Ruodlieb ,2020-05-01 Considered the earliest courtly romance in Germany Ruodlieb is an invaluable document of eleventh century European society and a fascinating link in the development of the novel of chivalry

This edition by Edwin H Zeydel first published in 1959 with Latin text and the first English translation on facing pages is based upon painstaking study of the manuscripts with many fragmentary lines completed and 450 corrections of Langosch's text. Zeydel's introduction to the history of the text and appendices with literary commentary and textual notes make this the first critical edition of Ruodlieb utilizing the manuscript to appear since Seiler's work in 1882. A Tough Guy's Guide To Living Single, Lesson Book Lsm, 1990-06 Lessons on Aging and Dying Ronald J. Pelias, 2020-12-07 Lessons in Aging and Dying A Poetic Autoethnography captures the experience of being elderly and facing the end of life. The book presents a collection of poems about life's end accompanied with narrative commentary. Organized as 73 lessons they can be read as personal curiosities, momentary realizations, farcical departures, embarrassing fears, therapeutic encounters, experiential truths, hopeful conjectures, and inevitable destinations. This book is a poetic inquiry that calls upon the lyrical in narrative and poetic forms to enter its subject. It also is an autoethnography that examines culture through the deployment of the self. Framed by introductory and concluding remarks, the book is organized around three developmental stages. The initial pages, Beginnings, recognize the author's birth into the end, a time when he knew he had arrived at a place beyond middle age. The middle unit, From Here to There, displays an unsettled settling in driven by an ongoing tension between resistance and acquiescence. It serves as a transitional stage into Endings, the final section that anticipates death's imminent arrival and speculates about how the author might meet his end. Together, these units provide opportunities for identification, speculation, and resistance. Published as part of the prestigious autoethnographic series Writing Lives: Ethnographic and Autoethnographic Narratives and written by one of the foremost academics in the fields of communication and performance studies, this text is particularly suitable for students and researchers in subjects such as relational and family communication, gerontology, and end of life care and performance studies.

The Elocutionist's Journal, 1877 Of Fathers & Sons Geoffrey Jones, 2005-02 Of Fathers Sons reveals the hidden story of a middle-aged man and the relationship he shared with his father over the course of their lifetime together. It is at once touching and heart-breaking to consider the depth of the feelings that each man held for the other. It is in the expression of these emotions that the friction and the challenges and the joys of fathers and sons are clearly exposed to view. Men have feelings. More often than not, men are discouraged from expressing them. Of Fathers Sons is an important commentary on the state of maleness in the modern world as seen uniquely through the eyes of fathers and sons. Nine Years of an Actor's Life
