Vestrand,1994 This text details the major measurements taken by the Compton Gamma Ray Observatory as well as GRANAT Yohkoh SMM and other spacecraft during the solar cycle of 1989 1991 Topics include flare measurements high energy electron phenomena and neutron monitor and GLE events The Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record ,1928

Bismarck: The White Revolutionary Lothar Gall,2019-06-26 Originally published in English in 1986 these volumes are far more than the story of the life of a powerful statesman The name Bismarck sums up the entire political social economic and intellectual development of central Europe in the second half of the 19th Century and the internal and external shape that Germany then assumed These books analyse how much of this was Bismarck s personal achievement or whether he was the man who put the nation on the disastrously wrong course that reached its fateful culmination in 1933 They examine whether Bismarck s success was precisely because he implemented policies for which the time was ripe and did so in ways that were in harmony with the historical evolution of central Europe The Publisher ,1913 Publishers' Circular and Booksellers' Record of British and Foreign Literature ,1900 The Middle Ages at Work K. Robertson,M. Uebel,2016-04-30 This timely volume examines the commitments of historicism in the wake of New Historicism It contributes to the construction of a materialist historicism while at the same time proposing that discussions of work need not be limited to the clash between labour and capital To this end the essays offer more than a strictly historical view of the complex terms social and literary within which labour was treated in the medieval period Several of the essays strive to reformulate the very critical language we use to think about the categories of labour and work through a continually doubled engagement with modern theories of labour and medieval theories and practices of labour Mathematician for All Seasons Hugo Steinhaus,2016-02-08 This book presents in his own words the life of Hugo Steinhaus 1887 1972 noted Polish mathematician of Jewish background educator and mathematical popularizer A student of Hilbert a pioneer of the foundations of probability and game theory and a contributor to the development of functional analysis he was one of those instrumental to the extraordinary flowering of Polish mathematics before and after World War I In particular it was he who discovered the great Stefan Banach Exhibiting his great integrity and wit Steinhaus s personal story of the turbulent times he survived including two world wars and life postwar under the Soviet heel cannot but be of consuming interest His recounting of the fearful years spent evading Nazi terror is especially moving The steadfast honesty and natural dignity he maintained while pursuing a life of demanding scientific and intellectual enquiry in the face of encroaching calamity and chaos show him to be truly a mathematician for all seasons The present work will be of great interest not only to mathematicians wanting to learn some of the details of the mathematical blossoming that occurred in Poland in the first half of the 20th century but also to anyone wishing to read a first hand account of the history of those unquiet times in Europe and indeed world wide by someone of uncommon intelligence and forthrightness situated near an eye of the storm Disembodiment Banu Bargu,2024-11-20

Disembodiment examines self destruction self injury and radical self endangerment as unconventional performances of resistance and refusal Banu Bargu troubles the dominant approach that treats these acts as individual pathologies cries for help and signs of despair taking the reader on an unsettling journey that passes through the suicides of enslaved Africans the hunger strikes of woman suffragists Gandhian fasting practices Bouazizi s self incineration and the lip sewing practices of migrants and asylum seekers to chart a bleak repertoire of contention performed by the oppressed As a work in global critical theory whose normative compass is the suffering body Disembodiment offers a bold materialist theory of corporeal agency that upholds the fundamental rebelliousness of the body Is the West in Decline? Benjamin M.

Rowland,2015-10-30 Is the West in Decline is a collection of ten essays by prominent scholars of international relations and current history many of them associated with the European Studies program of the Johns Hopkins School of Advanced International Studies The essays explore the question of decline from several perspectives theoretical historical counterfactual and contemporary Thomas Row s essay uses alternative history to show how an unfallen Habsburg Empire might have evolved into a state system resembling the European Union Benjamin Rowland s essay on Oswald Spengler considers how the German historian s theory of decline could be applied to the West today Several of the essays are country studies Not all conclude that countries or state systems are in decline or that the condition if present is irreversible Writing about Germany Stephen Szabo notes that only fifteen years ago this currently robust country could have been seen as a clear exemplar of decline Dana Allin s essay on the U S asks whether a course change including retrenchment and overseas rebalancing might reverse decline or eliminate it altogether David Calleo s essay among other things looks at America s reserve currency status as a principal sustainer of American exceptionalism and asks what might happen should the U S lose its exorbitant privilege as reserve currency provider to the international system The Athenaeum ,1904 The Pharmaceutical Era ,1899 Afghanistan Niamatullah Ibrahimi,William Maley,2019-11-28 This book offers an overview of the formation of the Afghan state and of the politics economic challenges and international relations of contemporary Afghanistan It opens with an account of some of the key features that make Afghanistan unique and proceeds to discuss how the Afghan state acquired a distinctive character as a rentier state In addition the authors outline a complex range of domestic and external factors that led to the breakdown of the state and how that breakdown gave rise to a set of challenges with which Afghan political and social actors have been struggling to deal since the 2001 international intervention that overthrew the anti modernist Taliban regime It then presents the different types of politics that Afghanistan has witnessed over the last two decades examines some of the most important features of the Afghan economy and demonstrates how Afghanistan s geopolitical location and international relations more broadly have complicated the task of promoting stability in the post 2001 period It concludes with some reflections on the factors that are likely to shape Afghanistan s future trajectory and notes that if there are hopes for a better future they largely rest on the shoulders of a globalised generation of younger Afghans This book will be of interest to students and scholars in the fields of Middle East and Central Asian studies international relations politics development studies and history
