Galliard Battaglia:

Galliard Battaglia Samuel Scheidt, David Marlatt, 2008-10-01 This is piece that requires no introduction to trumpet players The famous Canadian Brass quintet arrangement has been played by quintets all over the world for years This arrangement for trumpet ensemble makes this famous piece available in a new setting This arrangement for 5 trumpets allows Trumpet 1 and 2 to play the famous alternating parts with the remaining trumpets play a supportive role The flashy scales and the great antiphonal writing can now be played at church or on a recital or concert

Dowland: Lachrimae (1604) Peter Holman, 1999-10-28 Dowland's Lachrimae 1604 is perhaps the greatest but most enigmatic publication of instrumental music from before the eighteenth century This new handbook the first detailed study of the collection investigates its publication history its instrumentation its place in the history of Renaissance dance music and its reception history Two extended chapters examine the twenty one pieces in the collection in detail discussing the complex internal relationships between the cycle of seven Lachrimae pavans the relationships between them and other pieces inside and outside the collection and possible connections between the Latin titles of the seven pavans and Elizabethan conceptions of melancholy The extraordinarily multi faceted nature of the collection also leads the author to illuminate questions of patronage the ordering and format of the collection pitch and transposition tonality and modality and even numerology

The Bach Choir: The First Hundred Years Basil Keen, 2017-07-05 This study of the Bach Choir provides a much needed overview of one of the major choral societies in London Dr Basil Keen examines the background that led to the formation of an ad hoc body to give the first performance in England of J S Bach's B minor Mass The musical and organizational effects of a permanent choral society drawn from one social group are traced during the first twenty years after such time the pressures of social change led to a complete review followed by a restructuring of the methods of recruitment and internal organization The rebuilding of the choir at the opening of the twentieth century the expansion of the repertoire the upheaval resulting from the First World War and the impact of these events on preparation and performance are all considered The book is essentially structured around the tenure of successive Musical Directors Otto Goldschmidt Charles Villiers Stanford Walford Davies Hugh Allen Ralph Vaughan Williams Adrian Boult Reginald Jacques and David Willcocks since their varied tastes and interests inevitably had a decisive influence on policy Keen draws upon previously unpublished material including minutes and correspondence of the Bach Choir interviews with relatives and descendants and examination of family records and correspondence To date there has been no survey of a major London choir that encompasses the full history of the organization in context In this study Dr Basil Keen provides a thorough examination of the Bach Choir including the response of the choir to social changes the influence of conductors and officials changes in musical taste relationships with composers and composition major national and international events and the effect of these matters on organization and repertoire Canadiana ,1989 Guide to the Tuba Repertoire, Second Edition R.
