Parturient Aiye-ko ooto, 2018-09-25 Great empires are built on the backs of the innocent and simple Aiye-ko ooto digs trenches in the fight for freedom In this anthology the poet asks questions in 5 breathtaking steps In peoples fight for freedom What are we afraid of When do we walk through reality arcades Is this necessarily part of history When does this pregnancy end and are we through eye of the needle yet Aiye-ko ooto in this anthology masks these questions into analogous songs of life love and living with insights that becoming free is a parturient experience I quote Wherever abound life tyranny spreads out over such land It touches and steals from peoples loves with little twitches In no time pins down living cultures thorns and tears it apart Struggle of peoples are squelched with imperial reinforcements Human Rites Hannah Ward, Jennifer Wild, 1995-11-16 This is a worship anthology for the present day The subjects covered are wide ranging blessings for relationships including same sex relationships prayers for occasions like miscarriage or still birth divorce and separation blessings for babies and adoptions healing services and many more Meditations Roy Rohu, 2013-07 A collection with a difference These short meditative pieces are windows into intimate and honest encounters between a man and his God over a whole range of Christian experience All the pieces arose directly from some challenge in Scripture sparking off heart cries to the God Who Hears and resulting in His loving responses to a grateful Christian To Him be the glory It is the author's hope and prayer that they will be used to encourage and inspire many on their spiritual journey

The Spiritual Churches of New Orleans Claude F. Jacobs, Andrew J. Kaslow, 2001 The New Orleans Spiritual churches constitute a distinctive African American belief system Influenced by Catholicism Pentecostalism Spiritualism and Voodoo the group is a New World syncretic faith similar to Espiritismo Santería and Umbanda The Spiritual Churches of New Orleans combines a historical account of the emergence of this religion with careful ethnographic description of current congregations At the same time text and photographs eloquently convey the ecstasy at the heart of the Spiritual experience The Spiritual churches began in the 1920s as a women's movement Men later assumed leadership in an effort to legitimate the group within the New Orleans religious community and form associations with Spiritual churches elsewhere in the United States Unlike earlier researchers who treated practices in the churches as expressions of black folk traditions the authors see Spiritual ritual not as based on magic but as the way the sacred is acted out within an African American aesthetic During worship members may be filled by the Holy Spirit as in Pentecostal churches or entertain spirits or spirit guides as in Spiritualism or Voodoo Prophecy and healing are presented as the markers of this faith and the Native American figure Black Hawk as a major symbol of empowerment Based on extensive interviews with church members years of participant observation and careful research in documentary sources this book achieves rigorous conceptual clarity in a straightforward engaging style The Authors Claude F Jacobs holds a Ph D in anthropology from Tulane University He teaches at Oakland University Andrew J Kaslow holds a Ph D in anthropology from Columbia University He is a consultant to international
