The messenger,
For three years intently we awaited his arrival
Watching very closely
The shore the pines and the stars.
Joined with the blade of the plough or the keel of the ship
We were searching for the first seed
That the primeval drama might start again.

We returned to our homes, crushed
Our limbs sick our mouth ravaged
From the taste of rust and brine.
When we awoke we journeyed Northwards, strangers;
Plunged into the mists,
By the fleckless wings of swans which wounded us.
In the winter nights—the strong East wind maddened us
In the summer we were lost in the agony of the day which could not die.

We brought back
These carvings of a humble art.

T. Tolley, 1985-10-15 The Charioteer , 2006 An annual review of modern Greek culture Brill's Companion to Classical Reception and Modern World Poetry , 2022-12-28 Brill's Companion to Classical Reception and Modern World Poetry explores the relations between antiquity and modernity from the angle of the reception of Graeco Roman antiquity in modern world poetry In an innovative combination of the fields of Classical Reception and World Literature it tackles ever challenging questions which are central to both fields such as the questions of literature and identity specificity and universality Eurocentrism poetics and translation Leading experts from both Classics and Modern Languages contribute 11 chapters on modern poetry and poets from different linguistic and cultural traditions from around the world Grand Street , 1986 The Shade of Homer David Ricks, 1989-11-30 In exploring the significance of Homer for the poetry of modern Greece benign shade or looming shadow Dr Ricks is tackling a theme that has implications for the study of poetic influence in general In this 1989 book he takes the work of Sikelianos Cavafy and Seferis and subjects a selection of poems to a careful scrutiny These poems are not imitations of Homer but fresh engagements with Homeric themes and comparison of the modern versions with the original is found to be illuminating for the poets methods of composition Dr Ricks does not lose sight of the larger significance of his subject and modern poets from outside Greece Eliot and Pound in particular find their way into the discussion All Greek is translated and the reader has no need to be a specialist in modern or in ancient Greek to find this study absorbing and instructive including Americana banned paranormal and mystery this guide discusses identifying and grading books and provides collectors with details for identifying and assessing books in 8 000 listings Modern Poetry in Translation ,2003 From the Elephant's Back Lawrence Durrell,2015-08-16 Rare and previously unpublished essays and letters showcasing Durrell's wit elegance philosophy joie de vivre and flaming intelligence The Irish Times The proverb says that whoever sees the world from the back of an elephant learns the secrets of the jungle and becomes a seer I had to be content to become a poet Lawrence Durrell Best known for his novels and travel writing Lawrence Durrell defied easy classification within twentieth century Modernism His anti authoritarian tendencies put him at odds with many contemporaries aesthetically and politically However thanks to a compelling recontextualization by editor James Gifford these thirty eight previously unpublished and out of print essays and letters reveal that Durrell's maturation as an artist was rich complex and subtle Durrell fans will treasure this selection of rare nonfiction while scholars of Durrell Modernist literature anti authoritarian artists and the Personalist movement will also appreciate Gifford's fine editorial work Gifford's scholarly command of the archives shows especially his working intimacy with the unpublished archived words of Durrell's editors publishers and collaborators I have no doubt that this collection will serve as a starting point for any number of new critical ventures into the life and writing of Lawrence Durrell Charles Sligh University of Tennessee at Chattanooga
