Give Us This Day Charles Erlandson, 2011-08 Give Us This Day is a unique daily devotional commentary for the entire New Testament based on the ancient method called lectio divina Lectio divina or divine reading is the method used by the early church and countless Christians through the centuries to read the Scriptures to form and transform the soul more than merely to inform the mind Rather than writing a short devotional about a particular verse from a passage Give Us This Day deals in depth with entire passages and their contexts rather than selecting only certain portions of the New Testament to write about Fr Charles has written a devotional for each and every passage of the New Testament At the end of each day s devotional an appropriate Prayer is offered as well as Points for Further Reflection on the day s lesson Each devotional concludes with a suggested Resolution to put into effect what the Spirit has stirred up in the heart of the reader during the course of his reading meditation and prayer Matthew is the first volume of an eight volume series that will provide daily devotionals for every passage in the New Testament

The Holy Bible Covenant Christian Coalition, 2020-02-02 THE LSV IS FINALLY HERE A BRAND NEW LITERAL EASY TO READ TRANSLATION OF THE COMPLETE HOLY BIBLE BOTH OLD AND NEW TESTAMENTS This is the first edition of the LSV available for Google Play The LSV is published by Covenant Press the

publishing arm of the Covenant Christian Coalition A modern literal word for word formal equivalence English translation of the Holy Scriptures utilizing English word rearrangement when necessitated for readability The LSV is the most literal translation of The Holy Bible with significant improvement over previous literal translations including Robert Young's excellent Young's Literal Translation Preservation of verb tenses wherever possible Utilization of the transliterated Tetragrammaton in the Old Testament All uppercase LORD is used in the New Testament when a reference to YHWH is likely Removal of many Hebrew and Greek transliterations remember transliterations are generally not translations Unlike most translations justified typographic alignment consistent with the style of the original Hebrew Aramaic and Greek biblical autographs The ancient caesura mark is used for easy readability of poetic literature such as the Psalms Inclusion of the verses found in older English translations such as the King James Version KJV that are not found in many modern translations and inclusion of the alternative LXX Genesis chronology set next to the MT These are contained within bolded double brackets for distinction Capitalized pronouns and other nounal forms when referring to God Christ or the Holy Spirit References to the Messenger of the LORD are also capitalized when the subject appears to be a clear reference to God or the Messiah as found in translations such as the NKJV The goal of any good translation is to produce a readable text that preserves the original autographic meaning and comes as close as possible to translating word for word manuscripts that accurately represent the original writings It's with this goal in mind that the Literal Standard Version LSV was written a modern yet literal English translation based upon the most prolific texts the Masoretic Text MT for the Old Testament and the Textus Receptus TR and Majority Text M for the New However in certain specific instances other manuscript versions and text types are used where the evidence seems incontrovertible e.g. the LXX and DSS in the Hebrew and Aramaic the Alexandrian in the Greek ANOTHER TRANSLATION WHY There have been a slew of new English translations in the past half century which may cause some to wonder why the need for another The translators agree with the premise that different translations can serve different demographics and different reading levels to maximize exposure to God's word In this sense the LSV is not a competitor to other excellent translations but is complimentary As the most literal modern English translation the LSV is an excellent resource for deep and thoughtful Bible study and research essentially an interlinear in terms of word for word translation but arranged with English sentence structure

AN10 - Collection of Numbered Speeches Tomás Morales y Durán, 2024-03-31 The tenth book of the A guttara Nikāya the Collection of the Numbered Discourses of the Buddha collects 746 suttas or discourses whose subject matter is centered on groups of ten topics The most frequent are the eight components of the eightfold path expanded to ten and also ten components of ethics This book is especially thick because of the continuous repetitions upon repetitions with very slight variations The volume is also notable for including extensive content on monastic discipline As the most outstanding sutta we have AN 10.26 With K Fierce criticism of the Brahmanical meditation methods called kasinas which in early medieval times were included by Buddhaghosa in his entrance work to a famous Sinhalese monastery and which today some claim as effective methods of meditation within Buddhism The most interesting suttas in this volume are AN 10 6 Contemplation Perceiving without perceiving One of the most curious things one feels when entering current AN 10 14 Emotional Sterility Doubts about the Master cause emotional sterility AN 10 19 Abodes of the Noble Ones I When one stops searching AN 10 29 Kosala I Tremendous criticism of wrong practice AN 10 31 With Up li The reasons for the establishment of the monastic code AN 10 64 Faith On those who have entered the stream AN 10 65 Happiness I Family and friends who get together and annoy you AN 10 76 Three things A beautiful sutta on renunciations AN 10 92 Dangers Teaching on perishability and faith AN 10 108 Physicians Interesting sutta on physicians and the list of diseases known and treated with varying degrees of success This book does not contain false suttas In summary this time the arduous and exhaustive work of research and reconstruction in comparative linguistics has been especially dense and thick

Mystical Poems of Rumi Jalal al-Din Rumi, 2010-04-15 My verse resembles the bread of Egypt night passes over it and you cannot eat it any more Devour it the moment it is fresh before the dust settles upon it Its place is the warm climate of the heart in this world it dies of cold Like a fish it quivered for an instant on dry land another moment and you see it is cold Even if you eat it imagining it is fresh it is necessary to conjure up many images What you drink is really your own imagination it is no old tale my good man Jalal al Din Rumi 1207 73 legendary Persian Muslim poet theologian and mystic wrote poems acclaimed through the centuries for their powerful spiritual images and provocative content which often described Rumi s love for God in romantic or erotic terms His vast body of work includes more than three thousand lyrics and odes This volume includes four hundred poems selected by renowned Rumi scholar A J Arberry who provides here one of the most comprehensive and adept English translations of this enigmatic genius Mystical Poems is the definitive resource for anyone seeking an introduction to or an enriched understanding of one of the world s greatest poets Rumi is one of the world s greatest lyrical poets in any language as well as probably the most accessible and approachable representative of Islamic civilization for Western students James W Morris Oberlin College
