theological insights together with cutting edge thinking on organizational innovation to help churches flourish in a time of profound uncertainty and spiritual opportunity In today s dynamic cultural environment churches have to be more than faithful they have to be agile That means embracing processes of trial failure and adaptation as they form Christian community with new neighbors And that means a whole new way of being church Taking one page from the Bible and another from Silicon Valley priest and scholar Dwight Zscheile brings theological insights together with cutting edge thinking on organizational innovation to help churches flourish in a time of profound uncertainty and spiritual opportunity Picking up where his bestseller People of the Way left off Zscheile answers urgent and practical questions around how churches become agile and adaptive to meet cultural change

The New Conspirators Tom Sine, 2009-10-25 If you have faith as small as a mustard seed Jesus says in the Gospel of Matthew nothing will be impossible for you That sounds good but does it work in a world where seeds are genetically altered by an impatient few and hard to come by for countless others In a world where the gulf between the very rich and the profoundly poor is constantly growing can a mustard seed faith make any difference And can such a little bit of faith be sustained in a world whose future is so uncertain on so many fronts Tom Sine says yes and he has the audacity to try to prove it in his latest book In The New Conspirators Tom surveys the landscape of creative Christianity where streams of renewal are flowing freely from diverse sources The emerging church Contemporary monastic movements The missional church The mosaic movement Individuals and communities of faith are coalescing in and drawing energy from these four streams to retrofit the church as it leads serves and gives witness to the kingdom of God in the turbulent times facing us Read the book and you ll want to and be prepared to join God s conspiracy to create a better future

A Wounded Innocence Alejandro R. Garcia-Rivera, 2015-03-15 What is the theological significance of art Why has the Church always encouraged the arts What is so profoundly human about the arts In A Wounded Innocence Alejandro R Garcia Rivera answers these questions in a series of sketches that are mixed spiritual and theological reflections on various works of art written in a poetic style These reflections explore the relationship between the multi dimensional spiritual and the arts The first sketch The Beginning of Art introduces the rest that go on to explore further the human artistic and theological implications of a wounded innocence Each sketch reflects on a particular human work of art Some are conventional works of art Others may never find their way into a museum but then that is one of the implications coming out of this book A museum does not define what a work of art is its human depth does In these deeply studied yet spiritually written reflections on each work of art it is hoped that the reader will find his and her own creative depth described perhaps even revealed A Wounded Innocence is both inspiring and informative Readers will learn about art spirituality and theology and will find themselves inspired to look at works of art and even to produce a work of art It sets a new way of doing theology that is at the same time spiritual More importantly Garcia Rivera describes a theology of art Chapters are The Beginning of Art The End of Art Human Freedom and Artistic Creativity Heaven with Us The Human Aspect of Atonement The Tyger and the Lamb and A

