The Web of Preaching Richard L. Eslinger, 2002-08-01

Preaching is not as simple as it may appear. The preacher today is confronted with a dizzying array of homiletic methods and approaches, each holding important insights into how to proclaim the Good News. While pastors wish to learn from these different ways of preaching, they often do not know where to begin. Who are the best representatives of a given approach? How do the different methods relate to one another? How has the preaching scene changed in recent years? In The Web of Preaching, Richard Eslinger addresses these and other questions about contemporary approaches to preaching. Surveying the most important current theories of preaching, he argues that no homiletic method can be understood on its own. The different schools of thought on preaching all intersect at such common points as Scripture narrative and the role of preaching in worship. A strength in one compensates for a weakness in another, and seen together they form one comprehensive web of preaching. This book is a follow-up to Eslinger's earlier A New Hearing, which has been a standard text in preaching courses since its publication in 1987.

The Eyes of Faith Ormond Rush, 2009 Winner of the 2010 Lynlea Rodger Australia

Theological Form ATF Press Theological Book Prize. The Eyes of Faith presents a systematic theology of the sense of the faithful, sensus fidelium, and shows the fundamental and necessary interrelationship between sensus fidelium, tradition, Scripture, theology, and the magisterium. Ormond Rush provides fresh perspectives on a number of issues. He proposes that tradition and Scripture are the products of the sensus fidelium and that the inspiration of Scripture is best understood in terms of the Holy Spirit working through the sensus fidelium. In addressing the role of the sensus fidei in the lives of individual believers, the book provides a unique approach to the way Christians make sense of their faith within the diverse contexts of daily life. It shows how the imaginative capacity of the sensus fidei forms a foundational notion for understanding the diversity of spiritualities, inculturations, and contextualizations of the Gospel in the history of the church up to the present. This ecclesial activity of interpreting the Christ event through the sensus fidelium enables the church to proclaim the Gospel in new times and cultures throughout history. The Eyes of Faith proposes that for an effective teaching of the faith to contemporary Christians, the distinctive roles of the magisterium and of theology must be conceived primarily in terms of and in relationship to the ecclesial Spirit, given capacity of the sensus fidelium. ABOUT THE AUTHOR Ormond Rush is lecturer of theology and former president of St Paul's Theological College in Banyo, Australia, and is president of the Australian Catholic Theological Association. He is the author of Still Interpreting Vatican II: Some Hermeneutical Principles and The Reception of Doctrine: An Appropriation of Hans Robert Jauss' Reception Aesthetics and Literary Hermeneutics. PRAISE FOR THE BOOK In addition to its internal argumentation, the book's extensive footnotes, Scriptural references, and Church documents will make it a tremendously valuable tool for advanced researchers in several theological areas, including pneumatology, ecclesiology, Scripture studies, and hermeneutics. Highly recommended. C. A. Monteverchio, Choice. Some works of scholarship stand out.

providing a point of reference and showing the way forward Orm Rush's study is in this class and it is not surprising that its first release by CUA Press is a splendid hardback volume This work makes a significant contribution to Catholic Theology Rev John Thornhill SM The Australasian Catholic Record Rush provides a theologically perceptive panorama of the sensus fidelium at work in the church under the guidance of the Holy Spirit In addition to offering numerous insights usually beneficial and sometimes provocative Rush's study is extraordinarily well researched This volume is an outstandingly creative and comprehensive theological study of the grace of the Holy Spirit acting through the sensus fidelium in the reception of revelation in the church John Ford CSC Theological Studies Rush has here provided us with a sophisticated study of theological hermeneutics as well as a foundational work in ecclesiology Lawrence S Cunningham Commonweal This detailed and well argued book explores the phenomenon of reception in both the Bible and in contemporary Roman Catholic tradition An insightful study for those interested in the newest wave of Roman Catholic dogmatic theology which tends to draw deeply from biblical sources as well as Vatican teaching this book genuinely advances discussions of the doctrine of reception Aaron Klink Religious Studies Review

