used to live for he had a notion to find out whether things were going on nowadays as they one time did By and by he came to a cross road and who should he see sitting there but Ill Luck himself Ill Luck s face was as gray as ashes and his hair as white as snow for he is as old as Grandfather Adam and two great wings grew out of his shoulders for he flies fast and comes quickly to those whom he visits does Ill Luck Now St Nicholas had a pocketful of hazel nuts which he kept cracking and eating as he trudged along the road and just then he came upon one with a worm hole in it When he saw Ill Luck it came into his head to do a good turn to poor sorrowful man Good morning Ill Luck says he Good morning St Nicholas says Ill Luck You look as hale and strong as ever says St Nicholas Ah yes says Ill Luck I find plenty to do in this world of woe They tell me says St Nicholas that you can go wherever you choose even if it be through a key hole now is that so Yes says Ill Luck it is Well look now friend says St Nicholas could you go into this hazel nut if you chose to Yes says Ill Luck I could indeed I should like to see you says St Nicholas for then I should be of a mind to believe what people say of you Well says Ill Luck I have not much time to be pottering and playing upon Jack s fiddle but to oblige an old friend thereupon he made himself small and smaller and phst he was in the nut before you could wink Then what do you think St Nicholas did In his hand he held a little plug of wood and no sooner had Ill Luck entered the nut than he stuck the plug in the hole and there was man s enemy as tight as fly in a bottle So says St Nicholas that s a piece of work well done Then he tossed the hazel nut under the roots of an oak tree near by and went his way And that is how this story begins Well the hazel nut lay and lay and lay and all the time that it lay there nobody met with ill luck but one day who should come travelling that way but a rogue of a Fiddler with his fiddle under his arm The day was warm and he was tired so down he sat under the shade of the oak tree to rest his legs By and by he heard a little shrill voice piping and crying Let me out let me out let me out The Fiddler looked up and down but he could see nobody Who are you says he I am Ill Luck Let me out let me out Let you out says the Fiddler Not I if you are bottled up here it is the better for all of us and so saying he tucked his fiddle under his arm and off he marched But before he had gone six steps he stopped He was one of your peering prying sort and liked more than a little to know all that was to be known about this or that or the other thing that he chanced to see or hear I wonder where Ill Luck can be to be in such a tight place as he seems to be caught in says he to himself and back he came again Where are you Ill Luck says he Here I am says Ill Luck here in this hazel nut under the roots of the oak tree Thereupon the Fiddler laid aside his fiddle and bow and fell to poking and prying under the roots until he found the nut Then he began twisting and turning it in his fingers looking first on one side and then on the other and all the while Ill Luck kept crying Let me out let me out It was not long before the Fiddler found the little wooden plug and then nothing would do but he must take a peep inside the nut to see if Ill Luck was really there So he picked and pulled at the wooden plug until at last out it came and phst pop out came Ill Luck along with it Plague take the Fiddler say I Listen says Ill Luck It has been many a long day that I have been in that hazel nut and you are the man that has let me out for once in a way I will do a good turn to a poor human body Therewith and without giving the Fiddler time to

He spoke a word and Ill Luck caught him up by the belt and whiz away he flew like a bullet over hill and over valley over moor and over mountain so fast that not enough wind was left in the Fiddler's stomach to say Bo By and by he came to a garden and there he let the Fiddler drop on the soft grass below Then away he flew to attend to other matters of greater need When the Fiddler had gathered his wits together and himself to his feet he saw that he lay in a beautiful garden of flowers and fruit trees and marble walks and what not and that at the end of it stood a great splendid house all built of white marble with a fountain in front and peacocks strutting about on the lawn Well the Fiddler smoothed down his hair and brushed his clothes a bit and off he went to see what was to be seen at the grand house at the end of the garden He entered the door and nobody said no to him Then he passed through one room after another and each was finer than the one he left behind Many servants stood around but they only bowed and never asked whence he came At last he came to a room where a little old man sat at a table The table was spread with a feast that smelled so good that it brought tears to the Fiddler's eyes and water to his mouth and all the plates were of pure gold The little old man sat alone but another place was spread as though he were expecting some one As the Fiddler came in the little old man nodded and smiled Welcome he cried and have you come at last
