Kitchen Table Theology Peg Stokman, 1996 As busy people we often want to pray but do not think that we have the time With this in mind Peg Stokman wrote the 110 reflections in this book They may be used in any order for quick moments of reflection whenever needed during a busy day Practical Theology for Aging Derrell R. Watkins, 2013-01-11 Learn new approaches for strengthening the religious bonds of our aging population Through Scripture studies and the personal experiences of religious leaders and congregants Practical Theology for Aging offers new concepts for ministering to our older population Each chapter looks at a different concern for the elderly and addresses it with the assurance that aging is part of God's great work From scientific models and case studies to passages from both the Old and New Testaments this volume illuminates the power of faith in keeping the elderly whole and well Practical Theology for Aging reveals several barriers to the spiritual wellness of our elders These include society's stereotypical views of frailty and incompetence in older people the lack of common support by communities of faith and the dissatisfaction of the elderly with outdated traditional answers to their concerns of aging suffering and death Each barrier can be overcome by utilizing the practical theology you will find in this book Restated throughout the volume is the message that the journey into old age does not have to be filled with dread and fear but can be seen as a path to spiritual maturity This book has practical suggestions that address God's purpose for aging why do we have to grow old sexual health for senior citizens the suffering and physical debilitation that sometimes accompany aging afflictions like dementia and Alzheimer's disease and how to minister to the unresponsive the inclusion of spirituality in rehabilitation to heal the whole person after catastrophic illness or injury preaching to senior citizens as opposed to preaching to a younger congregation so much more Practical Theology for Aging presents tips and strategies for spiritual advisement as well as traditional quotes and references reminding us to respect and honor our aging men and women Whether you are a religious leader caretaker family member or esteemed elder this book is vital for strengthening spirituality in the elderly and promoting their inclusion into the religious community Subject Guide to Books in Print, 2001 The National Magazine: Devoted to Literature, Art, and Religion, 1852 Angeliad Surazeus Astarius, 2017-10-09 Angeliad of Surazeus Revelation of Angela presents 136 377 lines of verse in 1 346 poems lyrics ballads sonnets dramatic monologues eulogies hymns and epigrams written by Surazeus 2001 to 2005 Eliza Cook's Journal Eliza Cook, 1851 Coming Home Graham Tomlin, Malcolm Brown, 2020-10-22 Everyone has an interest in housing because we all live in some kind of home While there has been plenty of theological reflection on the natural environment there has been little on the built environment or on a theology of housing Addressing the urgent problems of housing inequality and affordability Coming Home proposes a practical and biblical theology of housing provision as an essential part of community building It explores the purpose of home and housing today housing and human flourishing shared living and neighbourliness It asks how and why the church should contribute to local and national housing policy and thus to building community life and offers case studies in community action Contributors include Samuel Wells Timothy Gorringer Niamh Colbrook Selina Stone Angus Ritchie and Shermana Fletcher of the Centre for Theology and Community Collectively they bring theology and practice together
