Voran, 2021-01-04 TREMBLING BEFORE GOD Twelve Homilies Explore The Origin Development and Failing of Christianity Today Explore the failing and irrelevance of New Covenant Christianity in today s contemporary world A Jesus centered theology of only being saved by Jesus rather than acting on a personal integrity based on the precepts examples and teaching of Jesus may signal the continued loss in American churches The roots of which reach back to the origins of either Incarnational Christology or Adoptionist Christology both of which found a footing in ancient Jewish covenant belief The choice of becoming at one with the Creator by acting on the gospel of Jesus may result in a trembling before God a terrible good The reversal of the failing and irrelevance of Christianity today rests on American churches making significant choices whether God exists which covenant it follows if the Christologies remain intact ecclesiology reformation and which doctrinal issues are deemed necessary Richard Mallinson's Fast Fiction Richard Mallinson, 2013 At only a page each in length Richard Mallinson s elegantly structured short stories are a pithy fast fiction for a modern multimedia age A rapid succession of carefully worked observations the stories read like a dynamic anthology of life s collisions and interactions its projected plans and unexpected rotations There is a great joy in the subverted the interviewer becomes the interviewee the private detective becomes the conspirator as well as an interest in the open ended Possibility abounds for these are always tales of the present the past is unclear and the future unwritten Adhering to the strict one page format the writing is marvelously precise it is highly disciplined but infinitely rich conjuring the most unique and sharply observed characters with remarkably few words If indeed we read fiction in order to meet individuals as the character Tolson declares in Mallinson's Tolson's Creed then in this anthology we are introduced to a plethora of distinct personalities rendered all the more compelling by their relentless unpredictability

Tonal Intelligence Sunny Xiang, 2020-12-15 Why were U.S. intelligence organizations so preoccupied with demystifying East and Southeast Asia during the mid twentieth century Sunny Xiang offers a new way of understanding the American cold war in Asia by tracing aesthetic manifestations of Oriental inscrutability across a wide range of texts She examines how cold war regimes of suspicious thinking produced an ambiguity between Oriental enemies and Asian allies contributing to the conflict's status as both a real war and a long peace Xiang puts interrogation reports policy memos and field notes into conversation with novels poems documentaries and mixed media work by artists such as Theresa Hak Kyung Cha Kazuo Ishiguro Ha Jin and Trinh T. Minh-ha She engages her archive through a reading practice centered on tone juxtaposing Asian diasporans who appear similar in profile yet who differ in tone Tonal Intelligence considers how the meaning of race war and empire came under pressure during two interlinked periods of geopolitical transition American nation building in East and Southeast Asia during the mid twentieth century and Asian economic modernization during the late twentieth century By reading both state records and aesthetic texts from these periods for their tone rather than their content Xiang shows how bygone threats of Asian communism and emergent regimes of Asian capitalism have elicited distinct yet related anxieties about racial intelligibility Featuring bold methods unlikely archives and acute close readings Tonal Intelligence rethinks the marking and making of race during the long cold war

Wells A successful author and Liberal MP with a loving and benevolent wife Richard Remington appears to be a man to envy But underneath his superficial contentment he is far from happy with either his marriage or the politics of his party The New Machiavelli describes the disarray into which his life is thrown when he meets the young and beautiful Isabel Rivers and becomes tormented by desire At first he struggles to resist and remain focused upon his familiar political personal and social life But as he soon learns it is harder than he could have imagined to turn his back on love

A Long Way Home Terence Dillon, 2013-12 A Long Way Home is a dramatic and tension filled fictional story that explores the relationship between the English and the Irish in the late nineteenth century It provides a fascinating insight into the issues created when those looking for conciliation come into conflict with those relying on confrontation in the struggle for Irish independence The book traces the experiences of Paul Doherty an Irishman immigrant In a story that raises important issues of race class religion sex violence and secret societies Doherty struggles to look for conciliation rather than confrontation bringing him into conflict with his great friend and fellow Irishman Will who is a member of the Irish Republican Brotherhood The theme of confrontation and conciliation continues through the relationships Doherty has with the English arch racist Maurice Whitehouse and the English philanthropist William Harding The book also draws upon comparisons between life in rural Ireland and the dark streets of an English industrial town of the late nineteenth century as it builds to a powerful conclusion of romance and violence The Blakes and Flanagans Mrs. J. Sadlier, 1855
