Faith by Aurality in China's Ethnic Borderland Ying Diao, 2023 Illuminates how voice faith and hearing become intertwined with technologies of sound reproduction and mobility amid the rapidly transforming religious landscape of China's ethnic borderland The twentieth century expansion of Protestantism among the upland peoples in the China Southeast Asia borderlands has catalyzed a profound sociocultural change in the region In Faith by Aurality in China's Ethnic Borderland Ying Diao finds important sonic evidence for this religious revolution in a rapidly transforming northwest Yunnan presenting a compelling account of China's minority Christian landscape and highlighting the importance of aurality in the peripheral peoples response to Christianity and other modernizing projects Diao documents a range of sounded religious practices by the Lisu an indigenous yet historically migratory people to examine how participatory music production circulation and consumption become integral to indigenous perception and experience of faith Weaving together evidence from multisite fieldwork archival records and audiovisual media Diao demonstrates nuanced understanding of people of faith at the margin one centered on the sensual and material dimensions of religion and on the intertwining of local agency and external hegemonic forces As the first full length ethnographic account of China s Christian minorities on a transnational scale to be published in English this book provides historical and contextual information that enriches anthropological ethnomusicological and historical scholarship on global Christianity ethnicity media and mobility while showing how sound can be an ambivalent but fruitful avenue through which ways of faith are constructed and remain fluid in a context where discussions and practices of religion are constrained