Wounded Innocence Includes black and white art Alejandro R Garcia Rivera PhD is associate professor of systematic theology at the Jesuit School of Theology at Berkeley The author of numerous articles he also wrote a Catholic Press Association award winning book on theology and aesthetics titled The Community of the Beautiful The Liturgical Press Friends' Intelligencer, 1862 Live Like You Give a Damn! Tom Sine, 2016-04-05 Live Like You Give a Damn declares the very good news that God is raising up a new generation largely outside the church to bring impressive change to the lives of our neighbors locally and globally by creating innovative forms of social enterprise and community empowerment The even better news is that those of us within the church can join this changemaking celebration and discover creative new ways God can use our mustard seeds to make a more remarkable difference than we ever imagined possible In this book Tom Sine offers practical ways you can join those who are creating their best communities their best world and in the process their best lives Sine shows that in a world changing at warp speed following Jesus is a design opportunity It is not only an opportunity to design innovative ways to make a difference but also an opportunity to create lives with a difference in the way of Jesus that are simpler and more sustainable and to throw better parties along the way Why would anyone want to settle for less and miss the best Liberation Theology Curt Cadorette, Marie Giblin, Marilyn J. Legge, Mary H. Snyder, 2004-04-27 In the past twenty five years liberation theology has emerged as one of the most influential challenging and controversial movements in modern theology Whether in its Asian African Latin American or African American forms liberation theology has undertaken to reexamine the dimensions of Christian faith from the perspective of the marginalized and oppressed Here at last is a collection of readings from a cross section of the world's leading exponents of liberation theology designed to offer an overview of liberation theology and its central themes Topics included are methodology christology ecclesiology and spirituality Each chapter includes a helpful introduction and questions for discussion making this an ideal introductory text for students as well as scholars and other general readers Contributors Maria Pilar Aquino Tissa Balasuriya Dominique Barbe Clodovis Boff Leonardo Boff Ernesto Cardenal Chung Hyun Kyung James H Cone Jean Marc Ela Ivone Gebara Gustavo Gutierrez Mary Hunt Sallie McFague Mary John Mananzan Carlos Mesters Anne Nasimiyu Wasike Sun Ai Park Jon Sobrino Charles Villa Vicencio Yong Ting Jin This Monastic Moment John W. de Gruchy, 2021-07-28 Kairos refers to moments in chronological time when all hell is breaking loose and we are called to change our ways before we are dragged into the abyss Kairos is apocalyptic time and it is here and now Such is the time in which we need to listen again to St Benedict of Nursia Far too many of us Christians have either been seduced by the false values of the age and the spirit of Christian triumphalism or else have been attracted to gnostic forms of spirituality that provide a means of escape from reality and responsibility Any delay in responding to this kairos moment increases the danger that we fail to change our ways and grasp the opportunity God gives us to receive the coming kingdom in greater fullness now So St Benedict fifteen hundred years after he wrote his Rule continues to tell us to listen wake up and run while there is still light This is a time for both contemplation and action prayer and doing justice a time for mystics and prophets to join hands and hearts for the sake of the world From the Prologue

Fearful Times; Living Faith Robert Boak Slocum, Martyn Percy, 2021-11-19 We live in fearful times with many threats and horrors We ve seen a pandemic systemic racism and violence resurgent nationalism and tribalism polarization and mutual suspicion insurrection environmental peril due to climate change and on We can feel helpless But these threats give impetus for reflection on what faith has to say in any time of challenge Where do we turn in real need What makes a difference What do we really believe Can we speak in Christ s name against dishonesty cruelty and neglect of the most needy and vulnerable in times of crisis The recent pandemic and other horrors provide the catalyst for theology that lives today and in the future in fearful times and whatever comes next As Christians as people of faith how do we find God alive in us and present in our turmoil And how do we share that hope with others How can Christian faith help us bring the best out of the worst Can we rediscover our faith our church our lives in these times of crisis This volume presents a variety of perspectives and answers for questions of fearful times and living faith

The Inner Church is the Hope of the World Nicholas Laccetti, 2018-08-09 Throughout history Western esoteric movements have provided meaning and power for what the Rosicrucians of the early modern period called the quest for Universal Reformation the utopian restructuring of religion science the arts and human society Yet Western esotericism has been roundly ignored as a source of reflection in mainstream Christian theology including the radical theologies of liberation that might otherwise see in esotericism a kindred spirit to their commitment to radical social change In The Inner Church is the Hope of the World guided by his work in contemporary movements for social change Nicholas Laccetti puts Western esotericism in dialogue with liberation theology treating esotericism as a legitimate source of spiritual and theological insight If as Gustavo Gutierrez writes God is revealed in history then we will also encounter God within the particular history of human religious expression that is Western esotericism And from these theological reflections the Inner Church of the esotericists occultists and mystics is revealed to be the true ekklesia of all who have conformed themselves to God s vision of freedom and liberation and who struggle to enact that vision in human society The Inner Church is truly the hope of the world
