Cook, 2021-06-01 A searing Southern story about confronting the difference between the family you re born into and the family you choose from the acclaimed author of How to Bury Your Brother Lex fled Memphis years ago making ends meet with odd jobs teaching English around the world She only returns when she has no choice when her godmother presents her with a bargain she can t refuse Lex has never understood her mother who died tragically right before Lex s college graduation but now she s got a chance to read her journals to try and figure out what sent her mother spiraling all those years ago The Memphis that Lex inhabits is more bourbon and bbq joint than sweet tea on front porches and as she pieces together the Memphis her mother knew seeing the lure of the world through her mother s lush writing she must confront more of her own past and the people she left behind Once all is laid bare Lex must decide for herself What is the true meaning of family Talk Southern to Me Julia Fowler, 2018-03-06 The creator of YouTube s Southern Women Channel shares humorous lighthearted essays on Southern life Talk Southern To Me is a love letter to the South y all Essays bout charm beauty and style chewin the fat love parenting and more full of yes ma ams and no sirs casseroles and cheese balls taffeta and pom poms plus more Southern phrases than you can shake a stick at If you re not from the South bless your heart pay attention cause there s a ton of wisdom to be found in these heartfelt humorous ways Southerners speak their own unique version of the English language and you ll come to understand it in these pages It s a linguistic art And it s gooder than grits y all I really love Talk Southern to Me I know you ll love it too It s fun informative and oh so Southern Dolly Parton

Julia Fowler's humor and intelligence shine through everything she does including the pages of this most entertaining book Patricia Altschul author of The Art of Southern Charm A hilarious wise and winning explanation of the heart and soul of the South written by one of its most beloved and loveable daughters Celia Rivenbark columnist and New York Times bestselling author of You Don't Sweat Much for a Fat Girl Lord have mercy on my soul did Julia Fowler hit the nail on the head with her hysterical new book My Mama suddenly came back to life shaking her finger in my face and reminding me of all that is Southern Del Shores writer and director of Sordid Lives How We Talk Allan A. Metcalf, 2000 In short delightful essays a professor of English explains the key features that make American speech so expressive and distinct With chapters on ethnic dialects and dialects in the movies the author reveals the resplendence of one of our nation's greatest natural resources its endless and varied talk Focus: Music of South Africa Carol A. Muller, 2010-04-15 Focus Music of South Africa provides an in depth look at the full spectrum of South African music a musical culture that epitomizes the enormous ethnic religious linguistic class and gender diversity of the nation itself Drawing on extensive field and archival research as well as her own personal experiences noted ethnomusicologist and South African native Carol A Muller looks at how South Africans have used music to express a sense of place in South Africa on the African continent and around the world Part One Creating Connections provides introductory materials for the study of South African Music Part Two Musical Migrations moves to a more focused overview of significant musical styles in twentieth century South Africa particularly those known through world circuits Part Three Focusing In takes the reader into the heart of two musical cultures with case studies on South African jazz and the music of the Zulu language followers of Isaiah Shembe The accompanying downloadable resources offer vivid examples of traditional popular and classical South African musical styles The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture Michael B. Montgomery, Ellen Johnson, 2014-02-01 The fifth volume of The New Encyclopedia of Southern Culture explores language and dialect in the South including English and its numerous regional variants Native American languages and other non English languages spoken over time by the region's immigrant communities Among the more than sixty entries are eleven on indigenous languages and major essays on French Spanish and German Each of these provides both historical and contemporary perspectives identifying the language's location number of speakers vitality and sample distinctive features The book acknowledges the role of immigration in spreading features of Southern English to other regions and countries and in bringing linguistic influences from Europe and Africa to Southern English The fascinating patchwork of English dialects is also fully presented from African American English Gullah and Cajun English to the English spoken in Appalachia the Ozarks the Outer Banks the Chesapeake Bay Islands Charleston and elsewhere Topical entries discuss ongoing changes in the pronunciation vocabulary and grammar of English in the increasingly mobile South as well as naming patterns storytelling preaching styles and politeness all of which deal with ways language is woven into southern culture From Invisible to Visible: Stories of Taiwanese Hakka Heritage Teachers' Journeys May H. Hsieh, 2012-01-31 From invisible to visible Stories of Taiwanese Hakka heritage teachers journeys is a study exploring teachers views and experiences with Hakka heritage language education and instruction in Taiwan These teachers are involved in Taiwans current heritage language program and also experienced the Mandarin Movement which started several decades ago Data for this qualitative study was collected from interviews with 10 Hakka teachers involved in Hakka heritage language instruction in elementary schools in Taiwan The research findings indicate that the heritage language program reinforces the value of Hakka culture and Hakka identity In addition this study shows that the Mandarin Movement demonstrated the elementary schools important role in the cultivation of students language use habits and perceptions toward the various Taiwanese languages The Browning of the New South Jennifer A. Jones,2019-05-13

Studies of immigration to the United States have traditionally focused on a few key states and urban centers but recent shifts in nonwhite settlement mean that these studies no longer paint the whole picture Many Latino newcomers are flocking to places like the Southeast where typically few such immigrants have settled resulting in rapidly redrawn communities In this historic moment Jennifer Jones brings forth an ethnographic look at changing racial identities in one Southern city Winston Salem North Carolina This city turns out to be a natural experiment in race relations having quickly shifted in the past few decades from a neatly black and white community to a triracial one Jones tells the story of contemporary Winston Salem through the eyes of its new Latino residents revealing untold narratives of inclusion exclusion and interracial alliances The Browning of the New South reveals how one community s racial realignments mirror and anticipate the future of national politics Academic Biliteracies David M. Palfreyman,Christa van der

Walt,2017-03-02 Research on academic literacy within higher education has focused almost exclusively on the development of academic literacy in English This book is unique in showing how students use other languages when they engage with written academic content whether in reading discussing or writing and how increasingly multilingual higher education campuses open up the possibility for students to exploit their multilingual repertoires in and around reading writing for academic purposes Chapters range from cases of informal student use of different written languages to pedagogical institutional and disciplinary strategies leveraging multilingual resources to develop biliteracy They are ordered according to two dominant themes The first includes accounts of diverse multilingual contexts where biliteracy practices emerge in response to the demands of academic reading and writing The second theme focuses on more deliberate attempts to teach biliteracy or to teach in a way that supports biliteracy The collection will be of interest to researchers higher education practitioners and students of multilingual higher education and academic literacy South Africa's Weapons of Mass

Destruction Helen E. Purkitt,Stephen F. Burgess,2005-05-11 South Africa s Weapons of Mass Destruction offers an in depth view of the secret development and voluntary disarmament of South Africa s nuclear biological and chemical weapons program Project Coast Helen E Purkitt and Stephen F Burgess explore how systems used for nuclear biological and chemical weapons in South Africa were acquired and established beyond the gaze of international and domestic political actors On the basis of archival evidence from Project Coast and their own extensive interviews with military and political officials Purkitt and Burgess consider what motivates countries to acquire and build such powerful weaponry and examine when and how decisions are made to dismantle a military arsenal voluntarily Questions such as how to destroy weapons safely and keep them from reappearing on international markets are considered along with comparative strategies for successful disarmament in other nation states Merchant of the Orient Don Battles,2013-05-04 Merchant of the OrientAn
