Lights Out For The Territory:

Lighting Out for the Territory Shelley Fisher Fishkin, 1998-07-09 Fishkin offers an intriguing look at how Mark Twain's life and work have been cherished memorialized exploited and misunderstood Iain Sinclair Brian Baker, 2013-01-18 A clearly written comprehensive critical introduction to one of the most original contemporary British writers providing an overview of all of Sinclair's major works and an analysis of his vision of modern London This book places Sinclair in a range of contexts including the late 1960s counter culture and the British Poetry Revival London's underground histories the rise and fall of Thatcherism and Sinclair's writing about Britain under New Labour Sinclair's connection to other writers and artists such as J G Ballard Michael Moorcock and Marc Atkins This book makes a significant contribution to the growing scholarship surrounding Sinclair's work offering the first critical text that covers in detail all of Sinclair's work his poetry fiction non fiction including his book on John Clare Edge of the Orison and his film work City Visions Jenny

Bavidge, Robert Bond, 2021-03-04 City Visions The Work of Iain Sinclair collects fourteen pathbreaking essays treating the panoramic oeuvre of novelist poet filmmaker and essayist Iain Sinclair This book aims to reflect and develop the current strong interest in the work of Sinclair who is widely recognized as one of the most significant figures in contemporary British literature and culture The essays herein cover the key genres and periods of Sinclair's output discussing his poetry prose and filmmaking and are developed from the proceedings of the first academic conference on Sinclair which was held at the University of Greenwich in 2004 Following the introductory chapter which includes a brief survey of Sinclair's career up until now the collection is arranged thematically in four sections The first part Contexts features essays which comment on the critical categorization and definition of Sinclair's work The second part Culture and Critique includes essays which explore the political import and contexts of Sinclair's oeuvre The articles in the third part Connections look at the links between Sinclair and other writers addressing the often noted intertextuality of his writing and the final section Spaces contains three considerations of Sinclair's treatment of London's urban spaces This collection provides access to the latest research by the leading scholars working in this area and will be a key point of reference for anyone interested in Sinclair's production To some the field of London writing may increasingly look like an indifferent over populated wasteland Iain Sinclair however remains pre eminent by virtue not only of the amplitude of his knowledge of the city but of the intensity and complexity of his thought about it He is the redemptive memorialist of a host of disregarded London cultures that lie quite beyond the reach of contemporary pieties In that respect he is less our Blake as he sometimes seems to believe than our Pepys or our Defoe At the same time he is an audacious experimenter with prose forms in the modernist tradition from Joyce to Burroughs and beyond Like the Sinclair phenomenon itself this valuable collection of essays is multifaceted illuminating its subject from a variety of different angles whilst very well aware that it is part of a work in progress It offers important testimony to the scope and power of a writer engaged in an original serious and necessary project Andrew Gibson Research Professor of Modern Literature and Theory Royal Holloway University of London This is an important and timely collection about arguably the most significant living London writer who is increasingly being recognised as an important contemporary English author in every sense Lawrence Phillips Principal Lecturer in English University of Northampton At last Iain Sinclair has the readers he deserves at least on the ample often provocative and always fascinating evidence of City Visions a collection of essays marked equally by panache and verve awareness of alternative cultural history and theoretical sophistication Over fourteen chapters critics with wide ranging interests gather their restless energies and obsessions in response to the scatter gun agitprop and guerilla intellectualism of Sinclair to produce a necessary and necessarily edgy volume In this admirably relentless collection Jenny Bavidge and Robert Bond offer an unnerving and inventive critical topography that uncovers the dark heart of a writer who is simultaneously the enfant terrible and minence grise of English letters Belles lettrists and other dilettantes be warned this is not a volume for the faint hearted these essays manifest an evangelical zeal equal to their subject s own in doing so they take us on an exhilarating intellectual adventure so refreshing in the world of lit crit where the polite formulas of sensible reading make one want to faint from ennui Professor Julian Wolfreys Loughborough University

Contemporary British Literature and Urban Space K. Duff, 2014-12-03 Looking at writers such as Will Self Hani Kureishi JG Ballard and Iain Sinclair Kim Duff s new book examines contemporary British literature and its depiction of the city after the time of Thatcher and mass privatization This lively study is an important and engaging work for students and scholars alike

