Gaia 2 Emergence The New Science Of Becoming:

Gaia 2 William Irwin Thompson, 1991 Based on a conference held in Perugia Italy 1988 this collection of papers and symposia confirms Heisenberg's saying that real science is made in the conversation of scientists Coming Into Being William Irwin Thompson, 1998-06-15 A stunning New Age tour through literature sculpture and science that looks at the archetype of the human ascent to the heavens Gaia in Turmoil Eileen Crist, H. Bruce Rinker, 2010 Essays link Gaian science to such global environmental quandaries as climate change and biodiversity destruction providing perspectives from science philosophy politics and technology Spiritscapes Mark Parent, Alternative medicine Quantum mechanics Gaia Near Death Experiences The New Age Fundamentalism Feminist and Liberation Theology These are just some of the nine most significant spiritual scientific movements analyzed by Mark Parent in his latest book Gaia's Hidden Life Shirley J. Nicholson, Brenda Rosen, 1992-11-01 A new collection of essays on the living intelligence within nature from various spiritual and scientific perspectives by James Lovelock Dorothy MacLean Joan Halifax Thomas Berry John Seed Serge King author of Earth Energies and others Gaian Systems Bruce Clarke, 2020-09-29 A groundbreaking look at Gaia theory's intersections with neocybernetic systems theory Often seen as an outlier in science Gaia has run a long and varied course since its formulation in the 1970s by atmospheric chemist James Lovelock and microbiologist Lynn Margulis Gaian Systems is a pioneering exploration of the dynamic and complex evolution of Gaia's many variants with special attention to Margulis's foundational role in these developments Bruce Clarke assesses the different dialects of systems theory brought to bear on Gaia discourse Focusing in particular on Margulis's work including multiple pieces of her unpublished Gaia correspondence he shows how her research and that of Lovelock was concurrent and conceptually parallel with the new discourse of self-referential systems that emerged within neocybernetic systems theory The recent Gaia writings of Donna Haraway Isabelle Stengers and Bruno Latour contest its cybernetic status Clarke engages Latour on the issue of Gaia's systems description and extends his own systems theoretical synthesis under what he terms metabiotic Gaia This study illuminates current issues in neighboring theoretical conversations from biopolitics and the immunitary paradigm to NASA astrobiology and the Anthropocene Along the way he points to science fiction as a vehicle of Gaian thought Delving into many issues not previously treated in accounts of Gaia Gaian Systems describes the history of a theory that has the potential to help us survive an environmental crisis of our own making Mind in Life Evan Thompson, 2010-09-30 Thompson explores the explanatory gap between biological life and consciousness drawing on sources as diverse as molecular biology evolutionary theory artificial life complex systems theory neuroscience psychology Continental Phenomenology and analytic philosophy to show that mind and life are more continuous than previously accepted Biopoetics Andreas Weber, 2016-09-01 Meaning feeling and expression the experience of inwardness matter most in human existence The perspective of biopoetics shows that this experience is shared by all organisms Being alive means to exist through relations that have existential concern and to express these dimensions through the body and its gestures All life takes place within one poetic space which is shared between all beings and which is accessible through subjective sensual experience We take part in this through our empirical subjectivity which arises from the experiences and needs of living beings and which makes them open to access and sharing in a poetic objectivity Biopoetics breaks free from the causal mechanic paradigm which made biology unable to account for mind and meaning Biology becomes a science of expression connection and subjectivity which can understand all organisms including humans as feeling agents in a shared ecology of meaningful relations embedded in a symbolical and material metabolism of the biosphere

Claiming Sacred Ground Adrian J. Ivakhiv, 2001-07-26 Claiming Sacred Ground Pilgrims and Politics at Glastonbury and Sedona Adrian J Ivakhiv A study of people and politics at two New Age spiritual sites In this richly textured account Adrian Ivakhiv focuses on the activities of pilgrim migrants to Glastonbury England and Sedona Arizona He discusses their efforts to encounter and experience the spirit or energy of the land and to mark out its significance by investing it with sacred meanings Their endeavors are presented against a broad canvas of cultural and environmental struggles associated with the incorporation of such geographically marginal places into an expanding global cultural economy Ivakhiv sees these contested and heterotopic landscapes as the nexus of a complex web of interestes and longings from millennial anxieties and nostalgic re imaginings of history and prehistory to real estate power grabs contending religious visions and the free play of ideas from science pseudo science and popular culture Looming over all this is the nonhuman life of these landscapes anotherhness that alternately reveals and conceals itself behind a pagenant of beliefs images and place myths A significant contribution to scholarship on alternative spirituality sacred space and the politics of natural landscapes Claiming Sacred Ground will interest scholars and students of environmental and cultural studies and the sociology of religious movements and pilgrimage Non specialist readers will be stimulated by the cultural ecological and spiritual dimensions of extraordinary natural landscapes Adrian Ivakhiv teaches in the Faculty of Environmental Studies at York University in Toronto and is President of the Environmental Studies Association of Canada April 2001 384 pages 24 b w photos 2 figs 9 maps 6 1 8 x 9 1 4 index append cloth 0 253 33899 9 37 40 s 28 50 Contents I DEPARTURES 1 Power and Desire in Earth s Tangled Web 2 Reimagining Earth 3 Orchestrating Sacred Space II Glastonbury 4 Stage Props and Players of Avalon 5 Many Glastonburys Place Myths and Contested Spaces III SEDONA 6 Red Rocks to Real Estate 7 New Agers Vortexes and the Sacred Landscape IV ARRIVALS 8 Practices of Place Nature and Heterotopia Beyond the New Age

