Trans/acting Culture, Writing, and Memory Eva C. Karpinski, Jennifer Henderson, Ian Sowton, Ray Ellenwood, 2013-10-30
Trans acting Culture Writing and Memory is a collection of essays written in honour of Barbara Godard one of the most original and wide ranging literary critics theorists teachers translators and public intellectuals Canada has ever produced The contributors both established and emerging scholars extend Godard's work through engagements with her published texts in the spirit of creative interchange and intergenerational relay of ideas Their essays resonate with Godard's innovative scholarship situated at the intersection of such fields as literary studies cultural studies translation studies feminist theory arts criticism social activism institutional analysis and public memory In pursuit of unexpected linkages and connections the essays venture beyond generic and disciplinary borders zeroing in on Godard's transdisciplinary practice that has been extremely influential in the way that it framed questions and modeled interventions for the study of Canadian Québécois and Acadian literatures and cultures The authors work with the archives ranging from Canadian government policies and documents to publications concerning white supremacist organizations in Southern Ontario online materials from a Toronto based transgender arts festival a photographic mural installation commemorating the Montreal Massacre and the works of such writers and artists as Marie Clements Nicole Brossard France Daigle Nancy Huston Yvette Nolan Gail Scott Denise

Desautels Louise Warren Rebecca Belmore Vera Frenkel Robert Lepage and Janet Cardiff The Routledge Handbook of Translation and the City Tong King Lee, 2021-06-27 The Routledge Handbook of Translation and the City is the first multifaceted and cross disciplinary overview of how cities can be read through the lens of translation and how translation studies can be enriched by an understanding of the complex dynamics of the city Divided into four sections the chapters are authored by leading scholars in translation studies sociolinguistics and literary and cultural criticism They cover contexts from Brussels to Singapore and Melbourne to Cairo and topics from translation as resistance to translanguaging and urban design This volume explores the role of translation at critical junctures of a city's historical transformation as well as in the mundane intercultural moments of urban life and uncovers the trope of the translational city in writing This Handbook is critical reading for researchers scholars and advanced students in translation studies linguistics and urban studies

The Poetics of Translation Geneviève Robichaud, 2024-07-15 Translation is a vital method of not just reading but writing and forms the basis of an exciting range of critical artistic and literary opportunities Combining close readings of literary texts alongside astute critical observations from works by Avital Ronell and Walter Benjamin amongst others The Poetics of Translation re-examines key translation studies concepts challenging our sometimes pragmatic understanding of translation and asking what it is that the discipline can make visible By highlighting the possibilities of translation as an art form in contemporary innovative writing practices Geneviève Robichaud reveals translation's creative and critical potential arguing that even those literary works that are not exactly translations gain in being apprehended as such The Poetics of Translation values oblique even unfinished sources of meaning dwelling in the speculative spaces of texts and drawing attention to translation as poesis as creating that which is tangible and valuable Situated at the juncture of translation poetics and literary studies the book celebrates the uncertainty of translation the plasticity of language and ideas and the desire to interpret rather than reiterate

Wider Boundaries of Daring Di Brandt, Barbara Godard, 2011-09-08 Wider Boundaries of Daring The Modernist Impulse in Canadian Women's Poetry announces a bold revision of the genealogy of Canadian literary modernism by foregrounding the originary and exemplary contribution of women poets critics cultural activists and experimental prose writers Dorothy Livesay P K Page Miriam Waddington Phyllis Webb Elizabeth Brewster Jay Macpherson Anne Wilkinson Anne Marriott and Elizabeth Smart In the introduction editor Di Brandt champions particularly the achievements of Livesay Page and Webb in setting the visionary parameters of Canadian and international literary modernism The writers profiled in Wider Boundaries of Daring are the real founders of Canadian modernism the contributors of this volume argue both for their innovative aesthetic and literary experiments and for their extensive cultural activism They founded literary magazines and writers groups wrote newspaper columns and created a new forum for intellectual debate on public radio At the same time they led busy lives as wives and mothers social workers and teachers editors and critics and competed successfully with their male contemporaries in the public arena in an era when women were not generally encouraged to hold professional positions or pursue public careers The acknowledgement of these writers formidable contribution to the development of modernism in Canada and along with it wider boundaries of daring for women and other people previously disadvantaged by racial ethnic or religious identifications has profound implications for the way we read and understand Canadian literary and cultural history and for the shape of both national and international modernisms

