others who keep something in their hearts to chime with the great spring music have the woods and waters all for their own for two joyful months from the time that the first snowy bloodroot has blossomed until the wild rose has faded and nature has no more to say In those two months there are two weeks the ones that usher in the May that bear the prize of all the year for glory the commonest trees wear green and silver then that would outshine a coronation robe and if a man has any of that prodigality of spirit which makes imagination he may hear the song of all the world      King Midas Upton Sinclair,2007-10
