Invites you to a Film Screening of

FACING AUSCHWITZ

Facing Auschwitz, a film produced by Iris Singer, follows young people from Austria. The documentary centers on the personal reflections of four participants, captured through film, photos, and audio recordings. It provides an intimate look into the minds of these young Austrians as they confront a piece of dark history.

Iris Singer is an Austrian filmmaker and activist who has been telling the story of the Holocaust and survivors of the Holocaust – as well as organising events and tours to remind young people of the importance of history, and the most devastating genocides of the 20th century.

Facing Auschwitz:

Facing Auschwitz Arlen Fowler, 2003 Does God really exist Why is God silent Where is God Why does God not answer our prayers These are the questions that many victims and survivors of the Holocaust asked In the decades following the Holocaust many scholars and theologians world wide have sought answers to these questions Their findings challenge the way we have understood many of our traditional beliefs Unfortunately their findings and insights have not been generally known or studied by the laity or clergy of the American churches This small volume is intended to be an introduction to some of the serious theological issues raised by the Holocaust Study groups church groups and individuals will find this book an effective tool for becoming acquainted with these important God questions The journey to face Auschwitz is not without spiritual challenges It can be an inner struggle to re examine certain long held beliefs but it can also be a journey to spiritual enlightenment This study will start the reader on that journey If the Church is to regain its integrity and its mission of justice mercy and compassion it must face Auschwitz

The Female Face of God in Auschwitz Melissa Raphael, 2003-09-02 The dominant theme of post Holocaust Jewish theology has been that of the temporary hiddenness of God interpreted either as a divine mystery or more commonly as God's deferral to human freedom But traditional Judaic obligations of female presence together with the traditional image of the Shekhinah as a figure of God's femaleness accompanying Israel into exile seem to contradict such theologies of absence The Female Face of God in Auschwitz the first full length feminist theology of the Holocaust argues that the patriarchal bias of post Holocaust theology becomes fully apparent only when women's experiences and priorities are brought into historical light Building upon the published testimonies of four women imprisoned at Auschwitz Birkenau Olga Lengyel Lucie Adelsberger Bertha Ferderber Salz and Sara Nomberg Przytyk it considers women's distinct experiences of the holy in relation to God's perceived presence and absence in the camps God's face says Melissa Raphael was not hidden in Auschwitz but intimately revealed in the female face turned towards the other as a refractive image of God especially in the moral protest made visible through material and spiritual care for the assaulted other

Facing Death Sarah K. Pinnock, 2016-12-05 What do we learn about death from the Holocaust and how does it impact our responses to mortality today Facing Death Confronting Mortality in the Holocaust and Ourselves brings together the work of eleven Holocaust and genocide scholars who address these difficult questions convinced of the urgency of further reflection on the Holocaust as the last survivors pass away The volume is distinctive in its dialogical and introspective approach where the contributors position themselves to confront their own impending death while listening to the voices of victims and learning from their life experiences Broken into three parts this collection engages with these voices in a way that is not only scholarly but deeply personal The first part of the book engages with Holocaust testimony by drawing on the writings of survivors and witnesses such as Elie Wiesel Jean Améry and Charlotte Delbo including rare accounts from members of the Sonderkommando Reflections of post Holocaust generations the children and grandchildren of survivors are housed in the second part addressing questions of remembrance and memorialization The concluding essays offer intimate self reflection about how engagement with the Holocaust impacts the contributors lives faiths and ethics In an age of continuing atrocities this volume provides careful attention to the affective dimension of coping with death in particular how loss and grief are deferred or denied narrated and passed along Confessing Christ in a Post-Holocaust World Henry F. Knight, 2006-05-01 Proposes a new model of Christian faithfulness in a post Holocaust world Radical Assimilation in the Face of the Holocaust Tom Navon, 2024-01-01 This book explores the confrontation of radically assimilated Jews with the violent collapse of their envisioned integration into a cosmopolitan European society which culminated during the Holocaust This confrontation is examined through the biography of the German speaking intellectual and prominent communist theoretician of the Jewish question Otto Heller 1897 1945 focusing on the tension between his Jewish origins and his universalistic political convictions Radical Assimilation in the Face of the Holocaust traces the development of Heller s position on the Jewish question in three phases how he grew up to become a typical Central European non Jewish Jew 1897 1931 how he became exceptional in that category by focusing his intellectual work on the Jewish question 1931 1939 and how he reacted to the persecution and murder of European Jewry as a member of the Resistance in occupied France and in Auschwitz 1939 1945 Breaking with the common portrayal of Heller as a self hating Jew Tom Navon argues instead that Heller came to lay the foundations for the groundbreaking recognition by communists of worldwide Jewish national solidarity