The Aesthetics of Discipleship Adrian Coates, 2021-09-30 Discipleship is embodied Formation in the Christian life is not an otherworldly exercise but one that plays out in this world interwoven with everyday sensory experience in ordinary life The Aesthetics of Discipleship explores this dynamic through Kierkegaard's framing of aesthetic existence the sensory experience of being in the moment further developed by Bonhoeffer as operating within a realm of freedom encompassing not only art but play friendship and cultural formation In addition to Kierkegaard and Bonhoeffer the work of Iain McGilchrist Graham Ward and Nicholas Wolterstorff is employed to offer a fresh perspective on discipleship from below Everyday sensory experiences are integral not only to being human but to the practice of discipleship such that discipleship integrates aesthetic ethical and religious existence Aesthetic existence unhinged from a life of faith or fueled by distorted Christendom creates and sustains aestheticized pseudorealities centered on the self Mature aesthetic existence however anchored in love for God plays a fundamental role in the Christian life both as the incarnational celebration of being fully human and also through the preconscious formation of imaginaries by which we live Hermeneutics and Social Transformation pathways to the future Theology as Retrieval W. David Buschart, Kent Eilers, 2015-04-15 Buschart and Eilers identify six critical areas Scripture theology worship spirituality mission and culture where contemporary Christians are retrieving aspects of our Christian past for life and thought today The result is a fascinating tour and wise reflection on how Christians might receive employ and transmit the treasures of their past Marking the Church Greg Peters, Matt Jenson, 2016-12-09 More than one person has joked over the years that Evangelical believers do not have an ecclesiology In one sense that is absurd Evangelical churches especially if you include Pentecostals in that group are some of the fastest growing most vibrant churches in the world Evangelicals are proclaiming the gospel praising the Lord reading the Bible and loving the poor But there is a case to be made that the Evangelical devotion to the mission of the church has left Evangelicals with little time to reflect on the church itself In this collection of essays first given at annual meetings of the Evangelical Theological Society the authors take time to reflect on the nature of the church in an Evangelical context asking after the way in which it is one holy catholic and apostolic Imagination in Religion LIT Verlag, 2021-01-07 Religion would be impossible without imagination Imagination provides content that otherwise escapes discourse and perception Thus it opens up a productive realm for creative involvement that keeps religion from sinking into trivialities or abstractions The contributions in the present volume explore in various ways potentialities and problems linked to imagination s role in the context of religion The book challenges readers to think again and think differently about imagination in religion which in itself involves the power of imagination The book opens up fresh perspectives on the interactive dynamics between imagination and various faculties or dimensions of life Imagination might be involved in thinking perceiving contemplation and in practices The contributors to the volume are all members of the Nordic Society for the Philosophy of Religion Espen Dahl Professor of Systematic Theology The Arctic University of Norway Troms Jan Olav Henriksen Professor of Philosophy of Religion MF Norwegian School of Theology Religion and Society Oslo Marius T Mjaaland Professor of Philosophy of Religion Faculty of Theology University of Oslo Norway Theology of the Old Testament Walter Brueggemann, 2012-06-01 In this powerful book Walter Brueggemann moves the discussion of Old Testament theology beyond the dominant models of previous generations Brueggemann focuses on the metaphor and imagery of the courtroom trial in order to regard the theological substance of the Old Testament as a series of claims asserted for Yahweh the God of Israel This provides a context that attends to pluralism in every dimension of the interpretive process and suggests links to the plurality of voices of our time The Harvard Monthly, 1900 A Theology of Nonsense Josephine Gabelman, 2017-10-26 There is within all theological utterances something of the ridiculous perhaps more so in Christianity given its proclivity for the paradoxical and the childlike Few theologians are willing to discuss how consent to the Christian doctrine often requires a faith that goes beyond reason There seems to be a fear that the association of theology with the absurd will give fuel to the sceptic s refrain You can t seriously believe in all that nonsense Josephine Gabelman considers the legitimacy of the sceptic s objection and explores the possibility that an idea can be contrary to rationality and also true and meaningful using the systematic analysis of central stylistic features of literary non sense such as Lewis Carroll s Alice stories Gabelman sets up a nonsense theology by considering the practical and evangelical ramifications of associating Christian faith with nonsense literature and conversely the value of relating theological principles to the study of literary nonsense Ultimately Gabelman says faith is always a risk and a strictly rational apologetic misrepresents the nature of Christian truth The God Who Plays Brian Edgar,2017-12-20 Many people would be surprised to hear that a playful attitude towards God and the world lies at the heart of Christian faith Traditionally Christians have focused on the serious responsibilities of service sacrifice and commitment But the prophets say that the future kingdom is full of people laughing and playing which has implications for Christians who are called to live out the future kingdom in the present Play is not trivial or secondary to work and service only a playful way of living does justice to the seriousness of life Play is the essential and ultimate form of relationship with God which is why Jesus told people to learn from children Indeed a playful attitude is an important part of all significant relationships This book explores grace faith love worship redemption and the kingdom from the perspective of a playful attitude It describes how to create a play ethic to match the work ethic and discusses play as a virtue Aquinas s warning against the sin of not playing enough and Bonhoeffer s claim that in a world of pain it is only the Christian who can truly play Imagination and Fantasy in the Middle Ages and Early Modern Time Albrecht Classen,2020-08-24 The notions of other peoples cultures and natural conditions have always been determined by the epistemology of imagination and fantasy providing much freedom and creativity and yet have also created much fear anxiety and horror In this regard the pre modern world demonstrates striking parallels with our own insofar as the projections of alterity might be different by degrees but they are fundamentally the same by content Dreams illusions projections concepts hopes utopias dystopias desires and emotional attachments are as specific and impactful as the physical environment This volume thus sheds important light on the various lenses used by people in the Middle Ages and the early modern age as to how they came to terms with their perceptions images and notions Previous scholarship focused heavily on the history of mentality and history of emotions whereas here the history of pre modern imagination and fantasy assumes center position Imaginary things are taken seriously because medieval and early modern writers and artists clearly reveal their great significance in their works and their daily lives This approach facilitates a new deep structure analysis of pre modern culture Post-Christian Religion in Popular Culture Andrew D. Thrasher,2024-09-05 Post Christian Religion in Popular Culture Theology through Exegesis analyzes several theological exegeses of contemporary popular culture as post Christian scripture It includes analyses of the Marvel Cinematic Universe The Lion King and Cloud Atlas the television shows Lucifer and Shameless and contemporary pop punk and alternative music Through an application of three hermeneutical methods re enchantment resourcement and rescription a prophetic and apocalyptic critique of modernity and an analysis of the late modern human condition Andrew D Thrasher argues how popular culture recites post Christian religious and theological messages marked by a post disenchantment theology constituted by the consumption of these messages shapes and informs what the contemporary world finds believable credible and desirable in a post Christian context The Bloomsbury Handbook of the Cultural and Cognitive Aesthetics of Religion Anne Koch, Katharina Wilkens, 2019-09-05

