Facing Up:

Facing up to the History of Emotions Stephanie Downes, Stephanie Trigg, 2023-12-26 This book brings together several strands of medieval and medievalist work in the history of emotions with a focus on literary historical and cinema studies It asks how we may best face up to work that has been done already in these fields and speculates about work that might yet be done especially by medievalists working across medieval and postmedieval sources In the idiom facing up its editors evoke the impulse to assess and realize the place of medieval studies in the burgeoning field of emotions research Conceptually psychologically and artistically the face is perceived as being at the forefront of many human interactions and emotional practices as such the face is not only a powerful conceptual site for theorizing human relationships past and present or a site for the representation of emotion it is itself a catalyst for feeling As such the contributions gathered here provide a cutting edge reflection on the history of medieval emotions
