Hays,1991-03-04 An overview of scholarly research both published and previously unpublished on the history of a city that has often served as a case study for measuring social change It synthesizes the literature and assesses how that knowledge relates to our broader understanding of the processes of urbanization and urbanism This book is especially useful for undergraduate and graduate courses on environmental politics and policy making or as a supplement for courses on public policy making generally      Kingsley House Record Kingsley House Association,Kingsley House Association of Pittsburg,2015-09-15 This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work was reproduced from the original artifact and remains as true to the original work as possible Therefore you will see the original copyright references library stamps as most of these works have been housed in our most important libraries around the world and other notations in the work This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work As a reproduction of a historical artifact this work may contain missing or blurred pages poor pictures errant marks etc Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant      Outlook and Independent ,1901      Hope Bernard Warach,2011-05-20 Without hope there is nothing As the child of young poor Polish immigrant parents who lived on the Lower East Side of New York Bernard

Warach grew up celebrating a life of freedom in America despite facing seemingly insurmountable odds during an incredibly challenging time in America This is his story Bernard suffered an attack of poliomyelitis at the age of three that left him with a withered left leg and diminished strength even so he went on to lead a vigorous life With great attention to detail and the historical events that took place at the time Bernard narrates an entertaining and dramatic tale that begins with his early experiences in public schools and continues through his graduate training in social work at the University of Pittsburgh Through anecdotes and personal reflections Bernard traces the remarkable life journey that eventually led him into fifty years of service with the United States Department of Agriculture and as founding Executive Director for the Jewish Association for Services for the Aged JASA Hope A Memoir provides an intriguing glimpse into the evolution of a family and how one man overcame adversity as a child to live a long full and rich life      Productivity Indices M. S. Silver,1914

The Commons John Palmer Gavit,Graham Taylor,1905      Entering the Fray Jonathan Daniel Wells,Sheila R. Phipps,2009-12-01 The study of the New South has in recent decades been greatly enriched by research into gender reshaping our understanding of the struggle for woman suffrage the conflicted nature of race and class in the South the complex story of politics and the role of family and motherhood in black and white society This book brings together nine essays that examine the importance of gender race and culture in the New South offering a rich and varied analysis of the multifaceted role of gender in the lives of black and white southerners in the troubled decades of the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Ranging widely from conservative activism by white women in 1920s Georgia to political involvement by black women in 1950s Memphis many of these essays focus on southern women s increasing public activities and high profile images in the twentieth century They tell how women shouldered responsibilities for local national and international interests but just as nineteenth century women s status could be at risk from too much public presence women of the New South stepped gingerly into the public arena taking care to work within what they considered their current gender limitations The authors both established and up and coming scholars take on subjects that reflect wide ranging sophisticated and diverse scholarship on black and white women in the New South They include the efforts of female Home Demonstration Agents to defeat debilitating diseases in rural Florida and the increasing participation of women in historic preservation at Monticello They also reflect unique personal stories as diverse as lobbyist Kathryn Dunaway s efforts to defeat the Equal Rights Amendment in Georgia and Susan Smith s depiction by the national media as a racist southerner during coverage of her children s deaths Taken together these nine essays contribute to the picture of women increasing their movement into political and economic life while all too often still maintaining their gendered place as determined by society Their rich insights provide new ways to consider the meaning and role of gender in the post Civil War South

Social Service Review ,1915      HUD Challenge ,1973      Twentieth-Century Pittsburgh, Volume One Roy Lubove,1996-02-15 First published in 1969 Roy Lubove s Twentieth Century Pittsburgh is a pioneering analysis of elite driven post World War II urban renewal in a city once disdained as hell with the lid off The book continues to be invaluable to anyone interested in the fate of America's beleaguered metropolitan and industrial centers     A Gift of Belief Kathleen W. Buechel, 2021-06-01 Philanthropy has long been associated with images of industrial titans and wealthy families In Pittsburgh long a center for industry the shadows of Carnegie Mellon Frick and others loom especially large while the stories of working class citizens who uplifted their neighbors remain untold For the first time these two portraits of Pittsburgh philanthropy converge in a rich historic tapestry The Gift of Belief reveals how Pittsburghers from every strata creed and circumstance organized their private resources for the public good The industrialists and their foundations are here but stand alongside lesser known philanthropists equally involved in institution building civic reform and community empowerment Beginning with sectarian philanthropy in the nineteenth century moving to scientific philanthropy in the early twentieth century and Pittsburgh Renaissance era institution building and concluding with modern entrepreneurship twelve authors trace how Pittsburgh aligned with led or lagged behind the national philanthropic story and explore how ideals of charity and philanthropy entwined to produce distinctive forms of engagement that has defined Pittsburgh's civic life     Presbyterian Banner, 1909
