Fair Wind To Java:

Fair Wind to Java Garland Roark, 1948 The Wake of the Red Witch Little Brown 1946 was a book club choice Fair wind to Java has many of the same good points color drama pace originality and the same weaknesses too many irons in the fire so that the plot which as a picaresque adventure of the sea should be fairly direct bogs down in intricacies There are dual identities double loyalties cross plotting as Tom Flint ships on the ill fated Gerrymander under Captain Boll serving as agent for De Loach hated by the owner Culver Boll determined to wring the last ounce out of his ship drives his men unmercifully You get the picture of a sailing ship master of the old regime driven by ambition and cupidity but with his likable moments The voyage to the Dutch Indies the plotting for wealth in the distribution of counterfeit coin the search for the mystery leader of the pirates the double dealing and cross purposes all run parallel to the romance of Tom and Harriet Adams partner of Culver and in the fate of the Gerrymander Good adventure but the interest scatters so that one loses the impetus of climax

Fair Wind to Java Richard Tregaskis, Joseph Kane, Republic Productions, Inc, 1952 The Republic Pictures Checklist Len D. Martin, 2015-08-13 Republic Pictures Corporation began as a motion picture laboratory in 1915 By 1935 Republic had become a studio and released its first movie Westward Ho starring a young John Wayne who would stay with Republic for the next 17 years Republic would go on to produce highly successful Westerns starring singing cowboys Gene Autry and Roy Rogers as well as serial adventure series The studio cranked out so many exciting not to mention money making serials that it became known as The Thrill Factory Occasionally Republic would produce and distribute A features such as Macbeth and The Quiet Man but it was the B Westerns and adventure serials that they knew best how to produce and market Until its demise in 1959 Republic fed hungry moviegoers with a steady diet of B Westerns serials dramas series pictures and musicals The Republic Pictures Checklist provides a full listing of Republic releases with plot synopses release dates alternate titles chapter titles and awards All of Republic's output including documentaries and training films is included Richard

Tregaskis Ray E. Boomhower, 2021-11-15 In the late summer of 1942 more than ten thousand members of the First Marine Division held a tenuous toehold on the Pacific island of Guadalcanal As American marines battled Japanese forces for control of the island they were joined by war correspondent Richard Tregaskis Tregaskis was one of only two civilian reporters to land and stay with the marines and in his notebook he captured the daily and nightly terrors faced by American forces in one of World War II's most legendary battles and it served as the premise for his bestselling book Guadalcanal Diary One of the most distinguished combat reporters to cover World War II Tregaskis later reported on Cold War conflicts in Korea and Vietnam In 1964 the Overseas Press Club recognized his first person reporting under hazardous circumstances by awarding him its George Polk Award for his book Vietnam Diary Boomhower's riveting book is the first to tell Tregaskis's gripping life story concentrating on his intrepid reporting experiences during World War II and his fascination with war and its effect on the men who fought it Mono Lake Abraham Hoffman, 2014-04-01 Mono Lake is one of the largest lakes in California and Californians have been using it enjoying it and abusing it since nomadic northern Paiutes began hunting the lake's vast bird populations. Controversy between environmentalists and the City of Los Angeles brought so much attention to Mono Lake in the late twentieth century that it became best known for its appearance on Save Mono Lake bumper stickers. This thoughtful study is the first book to explore the lake's environmental and cultural history. Hoffman writes about gold mining in the Mono Basin, the taking of birds and their eggs to supply food for miners and townspeople, a failed oil boom, efforts to develop recreational activities such as a state-operated marina which also failed, catastrophes including plane crashes and the testing of bombs underwater and litigation over the diversion of creeks flowing into the lake and the resulting decline in the lake level. A variety of photographs, some never before published, ranging from mining to motor boat races in the 1930s are also included.

Cowboys, Creatures, and Classics Chris Enss, Howard Kazanjian, 2018-09-01. Take one well-oiled, effective killing machine, add a familiar hero on the ground, in the air, and on horseback, stir in a ghastly end that's surely impossible to escape, add action, add passion, made on a shoestring budget at breakneck speed, and you've got the recipe for Republic Pictures. Who after all cannot forget The Atomic Kid starring Mickey Rooney or The Untamed Heiress with an un-Oscar-worthy performance by ingénue Judy Canova. Exploding onto the movie scene in 1935, Republic Pictures brought the pop culture of the 30s and 40s to neighborhood movie houses. Week after week, kids sank into their matinee seats to soak up the Golden Age of the Republic series to ride off into the classic American West. And they gave us visions of the future. Visions that inspire film makers today. Republic was a studio that dollar for dollar packed more movie onto the screen than the majors could believe. From sunrise on into the night, over grueling six-day weeks, no matter how much mayhem movie makers were called upon to produce at Republic Pictures, it was all in a day's work. Republic Pictures was the little studio in the San Fernando Valley where movies were made family style. A core of technicians, directors, and actors worked hard at their craft as Republic released a staggering total of more than a thousand films through the late 1950s. Republic Pictures was home to John Wayne for thirty-three films. Always inventing, Republic brought a song to the West. It featured the West's first singing cowboy. Republic brought action, adventure, and escape to neighborhood movie houses across America. And they brought it with style. Scene from westerns such as The Three Mesquiteers and the Lawless Range gave screaming kids at the bijou a white-knuckle display of expert film making. Republic Pictures became a studio where major directors could bring their personal vision to the screen. Sometimes these were projects no other studio would touch, such as The Quiet Man which brought director John Ford an Oscar, and Macbeth. Killer Bs, Cowboys, Creatures, and Classics. The Story of Republic Pictures is for anyone who likes B-movie magic. It is the honest account of an extraordinary production house, one whose ability to turn out films quickly boded well for its transition into television production. Not only were its sets used for such shows as Leave It to Beaver and Gilligan's Island, stock footage from Republic's movies was used on such shows as Gunsmoke and The Life and Legend of Wyatt Earp.

The Hollywood Studios Ethan Mordden, 2013-01-02. Hollywood in the years between 1929 and 1948 was a town of moviemaking empires The great studios were estates of talent sprawling dense diverse It was the Golden Age of the Movies and each studio made its distinctive contribution But how did the studios growing up in the same time and place develop so differently What combinations of talents and temperaments gave them their signature styles These are the questions Ethan Mordden answers with breezy erudition and irrepressible enthusiasm in this fascinating and wonderfully readable book Mordden illuminates how the style of each studio was primarily dictated by the personality philosophy and attitudes of its presiding mogul and how all these factors affected the work and careers of individual actors directors writers and technicians and the success of the studio in general The Publishers Weekly ,1948-10 The Golden Age of