Recursivity and Contingency Yuk Hui, 2019-01-28 This book employs recursivity and contingency as two principle concepts to investigate into the relation between nature and technology machine and organism system and freedom It reconstructs a trajectory of thought from an Organic condition of thinking elaborated by Kant passing by the philosophy of nature Schelling and Hegel to the 20th century Organicism Bertalanffy Needham Whitehead Wiener among others and Organology Bergson Canguilhem Simondon Stiegler and questions the new condition of philosophizing in the time of algorithmic contingency ecological and algorithmic catastrophes which Heidegger calls the end of philosophy The book centres on the following speculative question if in the philosophical tradition the concept of contingency is always related to the laws of nature then in what way can we understand contingency in related to technical systems The book situates the concept of recursivity as a break from the Cartesian mechanism and the drive of system construction it elaborates on the necessity of contingency in such epistemological rupture where nature ends and system emerges In this development we see how German idealism is precursor to cybernetics and the Anthropocene and Noosphere Teilhard de Chardin point toward the realization of a gigantic cybernetic system which lead us back to the question of freedom It questions the concept of absolute contingency Meillassoux and proposes a cosmotechnical pluralism Engaging with modern and contemporary European philosophy as well as Chinese thought through the mediation of Needham this book refers to cybernetics mathematics artificial intelligence and inhumanism

Using the Visual and Performing Arts to Encourage Pro-Environmental Behaviour David Curtis, 2020-10-06 Ecoarts practice is evolving quickly as a practice While much of it is made by individual artists working alone artists are increasingly combining into multi artist collectives and collaborating with scientists sustainability professionals industry or the community to develop artworks with quite far reaching effects This book describes an extraordinary range of artistic practices pitched to encourage people to adopt pro environmental behaviours by provoking persuading providing information creating empathy for nature or by being built into sustainability practices themselves It brings together 28 contributors who examine different roles of the arts in encouraging pro environmental behaviour There is a wide range of practitioners represented here including visual and performing artists sustainability professionals social researchers environmental educators research students and academics The contributors to this book are united in believing that the arts are vital in promoting pro environmental behavior in the way that they are practiced but also in the connections they make to ecology science and Indigenous culture

Nature's Magic Peter Corning, 2003-05-05 Nature s Magic presents a bold vision of the evolutionary process from the Big Bang to the 21st century Synergy of various kinds is not only a ubiquitous aspect of the natural world but it has also been a wellspring of creativity and the driver of the broad evolutionary trend toward increased complexity in nature and human societies alike But in contrast with the many theories of emergence or complexity that rely on some underlying force or law the Synergism Hypothesis as Peter Corning calls it is in essence an economic theory of biological complexity it is fully consistent with mainstream evolutionary biology Corning refers to it as Holistic Darwinism Among the many important insights that are provided by this new paradigm Corning presents a scenario in which the human species invented itself synergistic behavioral and technological innovations were the pacemakers of our biological evolution Synergy has also been the key to the evolution of complex modern societies he concludes

Ecological Design, Tenth Anniversary Edition Sim Van der Ryn, Stuart Cowan, 2013-03-05 Ecological Design is a landmark volume that helped usher in an exciting new era in green design and sustainability planning Since its initial publication in 1996 the book has been critically important in sparking dialogue and triggering collaboration across spatial scales and design professions in pursuit of buildings products and landscapes with radically decreased environmental impacts This 10th anniversary edition makes the work available to a new generation of practitioners and thinkers concerned with moving our society onto a more sustainable path Using examples from architecture industrial ecology sustainable agriculture ecological wastewater treatment and many other fields Ecological Design provides a framework for integrating human design with living systems Drawing on complex systems ecology and early examples of green building and design the book challenges us to go further creating buildings infrastructures and landscapes that are truly restorative rather than merely diminishing the rate at which things are getting worse

A New Paradigm for the Conquest of Land by Vertebrates That Includes Exaptations Mauro Luís Triques, Martin Lindsey Christoffersen, 2024-04-02 A new view for studying and understanding biological evolution emerges when the concepts of phylogenetic systematics and exaptation are combined A new definition of macroevolution is created Preadaptation is shown to be a null concept and its comparison with exaptation is shown to be inappropriate This book criticizes the prevailing view the adaptationist microevolutionary outlook which considers adaptation as being the exclusive or main evolutionary process responsible for vertebrates having occupied the terrestrial environment The authors argue that the macroevolutionary processes are significantly more important to explain an improbable evolutionary event Their research shows that macroevolutionary processes are the dominant factors involved in the origin of terrestriality This book is a revised and expanded English translation from the original Portuguese edition Peixes conquistam a terra firme nova abordagem para um evento acidental
