Faith Quest Vol 1

Faith Quest Vol 1:

Inventing Christic Jesuses, Volume 1 Charles A. Wilson, 2017-11-09 Inventing Christic Jesuses is the first comprehensive proposal for how revisionist theology can deploy historical Jesus research in a methodologically sophisticated way. Rejecting positions that insulate theology from Jesus research, the proposal sets out warrants and rules for a quested Christology in dialogue with an analysis of the conduct of historians of Jesus from the period of the Third Quest c 1980-2010. The volume Method analyzes for theology the methods and values of historical research on Jesus. It argues that the methodic construction of historical images of Jesus in conversation with sources is simultaneously a retrojective activity of value production. First in defining the terms of the inquiry, Wilson locates a middle ground between hostility to questing and a too ready application of historical results to Christology. He then identifies rules and warrants for the deployment of Jesus research in theology and reconstructs the notion of the retrojection of value in the production of a historical Jesus. The volume ends with a case study of retrojective Jesus production, an analysis and assessment of the new notion that Jesus is a sage in the tradition of wisdom.

Baxter's Practical Works, Volume 1, 2007-12 The editor's preface (1707 p. xiii) stated that the works of Richard Baxter are perhaps the best body of practical divinity that is extant in our own or any other tongue. Richard Baxter lived from 1615-1691. The DIRECTORY was completed in 1665. Its scope was intended to cover all of practical theology, a summa of casuistry. Timothy Keller calls it the greatest manual on Biblical counseling ever produced.

Faithquest Sharon Berry, 2001-03 Remembered Voices Douglas John Hall, 1998-01-01 Douglas John Hall demonstrates the continuing relevance of several of the twentieth century's greatest theologians: Karl Barth, Paul Tillich, Reinhold Niebuhr, H. Richard Niebuhr, Dietrich Bonhoeffer, Emil Brunner, and Suzanne de Dietrich, suggesting that their neo-orthodox roots have much more in common than is traditionally acknowledged. Suitable for classroom use and individual study, Remembered Voices is a highly accessible introduction to twentieth-century theologians.

In Aid of Faith Lyman Abbott, 1886

Powered by Faith Tapiwa Praise Mapuranga, 2018-11-30 This book investigates the impact of Pentecostalism on the participation of women in business in Harare, Zimbabwe. Chapters in this volume trace the history of women's participation in business and highlight how Pentecostalism serves as a major motivating factor. The central argument is that there is a way in which selected women's businesses are powered by the Spirit. Contributors to the volume utilize case studies of selected Pentecostal churches and ministries to highlight how the religious ideologies of these churches galvanize them to engage in business. They also draw patterns of similarity and difference across the different Pentecostal churches. The volume demonstrates how Pentecostalism both facilitates and militates against women's participation in business, concerning a specific setting in Zimbabwe.

A Spirituality of Everyday Faith Declan Marmion, 1998 Because spirituality is such a ubiquitous term today, any attempt to elucidate it more fully is only to be welcomed. Volume 23 in the LTPM series represents a significant contribution in this regard. Beginning with the apostle Paul, Declan Marmion shows how the meaning of the term spirituality changed over the centuries He then offers a useful working definition of spirituality and explores the complicated relationship between spirituality academic theology and religious experience In the main body of the book Marmion focuses on the spiritual basis of Karl Rahner s theology Exhibiting a comprehensive knowledge of the primary and secondary literature in this area Marmion uses Rahner s notion of spirituality to treat such important themes as the nature of God mystical experience prayer love of neighbor and more

Faith Negotiating Loyalties Stephen W. Martin,2008 Faith Negotiating Loyalties draws readers into the world of Christian faith in South Africa and the question of loyalties in the new post apartheid state It carries out its investigation in two parts Part one examines Christian faith and loyalty during the first nation building exercise following the South African War positioning the creation and contestation of three Christianities corresponding to three nationalisms each of which imagined South Africa in a particular way shaping faith accordingly The idea of an undifferentiated South African Christianity gives way to contesting and contested Christianities nationalism gives way to nationalisms and faith emerges in tension with and in criticism of these loyalties Part two discusses the American theologian H Richard Niebuhr in South Africa Three kinds of faith in his writings are set forth social faith radial faith and reconstructing faith Contextualized within the South African story Niebuhr s ideas suggest self and society as constituted by hybridities and suspended in a web of loyalties Faith Negotiating Loyalties suggests the message for faith in a post apartheid South Africa is the importance of negotiating covenants which allow for crossings hybridities and contestations

