Rhodes, 2015-09-03 Drive in movie theaters and the horror films shown at them during the 1950s 60s and early 70s may be somewhat outdated but they continue to enthrall movie buffs today More than just fodder for the satirical cannons of Joe Bob Briggs and Mystery Science Theatre 3000 they appeal to knowledgeable fans and film scholars who understand their influence on American popular culture This book is a collection of eighteen essays by various scholars on the classic drive in horror film experience Those in Section One emphasize the roles of the drive in theater in the United States and its cultural cousin Australia Section Two examines how horror operated at the drive in the rhetoric used in coming attraction trailers horror film premieres at drive ins double features and the preproduction production and marketing of Last House on the Left Section Three addresses the effects of the Vietnam War and counter culture on The Texas Chainsaw Massacre and the Cold War on Cat Women of the Moon Section Four explores gender issues and sexuality two of the most common and most important subjects of horror film analysis Section Five covers drive in culture via Hush Hush Sweet Charlotte 2000 Maniacs and the films of Mario Bava Section Six investigates a variety of issues such as the drive in horror film s embrace of DNA the use of cinematic form to create a non Hollywood look in Wizard of Gore and the many different prints and running times of I Drink Your Blood

The South Never Plays Itself
Ben Beard,2020-12-15 Since Birth of a Nation became the first Hollywood blockbuster in 1915 movies have struggled to reckon with the American South as both a place and an idea a reality and a romance a lived experience and a bitter legacy Nearly every major American filmmaker actor and screenwriter has worked on a film about the South from Gone with the Wind to 12 Years a Slave from Deliverance to Forrest Gump In The South Never Plays Itself author and film critic Ben Beard explores the history of the Deep South on screen beginning with silent cinema and ending in the streaming era from President Wilson to President Trump from musical to comedy to horror to crime to melodrama Beard s idiosyncratic narrative part cultural history part film criticism part memoir journeys through genres and eras issues and regions smash blockbusters and microbudget indies to explore America s past and troubled present seen through Hollywood s distorting lens Opinionated obsessive sweeping often combative sometimes funny a wild narrative tumble into culture both high and low Beard attempts to answer the haunting question what do movies know about the South that we don t

Women, Monstrosity and Horror Film
Erin Harrington,2017-08-10 Women occupy a privileged place in horror film Horror is a space of entertainment and excitement of terror and dread and one that relishes the complexities that arise when boundaries of taste of bodies of reason are blurred and dismantled It is also a site of expression and exploration that leverages the narrative and aesthetic horrors of the reproductive the maternal and the sexual to expose the underpinnings of the social political and philosophical othering of women This book offers an in depth analysis of women in horror films through an exploration of gynaehorror films concerned with all aspects of female reproductive horror from reproductive and sexual organs to virginity pregnancy birth motherhood and finally to menopause Some of the themes explored include the intersection of horror monstrosity and sexual difference the relationships between normative female hetero sexuality and the twin figures of the chaste virgin and the voracious vagina dentata embodiment and subjectivity in horror films about pregnancy and abortion reproductive technologies monstrosity and mad science the discursive construction and interrogation of monstrous motherhood and the relationships between menopause menstruation hagsploitation and abject barren bodies in horror The book not only offers a feminist interrogation of gynaehorror but also a counter reading of the gynaehorrific that both accounts for and opens up new spaces of productive radical and subversive monstrosity within a mode of representation and expression that has often been accused of being misogynistic It therefore makes a unique contribution to the study of women in horror film specifically while also providing new insights in the broader area of popular culture gender and film philosophy

That Thin, Wild Mercury Sound
Daryl Sanders,2018-10-02 That Thin Wild Mercury Sound is the definitive treatment of Bob Dylan s magnum opus Blonde on

Blonde not only providing the most extensive account of the sessions that produced the trailblazing album but also setting the record straight on much of the misinformation that has surrounded the story of how the masterpiece came to be made Including many new details and eyewitness accounts never before published as well as keen insight into the Nashville cats who helped Dylan reach rare artistic heights it explores the lasting impact of rock s first double album Based on exhaustive research and in depth interviews with the producer the session musicians studio personnel management personnel and others Daryl Sanders chronicles the road that took Dylan from New York to Nashville in search of that thin wild mercury sound As Dylan told Playboy in 1978 the closest he ever came to capturing that sound was during the Blonde on Blonde sessions where the voice of a generation was backed by musicians of the highest order Film Noir Light and Shadow Alain Silver,2023-12-12 Despite a glut of black and white filters the digital revolution in videography has all but abandoned the art science beauty and power of cinematic lighting that literally illuminated the Golden Age of motion pictures Film Noir Light and Shadow explores an era before CGI a time when every photon mattered and the lighting of a set served a grander purpose than simply rendering its subjects visible Edited by Alain Silver and James Ursini the duo behind numerous critically acclaimed studies of other aspects of noir this anthology presents a series of essays that examine the visual style of the filmmakers of cinema s classic period Some focus on individual pictures or directors others discuss elements of style or sub groups of movies within the movement All are sharply focused on what makes the noir phenomenon unique in American and global cinematic history Aside from highlighting the innovative work of its editors and their late colleague Robert Porfirio Film Noir Light and Shadow also shares its light with a bevy of contributors who have written and edited their own books on the subject a list of luminaries that includes Sheri Chinen Biesen Shannon Clute and Richard Edwards Julie Grossman Delphine Letort Robert Miklitsch R Barton Palmer Homer Pettey Marlisa Santos Imogen Sara Smith and Tony Williams As befits the topic this volume is lavishly illustrated with 500 images that capture the richness and breadth of the classic period s imagery making it an ideal companion for students of the genre film historians sprocket fiends and the retrospectively inclined Designing Hollywood Christian Esquevin,2023-08-29 Since the 1920s fashion has played a central role in Hollywood As the movie going population consisted largely of women studios made a concerted effort to attract a female audience by foregrounding fashion Magazines featured actresses like Jean Harlow and Joan Crawford bedecked in luxurious gowns selling their glamour as enthusiastically as the film itself Whereas actors and actresses previously wore their own clothing major studios hired costume designers and wardrobe staff to fabricate bespoke costumes for their film stars Designers from a variety of backgrounds including haute couture and art design were offered long term contracts to work on multiple movies Though their work typically went uncredited they were charged with creating an image for each star that would help define an actor both on and off screen The practice of working long term with a single studio disappeared when the studio system began unraveling in the 1950s By the 1970s studios had disbanded their wardrobe departments and auctioned off their costumes and props In Designing Hollywood Studio Wardrobe in the Golden Age Christian Esquevin showcases the designers who dressed Hollywood's stars from the late 1910s through the 1960s and the unique symbiosis they developed with their studios in creating iconic looks Studio by studio Esquevin details the careers of designers like Vera West who worked on Universal productions such as Phantom of the Opera 1925 Dracula 1931 and Bride of Frankenstein 1931 William Travilla the talent behind Marilyn Monroe's dresses in Gentleman Prefer Blondes 1953 and The Seven Year Itch 1955 and Walter Plunkett the Oscar winning designer for film classics like Gone with the Wind 1939 and An American in Paris 1951 Featuring black and white photographs of leading ladies in their iconic looks as well as captivating original color sketches Designing Hollywood takes the reader on a journey from drawing board to silver screen Catalog of Copyright Entries, Third Series, 1966 The record of each copyright registration listed in the Catalog includes a description of the work copyrighted and data relating to the copyright claim the name of the copyright claimant as given in the application for registration the copyright date the copyright registration number etc Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress.
