Gaiasophy The Wisdom Of The Living Earth An Approach To Ecology:

Gaiasophy Kees Zoeteman, B. C. J. Zoeteman, 1991 Zoeteman draws on practical experience married to a study of ancient myths and spiritual traditions regarding the earth's origins and contemporary spiritual science. He argues that not until we understand the spiritual as well as the physical anatomy of the earth as a living being or organism shall we be able to address the vital environmental and social issues posed by the ecological crisis. On the basis of the most varied scientific and spiritual sources, Zoeteman presents an evolutionary cosmology of the living being Earth. He proposes that the earth is truly alive: the forests and grasslands as the respiratory system, the waters as the circulatory system, etc.

Environmental Issues and Sustainable Futures Michael Marien, 1996 Religious Pilgrimage Routes and Trails Daniel H. Olsen, Anna Trono, 2018-05-30 For millennia people have travelled to religious sites for worship, initiatory and leisure purposes. Today there are hundreds if not thousands of religious pilgrimage routes and trails around the world that are used by pilgrims as well as tourists. Indeed, many religious pilgrimage routes and trails are today used as themes by tourism marketers in an effort to promote regional economic development. An important resource for those interested in religious tourism and pilgrimage, this book is also an invaluable collection for academics and policy makers within heritage tourism and regional development.

Uprooting Geographic Thoughts in India Rana Singh, David Sopher, Oskar Spate, 2009-03-26 Under the cultural turn and transformation, the new intellectual discourses started in the 21st century to search the roots have cross-cultural comparison and to see how the old traditions be used in the contemporary worldviews. This book is the first attempt dealing with roots of Indian geographical thoughts since its beginning in 1920. It emphasises identity of India and Indianness and consciousness among dweller geographers in India, development and status of geography and its recent trends. Gaia theory and Indian context in search of cosmic integrity, ecospirituality and global message towards interrelatedness. Hindu pilgrimages and its contemporary importance. Mahatma Gandhi and his contribution to sustainable environmental development for global peace and humanism and new vision to see meeting grounds of the East and the West on the line of reconstruction and reconciliation in the globalising world. These essays are selective and thematic; therefore, overall view of comprehensiveness is lacking. But this book is not the end; obviously, it is a beginning as already other volumes in sequence and continuity are in progress. At the end, the lead essays representative of the three eras by Spate 1956, Sopher 1973 and Mukerji 1992 are reprinted with a view to assessing the relevance of their challenging message even today.

Facing the World with Soul Robert J. Sardello, 1992 All the organizing forms in modern life that ought to enrich life with beauty, purpose and depth no longer do so. We live in a troubled world itself in need of care. To heal ourselves and the world, Sardello claims we need to bring to birth a new imaginative consciousness that is fully awake and alive. Those aspects of life that challenge us: money, health, education, environment, nutrition, spirit, the city, addictions, technology are here illuminated by the powerful images that Sardello unfolds before our eyes.