Faith-based Radicalism Christiane Timmerman,2007 Terror attacks against Western symbols of power suicide terrorism in Chechnya or bombing of abortion clinics in the United States these are a few of the violent religious outbursts that the media never seem to stop broadcasting While these outbursts are mostly linked to Islamic extremism it should however be acknowledged that every religion has its own violent side Despite all the events the media are too prompt to show us it would be dishonest and insensible not to accept that every religion has also a potential for religious peace building and communal renewal How can it be explained then that religions sometimes react violently against the society surrounding them by trying to overthrow it while at some other times they willingly help and try to build a better world for everyone The University Centre Saint Ignatius Antwerp organised an interdisciplinary summer seminar in September 2005 and gathered senior scholars all experts in their own fields and junior scholars who will be the experts of tomorrow from all over the world to discuss these burning issues The seminar focused on miscellaneous topics all pointing towards the question of religion and society like literalism and the Holy texts the ambivalence of faith based radicalism the psychology of religion and terrorism nationalism and religion and religious social movements Publisher Faith (Ongoing)

Jipp, 2017 Too few Christians today says Joshua Jipp understand hospitality to strangers and the marginalized as an essential part of the church s identity In this book Jipp argues that God s relationship to his people is fundamentally an act of hospitality to strangers and that divine and human hospitality together are thus at the very heart of Christian faith Jipp first provides a thorough interpretation of the major biblical texts related to the practice of hospitality to strangers considering especially how these texts portray Christ as the divine host who extends God s welcome to all people Jipp then invites readers to consider how God s hospitality sets the pattern for human hospitality offering suggestions on how the practice of welcoming strangers can guide the church in its engagement with current social challenges immigration incarceration racism and more Faith Versus Fact Jerry A. Coyne, 2016-05-17 A superbly argued book Richard Dawkins author of The God Delusion The New York Times bestselling author of Why Evolution is True explains why any attempt to make religion compatible with science is doomed to fail In this provocative book evolutionary biologist Jerry A Coyne lays out in clear dispassionate detail why the toolkit of science based on reason and empirical study is reliable while that of religion including faith dogma and revelation leads to incorrect untestable or conflicting conclusions Coyne is responding to a national climate in which more than half of Americans don t believe in evolution members of Congress deny global warming and long conquered childhood diseases are reappearing because of religious objections to inoculation and he warns that religious prejudices in politics education medicine and social policy are on the rise Extending the bestselling works of Richard Dawkins Daniel Dennett and Christopher Hitchens he demolishes the claims of religion to provide verifiable truth by subjecting those claims to the same tests we use to establish truth in science Coyne irrefutably demonstrates the grave harm to individuals and to our planet in mistaking faith for fact in making the most important decisions about the world we live in

Praise for Faith Versus Fact A profound and lovely book showing that the honest doubts of science are better than the false certainties of religion Sam Harris author of The End of Faith Faith at the Crossroads Dov Schwartz,2002-01-01 The book exposes the theological foundations of religious Zionism Relying on a rigorous analysis of new primary sources Schwartz argues that this movement strove to build a new religious consciousness in light of the Jewish national renaissance in the twentieth century History, Theology & Faith Tilley, Terrence W.,2015-05-05 Faith and Philosophy Jerry H. Gill,2021-10-11 The ancient religious thinker Tertullian asked What has Athens to do with Jerusalem implying that faith and philosophy have nothing to say to each other The history of this dialogue has shaped the intellectual dialogue from the very beginning right up to the present In this book Jerry H Gill has traced the dynamics of this dialogue and in the conclusion he has offered his own answer to the questions it raises Faith as Life in the Spirit Aaron Gabriel Ross,2025-06-26 This incisive work shows that faith does not need to be understood as what one believes does or feels when faith is understood as being in Christ by being in the Spirit The way in which Christians and Christian theology at least in Western traditions including the family of Pentecostals and renewal movements engages with the idea of faith has a problem faith is often defined as what people must do whether that is to believe in a list of doctrines to do good works or to love properly in order for God to respond with forgiveness and salvation However this work takes a new approach with a pneumatological trajectory in constructing a theology of faith understood as life in the Spirit overcoming a stalemated discussion on faith as belief versus works As such faith is being in Christ by being in the Spirit is the theological recognition that faith is first relationality to the Spirit by which a person is invited into life with Christ and the triune God Faith is not what one does beliefs works affections but rather what one is in relationality with the Spirit Beliefs works and affections are best understood as those things that are the outward expressions of the relationality rather than that which brings one into relationality with God Ethics, Love, and Faith in Kierkegaard Edward F. Mooney,2008-07-17 Ethics Love and Faith in Kierkegaard collects essays from 13 leading scholars that center on key themes that characterize Kierkegaard s philosophy of religion With their unique focus on notions of the self views on the command to love one s neighbor thoughts on melancholy and despair and the articulation of religious vision the essays in this volume cover the breadth and depth of Kierkegaard s philosophical and religious writings Poised at the intersection of Kierkegaard s moral psychology and its religious significance they offer vivid testimony to the ongoing power of his unique and fervent religious spirit Students and scholars alike will find new light shed on questions that define Kierkegaard s philosophy and religion today The Faith of Fallen Jews David N.