Bridging the gap between cognition and culture this handbook explores both social scientific and humanities approaches to understanding the physical processes of religious life tradition practice and belief It reflects the cultural turn within the study of religion and puts theory to the fore moving beyond traditional theological philosophical and ethnographic understandings of the aesthetics of religion Editors Anne Koch and Katharina Wilkens bring together research in cultural studies cognitive studies material religion religion and the arts and epistemology Questions of identity gender ethnicity and postcolonialism are discussed throughout Key topics include materiality embodiment performance popular vernacular art and space to move beyond a sensory understanding of aesthetics Emerging areas of research are covered including secular aesthetics and the aesthetic of spirits This is an important contribution to theory and method in the study of religion and is grounded in research that has been taking place in Europe over the past 20 years Case studies are drawn from around the world with contributions from scholars based in Europe the USA and Australia The book is illustrated with over 40 color images and features a foreword from Birgit Meyer

The Rehabilitation of Virtue Robert T. Sandin, 1992-05-30 This book proposes an approach to values education centered on an analysis of the relationship between thinking and valuing and focused on strategies for nurturing the capacity for sustained disciplined and informed reflection on the issues of moral decision and religious belief Robert T Sandin contends that there is an urgent need for education at the present time to effect a return to the traditional ideals of intellectual and moral virtue Supporting observations include recent evaluations of values education in American schools and colleges a review of several well known theories of values related education and an account of the development of the philosophy of value in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Sandin is committed to the concept that virtue is compatible with the ideals of learning and further demonstrates why the role of religion in modern culture depends on the effectiveness of a program of education that nurtures an authentic spirituality free from illusion
