experience that reveals both the shocking oppression endured by the world's blind as well as their great resilience integrity ingenuity and strength By living among the blind Rosemary Mahoney enables us to see them in fascinating close up revealing their particular quality of ease that seems to broadcast a fundamental connection to the world Having read For the Benefit of Those Who See you will never see the world in quite the same way again In this intelligent and humane book Rosemary Mahoney writes of people who are blind She reports on their courage and gives voice time and again to their miraculous dignity Andrew Solomon author of Far From the Tree
