Sporting Blackness Samantha N. Sheppard, 2020-06-16 Sporting Blackness examines issues of race and representation in sports films, exploring what it means to embody, perform, play out, and contest blackness by representations of Black athletes on screen By presenting new critical terms, Sheppard analyzes not only skin in the game or how racial representation shapes the genre's imagery, but also skin in the genre or the formal consequences of blackness on the sport film genre's modes, codes, and conventions Through a rich interdisciplinary approach, Sheppard argues that representations of Black sporting bodies contain critical muscle memories embodied in kinesthetic and cinematic histories that go beyond a film's plot to index, circulate, and reproduce broader narratives about Black sporting and non-sporting experiences in American society
