Kings, Queens, Knights, & Jesters Lynn Edelman Schnurnberger, 1978 Instructions for making medieval costumes such as king monk knight peasant and minstrel with facts about the medieval period Kings, Queens, Knights, & Jesters Lynn Edelman Schnurnberger, 1978 Instructions for making medieval costumes such as king monk knight peasant and minstrel with facts about the medieval period Inventing a Classroom Kathryn F. Whitmore, Caryl G. Crowell, 1994 What are the patterns of teaching and learning that make a classroom holistic How do children invent oral and written language How do they create the culture and curriculum of a classroom How does the spirit of community and collaboration develop among children and teachers What are the relationships between literacy schooling and socialization as they form among the children These are a few of the broad questions that Kathy Whitmore and Caryl Crowell answer in this absorbing portrait of Caryl's third grade classroom the Sunshine Room Over the span of a school year we watch the students in this bicultural classroom within a bilingual working class neighborhood work and develop together as a community of learners It is the story of how the Sunshine Room like many whole language classrooms invents itself and how in this process the children themselves are continually inventing oral and written language culture and curriculum In two separate collaborative voices the authors carry readers through several critical events in the life of the classroom the process through which the children and the teachers negotiate the curriculum the creation of a theme study about the Middle Ages and a vicarious experience of the Middle East war through children's literature and discussions On an individual level the deep friendship between Seaaira an English speaking child from the volunteer community and Lolita a bilingual Latina from the barrio is symbolic of the bicultural experience fostered in the Sunshine Room The Art of Renaissance Europe Bosiljka Raditsa, 2000 Works in the Museum's collection that embody the Renaissance interest in classical learning fame and beautiful objects are illustrated and discussed in this resource and will help educators introduce the richness and diversity of Renaissance art to their students Primary source texts explore the great cities and powerful personalities of the age By studying gesture and narrative students can work as Renaissance artists did when they created paintings and drawings Learning about perspective students explore the era's interest in science and mathematics Through projects based on poetic forms of the time students write about their responses to art The activities and lesson plans are designed for a variety of classroom needs and can be adapted to a specific curriculum as well as used for independent study The resource also includes a bibliography and glossary Cutting for All! Kevin L. Seligman, 1996 Containing 2 729 entries Kevin L. Seligman's bibliography concentrates on books manuals journals and catalogs covering a wide range of sartorial approaches over nearly five hundred years After a historical overview Seligman approaches his subject chronologically listing items by century through 1799 then by decade In this section he deals with works on flat patterning draping grading and tailoring techniques as well as on such related topics as accessories armor civil costumes clerical costumes dressmakers systems fur gloves leather military uniforms and undergarments Seligman then devotes a section to those American and English journals published for the professional tailor and dressmaker Here too he includes the related areas of fur and undergarments A section devoted to journal articles features selected articles from costume and noncostumerelated professional journals and periodicals The author breaks these articles down into three categories American English and other Seligman then devotes separate sections to other related areas providing alphabetical listings of books and professional journals for costume and dance dolls folk and national dress footwear millinery and wigmaking and hair A section devoted to commercial pattern companies periodicals and catalogs is followed by an appendix covering pattern companies publishers and publications In addition to full bibliographic notation Seligman provides a library call number and library location if that information is available The majority of the listings are annotated Each listing is coded for identification and cross referencing An author index a title index a subject index and a chronological index will guide readers to the material they want Seligman s historical review of the development of publications on the sartorial arts professional journals and the commercial paper pattern industry puts the bibliographical material into context An appendix provides a cross reference guide for research on American and English pattern companies publishers and publications Given the size and scope of the bibliography there is no other reference work even remotely like it
