I Am Because We Are

Betty Press

I Am Because We Are:

I Am Because We Are Betty Press, 2013-06-03 I Am Because We Are features 125 black and white photographs by Betty Press taken all over East and West Africa since 1987 combined with related African proverbs compiled by Annetta Miller an American born in Tanzania. The book highlights the importance of proverbs in educating members of African societies on how to think how to behave and how to have a better life. Press took these photographs with the goal of making a significant educational and artistic contribution to the appreciation and understanding of African culture and society as well as our own. The photographs of daily life deal with knowledge cooperation love beauty friendship hope humor sorrow happiness gratitude dance tradition faith peace war death and human relationships. These are the same themes found in African proverbial language. Thus came the natural idea of coupling images with proverbs. Together they offer a powerful expression of African life and the universality of human emotions ideas and knowledge. I Am Because We Are Chidiogo

A woman in a man's world she was elected and became a cabinet minister but she had to deal with political manoeuvrings death threats and an assassination attempt for defending the voiceless. She suffered for it as did her marriage and six children. I Am Because We Are illuminates the role of kinship family and the individual's place in society while revealing a life of courage how community shaped it and the web of humanity that binds us all. UBUNTU - I AM BECAUSE WE ARE: Parables of the United Human Spirit Dr. Shilpa Aroskar, 1901 It's yet

Ways of Being Alive Baptiste Morizot, 2022-03-07 The ecological crisis is a very real crisis for the many species that face extinction but it is also a crisis of sensibility that is a crisis in our relationships with other living beings We have grown accustomed to treating other living beings as the material backdrop for the drama of human life the animal world is regarded as part of nature juxtaposed to the world of human beings who pursue their aims independently of other species Baptiste Morizot argues that the time has come for us to jettison this nature human dualism and rethink our relationships with other living beings Animals are not part of a separate natural world they are cohabitants of the Earth with whom we share a common ancestry the enigma of being alive and the responsibility of living decent lives together By accepting our identity as living beings and reconnecting with our own animal nature we can begin to change our relationships with other animals seeing them not as inferior lifeforms but as living creatures who have different ways of being alive This powerful plea for a new understanding of our relationships with other animals will be of great interest to anyone concerned about the ecological crisis and the future of different species including our own

Fernandez, 2022-05-19 So many lives have been lost now and the death toll still continues to rise because of the COVID 19 pandemic The poor and the marginalized not surprisingly have been disproportionately affected The pandemic has exposed the fault lines not only in our healthcare but also in our political and economic system a system driven by the pursuit of the bottom line profits If we are not only to survive but also thrive as a global society the challenge of the coronavirus pandemic must lead us to explore ways of thinking being and dwelling that promote our shared flourishing It is time to take personal stock about ourselves who we are where we have been and where we are heading What can the pandemic teach us about ourselves What is it revealing about us and our situation How shall we dwell together Do we want to wake up to a new and better tomorrow after this nighttime of pandemic That will largely depend on the way we respond now Who are we becoming in this time of pandemic What daily practices are we doing as embodiments of the new world we are anticipating Hearings, Reports and Prints of the Senate Committee on Labor and Public Welfare United States. Thinking? Katrin Flikschuh, 2017-10-05 Starting from Kant's striking question What is orientation in thinking this book argues that the main challenge facing global normative theorising lies in its failure to acknowledge its conceptual inadequacies We do not know how to reason globally instead we tend to apply our domestic political experiences to the global context Katrin Flikschuh argues that we must develop a form of global reasoning that is sensitive to the variability of contexts rather than trying to identify a uniquely shareable set of substantive principles we need to appreciate and understand local reasons for action Her original and incisive study shows how such reasoning can benefit from the open ended nature of Kant's systematic but non dogmatic philosophical thinking and from reorientation from a domestic to a non domestic frame of thought It will appeal to all those interested in global moral issues as well as to Kant scholars

Pathways to Peacebuilding

Uchenna D. Anyanwu, 2022-11-30 Given the consistent challenge of Islamist acute violence particularly in Nigeria this monograph attempts to respond to the question How can Jesus's followers pattern response to violence after Jesus's model demonstrated in his triumph over death evil sin and violence through staurocentric pathways And how can Jesus's followers in Nigeria adopt the same staurocentric model in order to not only overcome acute violence within the country but also to extend hands heads hearts and homes of staurocentric forgiveness hospitality and other practices toward Muslims In this study I posit that peacebuilding contextual theology be grounded on the mystery of the cross stauros a theologico theoretical framework that the church in Nigeria should espouse in order to position herself to extend hands heads hearts and homes of staurocentric practices whose appropriation must be undertaken through constructive and critical integration of the God given African peacebuilding concepts autochthonous to Africa's mosaic cultural contexts The pivotal thesis is that the staurocentric model remains the triune God's instrument for triumphing over violence and thus should be espoused by Jesus's followers in every era and context for peacebuilding in contexts of violence through a triadic constructive and critical integration of indigenous peacebuilding concepts