The Politics and Aesthetics of Refusal Caroline Hamilton, Michelle Kelly, Elaine Minor, 2009-03-26 The Politics and Aesthetics of Refusal is an eclectic collection of essays from emerging academics who engage with the notion of refusal both as the embodiment of a resistance to conventional boundaries between academic disciplines and as a concept with an underlying negative or reactive force that can be widely interpreted and applied The applications of refusal outlined in this volume ranging from activism and the politics of cultural production through to problems of identity and knowledge classification raise questions about often elided relationships of agency and complicity in routine experience The sense of refusal that emerges from this book is perhaps most easily classified by what it is not namely a prescriptive conclusive or unified account of what it is to reject react or work against any particular instance of theory or practice in any given domain The value of a thematically oriented collection like this is its ability to work across disciplines media and philosophical frameworks rather than limiting its focus to a narrow territory According to Herbert Marcuse refusal must not only be the guiding principle for all artistic creation it must also be a manifestation of artistic creation itself With this volume we have attempted to compose a collection which is not only theoretically guided by refusal but practically informed by it as well The collection in itself constitutes we hope a constructive rejection of the usual constrictions of discipline and approach placed upon new scholars This rich collection of essays on the political aesthetic and ethical dimensions of that form of social action called refusal is an important contribution to our understanding of the tensions and contradictions of contemporary culture

