Kitoto The Mighty:

Kitoto the Mighty Tololwa Marti Mollel, 1998 High in the sky a hawk circled and searched Then quick as an arrow he dropped to the ground To little Kitoto each day brings constant danger Even his search for food can end in disaster especially when the sharp eyed hawk is looking for his breakfast too Then Kitoto has an idea If he could find and make friends with the most powerful being on the Savannah he would never have to be afraid again His journey leads him to amazing places and a very remarkable discovery With his usual wit and humor Tololwa M Mollel sends a mighty message to those who might seem weak or small The Kids Book of Black Canadian History Rosemary Sadlier, 2010-08 Learn the important role Black Canadian s have played and will continue to play in the development of Canada The Kids Book of Black History in Canada Rosemary Sadlier, 2024-06-04 An important and comprehensive exploration of 400 years of Black history in Canada This narrative journey through Canadian Black history begins with the arrival in 1604 of Mathieu Da Costa the first known African in Canada and continues through the Black Lives Matter movement and the ongoing fight for social justice It covers Canada s legacy of slavery the Black Loyalists the Underground Railroad the Exodusters and the Black civil rights movements in Canada With sidebars profiles of historical figures and issues spreads that delve into key topics this book is the definitive kids guide to Canadian Black history An inspiring one of a kind resource every classroom and library across the country should have a copy Odysseys Home George Elliott Clarke, 2017-06-22 Odysseys Home Mapping African Canadian Literature is a pioneering study of African Canadian literary creativity laying the groundwork for future scholarly work in the field Based on extensive excavations of archives and texts this challenging passage through twelve essays presents a history of the literature and examines its debt to and synthesis with oral cultures George Elliott Clarke identifies African Canadian literature s distinguishing characteristics argues for its relevance to both African Diasporic Black and Canadian Studies and critiques several of its key creators and texts Scholarly and sophisticated the survey cites and interprets the works of several major African Canadian writers including Andr Alexis Dionne Brand Austin Clarke Claire Harris and M Nourbese Philip In so doing Clarke demonstrates that African Canadian writers and critics explore the tensions that exist between notions of universalism and black nationalism liberalism and conservatism These tensions are revealed in the literature in what Clarke argues to be paradoxically uniquely Canadian and proudly apart from a mainstream national identity Clarke has unearthed vital but previously unconsidered authors and charted the relationship between African Canadian literature and that of Africa African America and the Caribbean In addition to the essays Clarke has assembled a seminal and expansive bibliography of texts literature and criticism from both English and French Canada This important resource will inevitably challenge and change future academic consideration of African Canadian literature and its place in the international literary map of the African Diaspora Black Authors and Illustrators of Books for Children and Young Adults Barbara Thrash Murphy, Deborah L.
