

- ▶ Limerick poems can be traced back to the 14th century English history. Limericks were used in nursery rhymes and other poems for children. Limericks were short, relatively easy to compose and they were often repeated by beggars or the working class in the British pubs and taverns of the 15th, 16th and 17th centuries. It is believed that the word originates from the Irish town of Limerick. There is also a suggestion that it comes from the Irish word "a menny lay" meaning "a happy song".