Auschwitz Arthur Williams, The establishment of Auschwitz in 1940 began as part of the Nazi regime s expanding system of concentration camps but it would evolve into something far more sinister and systematic than its original planners envisioned Located in occupied Poland near the town of O wi cim the camp complex would eventually become the largest and most notorious extermination site of the Holocaust representing the industrialized murder that characterized Nazi genocide against Jews Roma political prisoners and other groups deemed undesirable by the regime The geographical selection of the Auschwitz site reflected both practical considerations and the Nazi regime s broader territorial ambitions in occupied Poland The location offered excellent transportation links through major railway networks that could facilitate the deportation of victims from across Nazi occupied Europe while the existing military barracks provided infrastructure that could be adapted for concentration camp purposes The site s position in the newly annexed territories also aligned with Nazi plans for demographic restructuring and German colonization of Eastern Europe The initial construction and expansion of Auschwitz I the main camp began in May 1940 under the supervision of SS Oberf hrer Rudolf H ss who would become the camp s first and longest serving commandant The early inmates were primarily Polish political prisoners intellectuals and resistance members reflecting the Nazi strategy of eliminating potential opposition leadership in occupied territories These initial prisoners were forced to construct the camp infrastructure that would later facilitate mass murder working under brutal conditions that claimed thousands of lives even before the implementation of systematic extermination Beyond Auschwitz

Ethics, Art, and Representations of the Holocaust Simone Gigliotti, Jacob Golomb, Caroline Steinberg Gould, 2013-11-22 The American Jewish philosopher Berel Lang has left an indelible impression on an unusually broad range of fields that few scholars can rival From his earliest innovations in philosophy and meta philosophy to his ground breaking work on representation historical writing and art after Auschwitz he has contributed original and penetrating insights to the philosophical literary and historical debates on ethics art and the representation of the Nazi Genocide In honor of Berel Lang s five decades of scholarly and philosophical contributions the editors of Ethics Art and Representations of the Holocaust invited seventeen eminent scholars from around the world to discuss Lang s impact on their own research and to reflect on how the Nazi genocide continues to resonate in contemporary debates about antisemitism commemoration and poetic representations Resisting what Alvin Rosenfeld warned as the end of the Holocaust the essays in this collection signal the Holocaust as an event without closure of enduring resonance to new generations of scholars of genocide Jewish studies and philosophy Readers will find original and provocative essays on topics as diverse as Nietzsche s reputed Nazi leanings Jewish anti apartheid activists in South Africa wartime rescue in Poland philosophical responses to the Holocaust hidden diaries in the Kovno Ghetto and analyses of reactions to trauma in classic literary works by Bernhard Schlink Sylvia Plath and Derek Walcott     Post-Holocaust Religious Education for German Women Gabriele Mayer, 2003 After beginning with the problem of the inability of German postwar generations to relate to the Holocaust focuses on ways German Christian women can learn to acknowledge German women s share of responsibility for Nazi crimes against the Jews i e women s role as part of the perpetrator nation Explores ways German women have been encouraged to try to integrate knowledge of this past into their identity formation and internalize post Holocaust theology into their own views and lives Notes ways that Holocaust studies and women s studies can combine to move German Christian women from complacency and individualism to involvement in tikkun olam that includes existential encounters with members of the victim nation     Writing the Holocaust Jean-Marc Dreyfus, Daniel Langton, 2011-09-01 Writing the Holocaust provides students and teachers with an accessibly written overview of the key themes and major theoretical developments which continue to inform the nature of historical writing on the Holocaust Holocaust studies is at a paradox while historians of the Holocaust defend it as a legitimate and well defined area of research they write against a complex political and ideological background that undermines any claim for it as a normative field of historical study Writing the Holocaust offers a lucid enquiry into this complex field by demonstrating the impact of current theories from the humanities and social sciences upon the treatment of Holocaust studies     The

David Cesarani, Sarah Kavanaugh, 2004 The Holocaust and the Nonrepresentable David Patterson, 2018-05-22 Many books focus on issues of Holocaust representation but few address why the Holocaust in particular poses such a representational problem David Patterson draws from Emmanuel Levinas's contention that the Good cannot be represented He argues that the assault on the Good is equally nonrepresentable and this nonrepresentable aspect of the Holocaust is its distinguishing feature Utilizing Jewish religious thought Patterson examines how the literary word expresses the ineffable and how the photographic image manifests the invisible Where the Holocaust is concerned representation is a matter not of imagination but of ethical implication not of what it was like but of what must be done Ultimately Patterson provides a deeper understanding of why the Holocaust itself is indefinable not only as an evil but also as a fundamental assault on the very categories of good and evil affirmed over centuries of Jewish teaching and testimony Holocaust: 3 in 1

Silence and the Word Oliver Davies,Denys Turner,2002-08-15 Negative theology or apophasis the idea that God is best identified in terms of absence otherness difference has been influential in modern Christian thought resonating as it does with secular notions of negation developed in continental philosophy Apophasis also has a strong intellectual history dating back to the early Church Fathers Silence and the Word both studies the history of apophasis and examines its relationship with contemporary secular philosophy Leading Christian thinkers explore in their own way the extent to which the concept of the apophatic illumines some of the deepest doctrinal structures of Christian faith and of Christian self understanding both in terms of its historical and contemporary situatedness showing how a dimension of negativity has characterised not only traditional mysticism but most forms of Christian thought over the years