Invisible Forms Kevin Jackson, 2014-12-30 Dedications Titles Epigraphs Footnotes Prefaces Afterwords Indexes These and other invisible literary necessities form the skeletons of many a book yet these unacknowledged and unexamined forms abound in wisdom curiosities or eccentricities With both erudition and wit and drawing on examples from every part of literature's history ranging from the greats such as Shakespeare Beckett and T S Eliot to lesser known writers such as Fernando Pessoa Jackson's mixture of serious literary analysis and jovial wit means Invisible Forms will appeal to anyone who is interested in books and in the art of writing It is the perfect companion for literature lovers everywhere Faith With its Sleeves Rolled Up Daniel Singleton, 2013-04-17 Faith With its Sleeves Rolled Up provides an answer to anyone who believes the voice of faith is inaudible or irrelevant Representing a wide range of faith positions the chapters assembled here consider the practical contribution that faith is currently making to twenty first century society prompting a positive understanding of faith as a solution focused innovator an agent of connectedness neighbourliness and identity a catalyst for engagement involvement and mobilisation a promoter of a whole person focus a source of hope All the Tiny Moments Blazing Ged Pope, 2022-10-24 From Evelyn Waugh to P G Wodehouse and Lawrence Durrell a sweeping celebration of literature set in and inspired by the suburbs of London The London suburbs have for more than two hundred and fifty years fired the creative literary imagination whether this is Samuel Johnson hiding away in bucolic preindustrial Streatham Italo Svevo cheering on Charlton Athletic Football Club down at The Valley or Angela Carter hymning the joyful wrongness of living south of the river in Brixton From Richmond to Rainham Cockfosters to Croydon this sweeping literary tour of the thirty two London Boroughs describes how writers from the seventeenth century on have responded to and fictionally reimagined London's suburbs It introduces us to the great suburban novels such as Hanif Kureishi's Bromley set The Buddha of Suburbia Lawrence Durrell's The Black Book and Zadie Smith's NW It also reveals the lesser known short stories diaries poems local guides travelogues memoirs and biographies which together show how these communities have long been closely observed keenly remembered and brilliantly imagined Under Postcolonial Eyes Efraim Sicher, Linda Weinhouse, 2013-01-01 In the Western literary tradition the Jew has long been a figure of ethnic exclusion and social isolation the wanderer the scapegoat the alien But it is no longer clear where a perennial outsider belongs This provocative study of contemporary British writing points to the figure of the Jew as the litmus test of multicultural society Efraim Sicher and Linda Weinhouse examine the Jew as a cultural construction distinct from the Jewishness of literary characters in novels by among others Salman Rushdie Anita Desai Doris Lessing Monica Ali Caryl Philips and Zadie Smith as well as contemporary art and film Here the image of the jew emerges in all its ambivalence from postcolonial migrant and modern everyman to more traditional representations of the conspirator and malefactor The multicultural discourses of ethnic and racial hybridity reflect dissolution of national and personal identities yet the search for transnational cultural forms conceals both the acceptance of marginal South Asian Caribbean and Jewish voices as well as the danger of resurgent antisemitic tropes Innovative in its contextualization of the jew in the multiculturalism debate in contemporary Britain Under Postcolonial Eyes Figuring the jew in Contemporary British Writing analyzes the narrative of identities in a globalized culture and offers new interpretations of postmodern classics Spatial Politics in Contemporary London Literature Laura Colombino,2013-06-19 This book analyses the spatial politics of a range of British novelists writing on London since the 1950s emphasizing spatial representation as an embodied practice at the point where the architectural landscape and the body enter into relation with each other Colombino visits the city in connection with its boundaries abstract spaces and natural microcosms as they stand in for all the conflicting realms of identity its interstices and ruins are seen as inhabited by bodies that reproduce internally the external conditions of political and social struggle The study brings into focus the fiction in which London provides not a residual interest but a strong psychic phenomenological grounding and where the awareness of the physical reality of buildings and landscape conditions shape the concept of the subject traversing this space Authors such as J G Ballard Geoff Dyer Michael Moorcock Peter Ackroyd Iain Sinclair Geoff Ryman Tom McCarthy Michael Bracewell and Zadie Smith are considered in order to map the relationship of body architecture and spatial politics in contemporary creative prose on the city Through readings that are consistently informed by recent developments in urban studies and reflections formulated by architects sociologists anthropologists and art critics this book offers a substantial contribution to the burgeoning field of literary urban studies Contemporary British Fiction and the Artistry of Space David James,2011-10-20 This study examines the importance of space for the way contemporary novelists experiment with style and form offering an account of how British writers from the past three decades have engaged with landscape description as a catalyst for innovation David James considers the work of more than fifteen major British novelists to offer a wide ranging and accessible commentary on the relationship between landscape and narrative design demonstrating an approach to the geography of contemporary fiction enriched by the practice of aesthetic criticism Moving between established and emerging novelists the book reveals that spatial poetics allow us to chart distinctive and surprising affinities between practitioners showing how writers today compel us to pay close attention to technique when linking the depiction of physical places to new developments in novelistic craft London in Contemporary British Fiction Nick Hubble,Philip Tew,2016-07-28 Contemporary writers such as Peter Ackroyd J G Ballard John King Ian McEwan Will Self Iain Sinclair and Zadie Smith have been registering the changes to the social and cultural London landscape for years This volume brings together their vivid representations of the capital Uniting the readings are themes such as relationship between the country and the city the capacity of satirical forms to encompass the real London spatio temporal transformations and emergences the relationship between multiculturalism and universalism the underground as the spatial equivalent of London s unconsciousness and the suburbs as the frontier of the future The volume creates a framework for new approaches to the representation of London required by the unprecedented social uncertainties of recent years an invaluable contribution to studies of contemporary writing about London Ciaran Carson Neal Alexander,2010-09-15 An Open Access edition of this book is available on the Liverpool University Press website and the OAPEN library Ciaran Carson is one of the most challenging and inventive of contemporary Irish writers exhibiting verbal brilliance formal complexity and intellectual daring across a remarkably varied body of work This study considers the full range of his oeuvre in poetry prose and translations and discusses the major themes to which he returns including memory and history narrative language and translation mapping violence and power It argues that the singularity of Carson s writing is to be found in his radical imaginative engagements with ideas of space and place The city of Belfast in particular occupies a crucially important place in his texts serving as an imaginative focal point around which his many other concerns are constellated The city in all its volatile mutability is an abiding frame of reference and a reservoir of creative impetus for Carson s imagination Accordingly the book adopts an interdisciplinary approach that draws upon geography urbanism and cultural theory as well as literary criticism It provides both a stimulating and thorough introduction to Carson s work and a flexible critical framework for exploring literary representations of space
