Sager,2010-01-15 During the 2000 presidential campaign George W Bush made faith based social services one of the centerpieces of his domestic agenda These faith based initiatives supporters argued would reduce poverty ease the strain on an overburdened welfare system and prove more effective than government programs Opponents feared rampant proselytizing with government funds Instead these practices created a system in which neither the greatest hopes of its supporters nor the greatest fears of its opponents have been realized The product of five years of in depth research Rebecca Sager s Faith Politics and Power offers a systematic examination of where and how these programs were implemented arguing that faith based initiatives strayed from supporters original aim of helping the poor and instead were used as tools to gain political power by the Republican Party and the conservative evangelical movement Faith, Power, and Responsibility

Lancar Ida-Bagus,2024-08-24 The non religious Vishnuh Society offers a unique perspective on faith power and politics It is critical of these concepts and offers an alternative view that differs from traditional religious and political structures The Society emphasizes the importance of self determination individual freedom and critical thinking Faith The Vishnuh Society views faith as the blind acceptance of religious dogmas that keep humanity backward and stupid It promotes a spiritual practice based on cruelty ruthlessness injustice war and genocide which encourages various forms of human rights violations Power In the context of the Vishnuh Society power is viewed as something that must not be abused Instead power should be used responsibly to promote the well being of all The Society rejects authoritarian structures and emphasizes the importance of transparency responsibility and ethical action Politics Politically the Vishnuh Society takes a stance of independence and critical thinking Faith in God