Women's Writing in Canada Patricia Demers, 150 Years of Canada Ursula Lehmkuhl, Elisabeth Tutschek, 2020 On July 1 2017 Canada celebrated the 150th anniversary of Confederation The nation wide festivities prompted ambiguous reactions and contradictory responses since they officially proclaimed to celebrate what it means to be Canadian Drawing on the analytical perspectives of Diversity Studies this fifth volume of the Diversity Diversit Diversit t series explores the repercussions of Canada 150 s focus on identity The contributions touch upon issues of Canada s French and English dualism of its settler colonial past and present and the role of Indigenous Peoples in Canada s identity narrative of Canada s religious cultural ethnic and racial diversity and of the challenge of forging a Canadian identity The authors analyze these and other problems arising from the tensions between identity and diversity by empirically addressing topics such as multicultural memories Canadian literary and political discourses M tis history Canada s Indigenous peoples Canada s official federal discourse on language and culture and Canada s evolving citizenship regimes Contributors Marie Eve Beaulieu Charles Blattberg Paul Carls Sarah Henzi Jane Jenson Wolfgang Klooss Gillian Lane Mercier Pierre Lavoie Ursula Lehmkuhl Laurence McFalls Nikolas Schall Lisa Schaub Elisabeth Tutschek

Writing With, Through, and Beyond the Text Rebecca Luce-Kapler, 2004-07-19 Writing With Through and Beyond the Text An Ecology of Language elaborates an understanding of writing its influences on our interpretations of experience and identity and its potential for enabling individuals to learn about and connect to the world beyond themselves Rather than considering writing a process the author describes it as a system an ecology that engages the individual in a variety of socially constituted and interacting systems The book examines the pedagogical and curricular implications of this approach to writing considering what it means to write and teach writing in ways that understand and acknowledge the ecological character of writing This is an illuminating text for a wide audience of faculty professionals and graduate students in English writing education and women s studies feminist theory

Trans.Can.Lit Smaro Kamboureli, 2009-10-22 The study of Canadian literature CanLit has undergone dramatic changes since it became an area of specialization in the 1960s and 70s As new global forces in the 1990s undermined its nation based critical assumptions its theoretical focus and research methods lost their immediacy The contributors to Trans Can Lit address cultural policy citizenship white civility and the celebrated status of diasporic writers unabashedly recognizing the imperative to transfigure the disciplinary and institutional frameworks within which Canadian literature is produced disseminated studied taught and imagined

Reconfiguring Citizenship and National Identity in the North American Literary Imagination Kathy-Ann Tan, 2015-12-07 Explores how traditional notions of citizenship are contested and altered through literature Literature has always played a central role in creating and disseminating culturally specific notions of citizenship nationhood and belonging In Reconfiguring Citizenship and National Identity in the North American Literary Imagination author Kathy Ann Tan investigates metaphors configurations parameters and articulations of U S and Canadian citizenship that are enacted renegotiated and revised in modern literary texts particularly during periods of emergence and crisis Tan brings together for the first time a selection of canonical and lesser known U S and Canadian writings for critical consideration She begins by exploring literary depiction of willful or wayward citizens and those with precarious bodies that are viewed as threatening undesirable unacceptable including refugees and asylum seekers undocumented migrants deportees and stateless people She also considers the rights to citizenship and political membership claimed by queer bodies and an examination of new and alternative forms of citizenship such as denizenship urban citizenship diasporic citizenship and Indigenous citizenship With case studies based on works by a diverse collection of authors including Nathaniel Hawthorne Djuna Barnes Etel Adnan Sarah Schulman Walt Whitman Gail Scott and Philip Roth Tan uncovers alternative forms of collectivity community and nation across a broad range of perspectives In line with recent cross disciplinary explorations in the field Reconfiguring Citizenship and National Identity in the North American Literary Imagination shows citizenship as less of a fixed or static legal entity and more as a set of symbolic and cultural practices Scholars of literary studies cultural studies and citizenship studies will be grateful for Tan s illuminating study

Other Influences Marcella Durand, Jennifer Firestone, 2024-10-29 A compelling collection of original essays on influence that restore a feminist avant garde that includes women of color queer and trans women Other Influences frames a new literary history in which feminist avant garde and poetry practices intersect foregrounding critically neglected but artistically powerful lineages in twentieth and twenty first century North American poetry In this collection Marcella Durand and Jennifer Firestone assemble original essays by a range of leading contemporary feminist avant garde poets asked to consider their lineages inspirations and influences Their reflections contain many surprises with writers citing scientists artists and little known feminist writers from other eras and traditions for example Tracie Morris discusses the Gee s Bend quilters Carla Harryman writes about her collaboration with Lyn Hejinian and Cecilia Vicuña cites the Tao Te Ching Unlike other collections of writers on writing Other Influences demonstrates a complex feminist ethos of paying homage to forebears while at the same time resisting the parts of a history along with previous concepts of influence that might be stale or limiting Countering a masculinist model of influence la Harold Bloom Durand and Firestone illuminate the diverse nonhierarchical ecosystems of feminist avant garde poetry and re envision influence through their own lens and on their own terms aspiring to no less than the unmaking of a canon Contributors Mei mei Berssenbrugge Rachel Blau DuPlessis Nicole Brossard Brenda Coultas Mónica de la Torre Tonya M Foster Renee Gladman Carla Harryman Allison Adelle Hedge Coke Erica Hunt Rachel Levitsky Bernadette Mayer Tracie Morris Harryette Mullen Eileen Myles Sawako Nakayasu Hoa Nguyen Julie Patton KPrevallet
